INTRODUCTION

We consider the Earth to be an inner school. And it won't be long before this Earth changes. It has changed many times, and now it's time for another change. It is said that after some time our Earth will shift from its orbit, great darkness will come, and darkness will fall upon all people.

There is no one on this Earth, who is not troubled by something. These troubles, however, and these worries are not real. Why? Because in life, as well as in nature, nothing is lost, nothing is gained. When saying that nothing can be gained, we mean that nothing can be created. And indeed, at present no new things can be created. I won't explain why and for what reasons. There is one thing that is important to know, it's that the world is about to be liquidated. It has almost finished the circle of its development. A new age is dawning, in which new things will be created. In order for one to be able to create something new, he must be in harmony with the entire Cosmos, with all the elemental powers, working in the world. One has to have proper notion of God, in order to understand His essence. It is not about defining what is God, but He must be understood.

Some ask: "What is eternity?" Eternity cannot be defined. If it is about the manifested, defined eternity, a lot can be said, because it has defined itself. Nothing can be said about the un-manifested life.

The rational, sublime world, in which people do not believe, has decided to create such a core and start its conscious work. It is supposed that by the end of this century, 8 000 adherents will come and incarnate in all parts of the Earth, and they will give a new direction to the social, religious, family life, as well as the entire culture. Everything existing so far will change and a new, proper life will be created, such that they understand and know. They have taken into account all the measures for this reform, with which they will surprise the world.

The new culture requires completely selfless people, who will neither judge, nor self-condemn. The new culture does not deal with people's infirmities.

What is the North Pole? It is the truth, which a person can handle. What is the South Pole? It's the good in the world, which has all it takes to settle the discord between good and bad. How can you settle them? Good and evil live at the South Pole, and truth and lie live at the North Pole. Lie is bonded to Truth and both love each other, but they differ in nature. Lie is utterly covetous, while Truth is so generous that it wants nothing for itself. It retains nothing for itself. Truth is free. Truth sometimes wants to take a walk someplace. It leaves Lie as the master. – "I'll leave you here to be the master, you take care of things. " It goes for a walk. Lie, left alone, now starts plundering everywhere. The places, where both poles are cold, where there is a lot of cold – this is due to the Lie. Lie has gathered all the snow, it lets nothing escape, it has conserved it. Whenever Truth comes, it says: "How much have I earned!" When you go to the South Pole, Evil robs everything. It is a rascal, robbing from here and there. It tastes the accumulated wealth. Then Good comes, smiles a little. Good walks, strolls along the earth and Truth strolls along. Evil and Lie sit at both poles, guarding their treasure.

So, whenever your life is miserable sometime, you are, like the Lie, at the North Pole, which gathers everything. You want to gather everything. When you start wanting to gather everything, you are already on duty, you have Lie's job. If you want to gather everything, you get the duty of Evil. It has everything, but nothing grows at the North Pole – it can't be used. Then a change comes, changing the pole. One day the Earth will flip – the North and South Poles will turn and become the Equator. What you now call East and West will be two poles. And the earth will change. Many times have the poles changed. There all the gathered wealth of Lie and all the gathered wealth of Evil lie. All this will melt, there will be a flood. That great flood once happened for one reason only – it's because the poles changed, that all the wealth of Evil and Lie melted and flooded the entire Earth.

Sometimes you loose heart. I look at your yellowish, greenish, pale faces. Do you know how the Hindus explain the formation of the white race? They believe the white race emerged, because God summoned Man and asked: "What do you do to your brother?", and Man got pale with fear, because he wasn't treating his brother well. He got white from fear. So the whites on Earth got white from fear. This is not a natural whiteness. The next race must be the one, giving light. Whiteness is something absorbing into the inside, and light is something giving to the outside. All these systems of the current mankind will collapse. Not a single system will remain. You will witness that. You will be beholders. All small things, all big things, churches as well – all will collapse. This all has exhausted its purpose and something new will be created. It is not important what people thing, but how you must thing. You must have a proper philosophy of life. If you are a bird, you'll pass the river like a bird. If you are a fish, you'll cross the river as a fish. If you are a man – cross the bridge. Cross the river anyway you can, but cross it sensibly.

One day our Earth will be set alight and set ablaze. Then people will be set ablaze and won't burn. People will purify their bodies and live in the fire. One can also live in fire, but in the fire of light. Strange are all those people, who think that one can only live in this fire. One can live in the light, walk within it, live in the flame of heath, without burning. Everywhere there's life. I've studied these things and never found a single exception in the laws of nature.

Now we are living in an age, when God is acting in the world. He is making a great transformation of the entire nature, of the entire order of things. In the Scripture it is said that Sun will get dark, the stars will vanish, the Moon will be tinted. This shows that all those religious, unrightful beliefs, which people have had for thousands of years, will depart, will vanish. All those laws and rules, people had, will depart. Something new, something good is to be introduced to the world. In the future order, in that, which is now coming, death will have no place. There will be no hungry people. If there is hunger, their hunger will be amusement for them. There will be no thirsty people either. Thirst will also be amusement. There will be no sick people either. All people will be healthy. And they will not multiply excessively, as they do now. In the future life in every home there will be just one child – either male or female. There will be no servants. Everybody will compete to do some work first. And work will not be paid, as it is now, there will be no salaries. Servants will have an honorable place. In the future order, masters will stand up to their servants. The servants will distribute goods. They will bring goods to the people.

You think an angel acts softly and you can easily withstand his presence. If an angel comes with his light, you will fall flat on the ground. The energy in him is so strong, that you will feel weak in your feet and say: „Nothing remained in me!” And he will have to recover you once again. Some of you want to befriend angels – they will make you feel weak in your feet. You should start with genius people, they are the most rigorous, their justice is rigorous. Sometimes something rigorous speaks in you – this is the genius. Then the saint will come, after that the angel, and at last, when God comes, that state of Love, the law will be different. When God comes, the worm becomes a butterfly, when God comes, the criminal becomes a saint. Until God comes, everybody will remain in his own order. The wolf will remain wolf. They say the wolf will graze with sheep. But this will happen, when God comes and teaches them. And lives among them. And the saint, and the angels and the geniuses will rule. Until the fourth one – God – comes to rule the world!

Because you are of the fearful, your future cannot be told. For, if you enter the invisible world, say get out of this body, and with your ether duplicate or your Astral body, or your mental body, then in this world, you will be driven through a great furnace. And if you preserve your consciousness, this burning fire on earth can't harm you. You know about the test with the three youths were put in a furnace. If you know the law, if you can increase the vibrations of your body, if you can increase them to several million vibrations more than they are now, you can be fired at with a grenade, and as at 100 meters, the energy that will get out from you, will disperse.

The scripture says: "The Earth, when it comes to the face of God, will melt at once". Now imagine that the entire Earth, with the modern people, arrives to the face of God and the entire Earth immediately disappears, we will remain in the air. What will remain of us, you tell me? All of you, who are now here, are still not ready. What will happen to you is what happens to the Earth. You will also melt away.

Now, some even want to see Christ. This is what Apostle Paul says: "Christ, when he arrived on Earth, took the appearance of a servant. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself." But He also had a spiritual appearance, which is not subject to the same laws.

The black race is the reminder of a race, which did not adhere to the laws of nature. The yellow race remained from a race, which was once flourishing. And the white race, which is now flourishing, if we do not observe due order, will have the same destiny as the yellow, black and red ones, and another will come after that, as the white race replaced the yellow. So another race will replace the white as well.

In nature there is a reasonable law, changing form, liberating people's minds and thoughts from inner slavery. Imagine now that antagonism, existing between the rich and the poor. Imagine the antagonism, existing between men and women, the antagonism, existing now between masters and slaves, governors and governed. How are we going to deal with this discord?

Religion is a science for the education of the human heart. Science is a science for the education of the human mind. And now, when we speak of the sixth race, I mean a new school, which will educate, train human souls, manifest the human soul. People are just starting to learn how to manifest their souls. Some say: "Am I not free?" When the school for the human soul is opened, then freedom will come to this world. Freedom is property only of the human soul. Only the human soul is capable of appreciating the freedom that God has given us. With the current conceptions, heart cannot appreciate what freedom is. Mind can have some concept of freedom, but it can't fully appreciate it either. Only soul can come, appreciate freedom and apply it to itself and the others. For the time being, all people appreciate freedom to a certain extent only. By "freedom" we understand the eternal harmony in which the world exists. God has no desire whatsoever of abuse any being. He watches with equal attention all beings – big and small. He knows that even from the smallest creatures, coming out of Him, after millions of millions of years, great, intelligent beings will evolve. Has the great tree not grown from a tiny seed? Look at how small the apple seed is. After many years the apple becomes million times larger than its seed.

Now scientists are divided in two: some maintain that Earth is getting away from the Sun, others claim that Earth is getting nearer to the Sun. A time will come, when all the planets under the Sun will gather at one place. They will decide how a new world will be created and then each planet will go away in a direction of its own. Then the Earth will go and visit all the planets. The residents of the Earth of those times, will be adjusted to enduring the high temperatures on those planets, and especially of the Sun. One day the entire solar system will go through fire and be purified. Then nothing will remain of people's sins. The sins of today's people result from the special composition of the matter in which they live. This matter is unstable and a special type of decay takes place in it. In the future this matter will crystallize and the world will be transformed in a special way. Then sin will be impossible, because there will be no such matter that creates it. The matter will be stable. Then the real life will come. Then you will have friends, who love you and whom you love. Then you will see what heavenly beauty means. Then you will see beautiful worlds in front of you, with beautiful mountain springs, beautiful plants. Then you will see those springs, which form the oceans. This is the Divine world. Then you will see that a new Earth exists, which people do not know, but where they first lived. It is called an inhabitable earth, but it is not the one you know. In that Earth there are 12 fountains, which are the sources of the other fountains of life. Then you will see the crystal fountains of immortality – the sources of life. There you will see that the water itself has created material life. There you will see how the world was created. This will happen in the future. All this will be revealed to you only if you have love of God. It is not an issue of good life. Not, only Love can save people. Without love, there is no salvation for the world. Good cannot save man. Good is the result of love. Love has to enter the world and start working in all hearts, in all minds, in all souls and in all spirits. Love has to start working everywhere. The Scripture refers to precisely this time: "I will incarnate in them / I will put my law in their minds; and write it on their hearts/ and they will be my people".

I consider religious those people, who help mankind. If they do not help mankind in its elevation, these are not religious people. For a man to live only for himself – this is no religion.

Mankind is interested only in what can elevate it. The elevation of mankind is also our personal elevation. All the people, religious and secular, all the peoples must have one common idea – the elevation of mankind, of vegetation, animals and the entire Earth. One day the Earth will have to turn to God. And the plants will have to turn to God. You may say that plants are meek. Then what about wormwood? One day, when it becomes a man, wormwood will preserve its temper that it had as wormwood. The pepper, when it becomes a man, will preserve its temper that it had when still being pepper. It will be hot, it will cut. What will beans be like, when they become human? Just what they are now. In order for the beans to be good for something, you must boil them for three-four hours.

Now I am asking: If the world is to remain without being smitten by a disaster, what is to be done? The world needs good people. How many good and righteous people are needed now in Bulgaria, so that it can avoid a great disaster? How many good people are needed in Germany, in France, in Italy, in Bulgaria and among all peoples, so that they remain as they are now? How much goodness has to be there in every single person, so that he can remain what he is now? Every person has to have at least ten good thoughts, ten noble feelings and ten righteous acts in him, so that he does not die, and remain on Earth. So this is the number 30, an even number. If you have this number in you, I can endorse that you will pass through death and be resurrected. If you do not have that number, you will find yourself in the position of Sodom and Gomorrah. You just sit and wait for the world to get better on its own. No, this is impossible. You must have in you at least ten beautiful thoughts, ten good wishes and ten good acts. It is through these 30 things that you will connect to the spiritual world and find out what this world is.

Now I'll give you an example, an explanation that the scholars do not know. Look, our industrialists now all have started extracting coal from the Earth, for they need it. But do you know what age was back then when coal was formed? It was such a tyranny, such violence, as the world has never seen. Back then all plants and animals were bristly and that's why Nature was trying to find a way to calm down the world. At last it decided to turn all of them into black coal. Not knowing that, people think that through coal, God sends them good and start using them in industry. However, as this coal burns, the people, entrapped therein, start to escape and get among people. And all modern people start living a coal period, not of the dead coal, but of the living ambers, which now start to burn. You ask: "What is to be done now, so that world can be fixed?" If you don't know, go on and extract coal, but you will have to live with their bad consequences. Modern people cannot deal with these impulses, which nature had ages ago.

We must connect to our old homeland. Blessed are those who received their first letter from the old homeland, where they had come from. Because people are not yet connected to that homeland, they are thrown somewhere in slavery. When are you going to be liberated? When you manage to connect to that homeland. For thousands of years, messengers from the invisible world visit us, trying to give you a message of that homeland, but you say: "We don't want to be lied. We've come here, and here we will stay ". Earth, however, is a great ship, on which all of you sail. Maybe after a hundred thousand years this ship will stop at a port and all of you will have to leave it. Now I'm not saying that you must believe, but these are scientific data, which one can neither deny nor claim. There are certain things that are neither to be denied nor claimed. For example, we cannot claim or deny the other life. It cannot be proven under the present conditions of living. Some say that being born they will die. Have you died before, so that you know what death is? Until you have died, you cannot speak of death. When you die, then you can speak. Now you live, so you cannot talk about death. - "But, all those scholars say... ". Have those scholars died before? None of them has ever died, and yet all of them preach that we are going to die. Who, among you, has ever died? Someone says, his father died. How does he know that his father died? What if he has hidden somewhere? When the caterpillar stops to be a caterpillar, has it died? All the caterpillars say that it has died, feel sorry for it and she flies from flower to flower, as a butterfly. It has put on its magnificent, colorful garment and sings its song of life. Its current condition is much better than that, which was before.

THE NEW EARTH

There are only two great things that are equally powerful: these are the great small and the great big. The great small can set the entire world on fire, and the great big can extinguish the entire world. The great small is that spark, which causes the most ferocious fires. The great big is the turbulent river, which can both cause a great flood, and extinguish all fires. Whenever the great big works, a flood is coming upon the world, whenever the great small works, fire is burning in the world. Whenever the great big and the great small combine in a common, mutual work, something great is build. This is the science of the sons of light.

The prophets say that Earth will go through major perturbations, which will transform it completely.

Study the prophets. They wrote about the English, the Germans, the Russians etc. What happens now can be found in John's Revelation, in the books of Ezekiel, Daniel, of Isaiah, but knowledge is needed to understand their writings.

People live in darkness and impurity and god sends to the world lighted souls, to serve as lamps in darkness and give a helping hand; the world is brought to significant trials and facing equally significant suffering. Work has to be done among all souls. Read about the significant forthcoming events in the book of Ezekiel, chapter 38.

The prophets have described the events, which are to happen in the near future clearly, and those – to come in the more distant future – more obscurely. Whenever a prophet sees something, he must know in which sky he sees it: in the first, the second or the third. It is very difficult to translate Divine events. There are also things, which one can't and shouldn't talk about. The second coming is not cancelled, but shortened. The Revelation says that Michael defeated the serpent, then the serpent came to Earth and dashed after people.

The current condition of the Earth is not good, it is in the thirteenth sphere of being, in a place of perpetual struggles. It is almost at the end of this phase and it is about to enter the twelfth one, where conditions improve.

The Earth is now exiting the thirteenth sphere, which is a place of misfortunes, of evil, and that is why people now suffer so much. All the bad things are in the thirteenth sphere.

We are now exiting the thirteenth sphere, passing through happy areas, where the new Earth is being created. Thus that the future years will be happy years of the new Sky, the new Earth. Whoever believes will experience that, and whoever does not believe – he will see that.

Our solar system is immersed in a current of a denser matter. We are the so-called “thirteenth sphere”, which is made of a denser matter. The Earth has at present half-exited the thirteenth sphere. After it has fully exited it, the sixth race will come.

In this way, the Earth has also entered that area. Or in other words: we have established a connection with a virgin matter, and that is why we expect resurrection. That is why, those who are ready for that time, will adopt the new wave.

So far the Earth has been descending, and now it begins its ascend.

For millions of years, the Solar system has been passing through an area in space, filled with poisons. Now it is exiting that area and is entering a spiritual area, inhabited by advanced beings. This will expand the horizon of mankind in its knowledge of nature; will make it more susceptible of new ideas.

The Earth is still growing-up, it is still adolescent. After millions of years, the reverse process will begin – the shrinking. Earth's poles are shifting. In the future, the Pole will become Equator and the Equator – Pole. There were times, when the Equator was Pole and the Pole – Equator. In the past history, the poles shifted. Bulgaria was once a tropical country and will once again be one. The occultists know that at a time the Sun rose from the west. This shows the scale of the changes that have taken place. At that time Earth's axis was not in its current position. A change will come in the distribution of the land and seas. The sea will rush into some countries – this happened before.

“And the Earth was formless and void.” The Earth is now still forming. While people develop, the Earth will also develop. When people pass to a higher stage of development, the Earth will ascend with them. Earth's forms will get more and more beautiful and perfect. The development process, through which the Earth is currently passing, is slow and even. In the past Earth's development was swift, accompanied by great catastrophes.

Actually the new culture has already been realized, it exists, and it only needs to be taken down to the Earth. There is a Divine Plan, which has already been realized. It must descend to the Earth.

Now the Earth exits the thirteenth sphere, exits the dense matter. All the educated beings of the Universal White Brotherhood have been mobilized and are preparing the new culture. The White Brotherhood will change everything into good. The lecture “The New Mankind” speaks of the exception in the Solar system. The time for this exception is coming, but in terms of ascending, in a favorable way. These changes, happening to the Earth, this exception will not be catastrophic, however the Earth will change. The entire solar system is establishing a connection with something of a supreme nature.

People's minds change. The politics cannot find their way in their politics. Things are happening too fast.

When the Sun turns 100 million times around its axis, only one exception can be observed. This applies also to Earth's motion, as well as to people's motion: whenever the Earth and people turn 100 million times around their axes, an exception from the regular course of their motion can be observed. The great and beautiful is enclosed in exactly that exception, because there both elevation and downfall of man happen.

For the Earth, after going round the Sun 100 million times, there is one exception – catastrophic and favorable. Such an exception is now about to come. Our Earth has made so many circles, that it is now close to the catastrophe. When will that happen? I won't tell you the date! The same applies to the Sun – whenever it makes 100 million circles, the exception will come.

The mankind enters a solar age at certain periods. We are now in a Solar age and not only that, there is another exception in Nature – at every 100 million turns of the Earth, there is one exception, and it is now of ascending nature. This will bring something extremely good to the world, it will transform it. He, who has worked, will have new feelings and inspiration, and he, who hasn't, even if the favorable conditions come, he won't be able to benefit from them.

The Earth has passed through several major crises. It has passed the polar crisis, when the poles formed, then it passed the Lemuria phase – the black race appeared on Earth and evil emerged. Black people remained from that time, the time of the downfall of man, after the downfall the current race appeared, by the Atlantean race is the one connected to the flood and the emerging of the white race. Now the Earth is in another crisis.

Now we are in the most unfavorable conditions in space. The place, where we are in space, is the cause of this disorder. We are in a place of destruction. The things, happening now, are due to certain fragments. Bullets and shells shall fall on the Earth from Space, and every year about ten million such shells fall. One day we will arrive at a better place and then peace will rule

The Earth will change climatically and organically. The time will soon come, that it will come in contact with another Solar system, which will have a massive effect on our Solar system.

Our Solar system is in the outskirts of the Universal city and is now entering a new form. While getting ever nearer the center of the Universe, major transformations occur.

In the development of the Solar system, a 25-thousand year cycle ends. During such changes in the Solar system, external changes always occur as well. And now the scholars say that the Moon will be destroyed and all the dust from the Moon will fall on the earth. Because people plough and consume a lot, the Earth needs fertilizers. This dust will rejuvenate the Earth. Some ask: “What will come on the place of this Moon?” It is said that a new planet will appear. This is what people say. If a new planet comes, it will be so huge that all of you will see it. These people say that it will not take long for these things to happen – they will happen soon. No one knows how soon that will be.

We are now in the world of sand. Everything we are now building will be destroyed. 20 years ago Serbia became great, Romania became great, Greece became great, France became great, and now after 20 years all this greatness will vanish. Even now, what appears won't last long. We are now rejoicing, but what happens now is not real either. We don't know God's ways. You are now afraid that a bomb might fall. Here we have scores of thousand kilos of bombs. In space many times shells that big are thrown, in the Solar system there such shells are thrown and sometimes these are fired at the Earth. A shell is thrown in space, 20 kilometers in diameter. If it falls in Europe, do you know what would happen? Europe would vanish. Now we are afraid of people's shells, we are not afraid of celestial grenades. The astrologists have predicted such things many times. There are some enormous shells of 100–200 kilometers in diameter. What would happen if such a shell falls? Life is insecure, providence protects us. That is why the Earth moves very fast – so that when such shells are fired, sometimes they miss. The earth has been avoiding hits for thousands of years like an airplane, it is constantly being shot at, but it escapes without being hit.

The only thing important is that we move fast and think fast, because we are in a world of constant gunning. If we don't move fast, we will get hurt. We think we may sit calmly. No, no, the fastest we move, the better, that is why the fastest you think, the better for you. The better you live, the better for you. The stronger you are, the better for you. One can be strong, good, smart. But it's the quickness that can help us avoid, surpass all the hardships we face. The Scripture says: "he that endureth to the end shall be saved."

People of today live in a world of great discord, where evil rules, and good serves. A new world is now created, with a new order and new rules, where evil will serve and good will rule. There are no times more important than these we now live in. One can use them. It is transitional state. In order for culture to flourish on the Earth, it must pass through the appropriate areas in Space, and it is alive. The Earth is to pass through the respective spaces, so that the necessary energy for life comes. We are now entering new areas and the Earth is already in a state of ascending motion – earlier it used to descend and now it is ascending. That is why our motion of development is to be in harmony with the ascending motion of the Earth and the Sun. And whoever fails to abide that law, he shall loose all his prospects. In the Scripture God says: "Seek for me, while I am near".

Now the whole mankind passes through a phase, which is unavoidable. Nothing can change this course. The reasons come from the distant past. Some can say that we, the people, are the cause for that. We are not the only reason. For the earthquakes to happen there are thousands of other reasons. We may contribute to the earthquakes, but the reasons are further back.

The Earth travels in space and you feel out of sorts. Why? Because whenever the Earth passes through a good area of that aerial ocean, through a tropical spot, you feel good, whenever you get near the arctic areas, you feel out of sorts, you change. Therefore the scholars say nothing. The scholars do not know - are we getting near the Equator of the universe or getting away from it. Now we are getting near the Equator of Life. This is the new age that comes. We are getting near the Divine Equator. That Equator – it's the Love of Life. We are approaching the Equator of Love. Therefore a great Good is to come upon the whole mankind

How do you know the coming of the Kingdom of God? By the azure shining, to be seen over the Balkan Peninsula. It shows that providence works hard and purifies the physical world and the spiritual atmosphere.

Just like the seasons of the year change unnoticed every three months, the conditions of life also change unnoticed.

Earth's atmosphere will become very thin, the amount of the oxygen will decrease, as well as the atmospheric pressure.

This Earth will be transformed, this entire world will sink into the earth, new continents will appear and there will be new air.

The new conditions require new minds. A time comes, when the air on Earth will get thinner and all the people, who are used to breathing the dense air, will suffocate. The air will get thinner, they will start breathing quickly, then the light and temperature will increase. If your eyes are not used to the bright light, you will start squinting and the light will blind them. The temperature will increase and what will happen, if your heart does not adjust to that heat?

If somebody comes and says that you must change your lives and make boats to sail on, you will object, saying that you don't believe that and cannot change your lives, which your ancestors and forbears lived. I tell you to take measures, because the Earth is about to go through a major change. If you don't believe, a time will come, when you will verify my words. The sun will start shining brighter, it will melt all the ice, your houses will crack, the ice will melt and you will start sinking. You'll then say: "What's that destiny that has befallen upon us!" It's no destiny, it's Earth's having changed its route, so Sun's rays fall at right angle and melt the ice. You live on a sea of ice. If you are late in changing your lives, soon you will find yourselves at the bottom of the sea. Now I'm telling you: if you don't correct your lives, the same will happen to you.

Always, at the border between two cultures – old and new – a crisis, great discord, storms, calamities, catastrophes occur, because the two streams – old and new, get into conflict. One destroys, while the other builds.

I say: we are now in a transitional period. A new world is being created. The world changes. Whenever ice starts melting, whenever snow starts melting, the spring is coming.

Until the Earth is organized and fully reformed, smaller and bigger concussions will occur. The Earth, on which people now love, is for the fifth race, and the new Earth, which is now being created, will be the home of the new people – the people of the sixth race. Rejoice that the foundation of the new Earth is now being laid. Thousands of architects are now working for its reconstruction. You will witness this construction, you will witness the great science, the great culture. So, I say: you will verify that among all the phenomena in nature, there is a close connection. If you review the phenomena from this perspective, you will also have more light. We are for the newness in the world. And from the perspective of the newness in the world, everything is to be respected.

Now the mankind is going through a division in the biological process of its development, it is undergoing the last phase, because the primary human monad, from which it has formed, is near the last, the sixth period. In the occult science, this is referred to as “the emerging of the sixth race “. But, as long as this daughter is of a higher descend, wider preparations are also to be made for her coming: various motions, shifting, destructions and building in the peoples and between the peoples. This, however, should not scare anybody: what is now seen as destruction is merely a shift or transformation of materials from one state into another.

Today the discord is inevitable. The Earth is a closed world, where suffering and discord go together. Until the Earth is recreated and reconstructed, suffering will exist. The Earth has already been created, but now it is being reconstructed. There will be a third recreation as well. Then we will be able to say that we live on the new Earth and within the new heaven, to which the Scripture refers.

The new does not incorporate the properties of the old. Therefore the matter, forming our Earth will be transformed in a specific manner. The new matter will come from space and the new Earth will be created. The Earth will be transformed from the inside. Some things are being created today. And now you are not the same, as you were one year ago. Man constantly draws, his cells, his thoughts and feelings change and renew constantly.

In the future all dry, bad and impure things will burn-out. Only what's pure will remain on Earth.

The North Pole and the South Pole will not be cold anymore, because ice will melt. All the people, who have lower vibrations, will burn-out.

You are facing a great phase in the life of mankind and not much time will pass before you all go through fire. The whole Earth will be in flames. I ask you: can you crawl through that fire? You will say: "Let's hope that does not happen during our time!" It will be during your time. "But how many years from now?" The question should not be after how many years this is to happen, but since you ask, I will tell you: 10 years from now that fire wave will pass and purge the world. The Earth is stained. All the dirt, existing for thousands of years, not only among people, but also among animals, all the human thoughts and desires, as well as the feelings, will pass through purgation, they will be disinfected in the best possible way.

Everything unclean, hidden in the Earth, will be discharged, as a carbuncle. The mankind will pass through such ordeals, such trials that you can't even imagine. It will sweat, redress and refresh itself.

A through purgation is coming. A great fire is coming. You will witness this thing, you will verify it. Today's people are afraid of revolutions, the danger, however, is not in the revolutions, the danger is not in the Bolsheviks, or the rich, or the wars, or the unbelievers. A shifting of the Earth is about to come, which will through both rich and poor in the air, cover them in ashes.

To all people living today I tell not to build tall houses, for it is not after long that Earth's crust will pass through a lot of bending and nothing will be left of those houses. All the tall houses will be demolished, and not a single stone will remain of them. The houses, which will be built in the future, must not be higher than one floor and a half, and not too solid, for they will be demolished. A time is coming, when Earth's crust will bend, and you will bend, together with it.

For four centuries the earthquakes have been gradually increasing in frequency. From the 200 earthquakes once, now they have reached 2 thousand per year. They increase progressively. Scholars say that we are in a period of progressive increase of the earthquakes. According to some scientists this is due to the fact that the Earth is gradually cooling down. The cooling of the Earth produces a gradual shrinking of Earth's core, resulting in earthquakes.

The reasons for the earthquakes are the major and minor shifts of Earth's strata, which have been bending for thousands and millions of years. The Scripture says that we are in the last days, when a new continent is created on Earth. Everybody knows that when something new is being built, there is always hammering, striking, noise, clashes. Masters work with their hammers and chisels. This is what happens now to the entire Earth: the strata shift, sink, bend, volcanoes erupt etc. The scientists explain all this with a number of theories. The masters, working within the Earth are unlike those working on its surface. For them fire is not an obstacle, as it is for the masters on the surface of the Earth. They are intelligent beings, working mainly with their minds. Their minds are so strong, that they can change matter. With only their minds, they can transform vast areas of earth.

Earthquakes must happen in order to clear somewhat the Earth, to startle people, to purge the Earth of some animals. After the earthquake a great chill will come, which will freeze them. Even now frozen pre-flood animals can be found. Now earthquakes happen, and if people do not get better, the chill will come, it will freeze them. Another culture will come after that. Whether scholars dispute that, is a different issue – there’s nothing to prove. When this comes and happens, it will prove itself. This is the course we are on. We are going along this path. What already happened will happen again.

The world itself will be saved. A salvation through fire is coming in the world. The future culture will come with a fire, which will burn the whole Earth and everything will be refined, the poor and the rich will go in front of the fire. It will polish them, make them all equal brothers. The rich will stop being rich at that fire, and the poor man will stop being poor at the fire, the priest will stop being priest, the philosopher will stop being philosopher. All the people will be alike, they will be pure after going through that sacred fire, they will give each other a hand and Nature will tell them: “Live prudently, so that my fire does not fall onto you again”.

The Scripture says that God will create a new Heaven and a new Earth. Many expect a new Earth. No, the Earth will be the same, but some changes will happen to it. Then, wherever man walks – near trees, near springs, near stones, everything will start talking. Then the trees, the stones, the plants and animals, the birds – everything will greet you. Everybody will live together like brothers. This is the sound doctrine, for which people will have to start preparing now.

Many say: “What will happen to the world? What will happen to us?” What will happen to you? You, who are asking this, after 10 thousand years, you will be on the planet Venus. Others will be on the Moon. You’d say you’ll reincarnate. It is so, you will reincarnate, but will you reincarnate on Earth – this is the question. Man has great opportunities in the world.

All people are tourists, carried by the Earth. One day they will finally arrive at a port. Then we all will arrive at a new, well developed planet. Which is that planet? Where is it – this I will not tell you. When you arrive at that planet, you will know its name. When people come to that planet the Earth will remain in a period of repair, lasting several billion of years, to enable it to rest. Therefore the Earth is a mere place of entertainment for people. God loves to provide entertainment to His children.

We will come again to the Earth and the Earth will not be much alike the Earth that we know now. Our lives then will not be like our lives now. The future life will come. Now we are in the last phase of live, which is the iron age. These ages have passed so far: the Golden, Silver, Copper and now the iron age. The future age, of which I am now speaking, the future new race, it will be the golden age, for which we all need to prepare. Then all those great people will come, those ancestors, who once lived. I am not talking about angels, but about the people, who once lived. They will come with their knowledge, with their power and will bring order and organization. These people are many. They once lived on Earth and will now come again. Then there will be amusements – they will bring justice. And then all the living and dead will rise from the graves, all the people will change: the ugly will become fair, and the fair will become even more so, the foolish will become smart, and the smart will get smarter. Joy will rule the Earth for thousands of years! The Earth will become the Garden of Eden. We will eat and drink the juices of nature, we will not go and taste the knowledge as in the days of old.

The Evangelists says: “I saw a new Heaven and a new Earth”. Only with the new understanding we will be able to assess that new heaven and new Earth. In the new Heaven and the new Earth Love among people must be a great ideal, a great law. It will warm their hearts and be their light. It will be their daily food and will give meaning to their lives. And then the entire Universe, all that has been created, will see those future possibilities, which are hiding hear on Earth. A lot of goods will be there for you in the future. When you leave Earth and go to the other world, some goods will await you there as well. You can object to this like this: “How do we know that?” When you try all this, you will remember. I’m not asking you to believe, but one day, when you try all this, then you will remember. When you check for yourselves, you will say that it was said many years ago. Then you will see how true that is. Now let me wish you the good future that is there for you.

THE INCLINATION OF EARTH'S AXIS

The scholars say that the Earth is flattened at the poles, because, as a result of its motion, it has started protruding at the Equator and has flattened at the poles. This is the result of rotation. This is indeed caused by the rotation, but there is also another pressure. The poles are the places where there is a lot of activity, greater pressure from the outside, than the pressure from the inside. Because at the Equator the pressure from within is greater, and the pressure from the outside is smaller, the Earth protrudes at the Equator. What applies to the Earth, also applies to man. Where's the Equator of the human head? Where are its poles? The Equator is the circumference of the head, above the ears, the North Pole is on top of the head and the South Pole is below. The southern hemisphere is heavier than the north hemisphere and as a result of that the axis is inclined. If both hemispheres were with equal weight, then the head would be situated horizontally.

The sun goes now to the southern hemisphere, now to the northern one. One hemisphere shows the condition of human heart, the other hemisphere is at a high level – it shows the condition of the human mind. Because Earth's axis is inclined at 23 degrees to its orbit, this shows that there is a deviation that has happened in human thought, and in this way the Earth shows the deviation. One day, when the deviation in the minds is fixed, Earth's axis will also shift to normal.

The Southern Hemisphere is heavier than the Northern and it is closer to the field of the plane on which the Earth moves. Because the effect of the natural forces is observed in this plane, the poles have flattened. Now we assume that the Southern Hemisphere is heavier, and thus the axis has tilted. There was time, when both hemispheres were equal, at that time the axis was perpendicular to the ecliptic. However during the motion, matter accumulated in the southern hemisphere and the axis tilted. When the axis was perpendicular, the Earth had very good climatic conditions. Then certain reasons occurred, which remain unknown to the scientist, which tilted Earth's axis at 23 degrees. This tilt changed the pressure within. So not only the external weight, but also the forces and pressure contributed to the tilting. When pressure is concerned, there is a weight that is due to the forces, acting in nature. How much does a kilo of force weigh? Are a kilo of matter and a kilo of force equal? How do you visualize force and matter? Isn't physics that deals with force and matter? Matter is considered inert, and what force is? What's the cohesion of matter? How do force and matter differ? Matter is static and force is dynamic. Force, in itself, is invisible. When we move matter from one place to another, then we say this is done through the force that acts.

Since you now see the world, you only know its external side, with its external fortunes. Each planet, however, hides in itself immense internal fortunes, which will one day be made available to people, to all creatures alike. Knowing this, some beings of the invisible world, besiege the Earth from the outside to conquer it. A great war is ranging for conquering the solar system. Once, in the distant past, the Earth was again besieged, which resulted in a 23-degree tilt of its axis.

Those who study astronomy think that the Earth is tilted 23 degrees to the plane of its orbit. It is supposed that once the Earth stood vertically to that plane, it was perpendicular to its orbit. A scholar of the ancient times wanted to explain the reason of Earth's axial tilt and found out that the Moon was the reason for the 23 degrees tilt. He said that once excellent culture was present on the Moon. Back then the Earth wasn't inhabited. Moon's inhabitants decided to go on an expedition, so that they could transfer all the fortunes of the Moon to the Earth. That scholar proved that many of Earth's fortunes are due to the Moon. The scholars at the Moon made a small mistake, calculating Earth's forces – the axis tilted, because one of Earth's hemispheres got heavier than the other and that changed the balance.

According to certain occultists, the fluctuations which the Earth undergoes, are due to a dark planet, situated between the Earth and the Sun. That planet is invisible. After the fall of man, the humankind through its thoughts entered the region of that dark planet.

The Jews write from right to left; look at the Chinese – they right from top to bottom; if you right in European languages, you will write from left to right. The white race writes from left to right. All that writing is connected to Earth's axial tilt. Now this is to be proven. Animals walk horizontally, Earth's axis was parallel to Earth's orbit. And when plants were created, the North Pole was not where it is now. It was at precisely the opposite side. And when man was created, the axis changed. Therefore we changed too. When Earth's axis was not as it is now, plants were created. When the axis was horizontal animals were created, and when the axis became perpendicular to its orbit, man was created.

What would the situation be on our Earth, if its axis was to become parallel to the plane of its orbit? Its positions would change immensely. There was time, when the Europe of our days was at the Equator and tropical animals lived there. You are wondering how did such animals live at the Equator? It was so, depending on its position. It was at the Equator and then shifted and came to its current position. From there Europe moved to the North Pole and now it once again shifts towards the Equator. Based on Earth's motion, scholars determine after how many years, we will once again be at the Equator.

Earth's continents are in motion. There are a number of reasons for that. Which are the reasons for that dislocation? It is a deep philosophy which has to be studied. I say: whenever a continent is moving, this also changes the living conditions of the creatures, living on it. When Europe was on the Equator, the living conditions were more favorable, but when it moved to the north, an ice age started and the living conditions there got less favorable. The ice age shows that the entire Europe got to the North Pole. Based on that life had to change thoroughly. People started living in caves. Then Europe moved to the temperate zone, and with time it will once again come to the Equator. This shows that human organisms are also exposed to mechanical, organic and mental internal changes. This has effect on one's temper. If you go to people, who live on the north pole, they by no means will be as compassionate, as those living in the warm and temperate zones. They are even cruel. If you go to an Eskimo, he by no means will give you his coat, as would a European of today do. We want one person to sacrifice his life for another. For what reason?

The North and the South poles once were tropical areas. Back then Earth's axis was horizontal to the ecliptic, along which it moved. With the tilting of Earth's axis, both animals and plants started changing. This means an advent of poor living conditions. Now Earth's axis must be straightened, it must become perpendicular. This axis also exists in man. And not he strives to straighten his axis and put it in perpendicular position, so that it forms a direct line from the Sun to the center of the Earth. All misfortunes of people of today are due to the fact that a deviation from the perpendicular of about 23 degrees has taken place in them. This deviation has also affected their thoughts, feelings and behavior.

The sinning of man is due to the tilting of Earth's axis by 23 degrees. This sinning is within man. His axis is 23 degrees away from the straight direction. The rays of Love in Human soul come correctly, but man, due to this inclination, fails to perceive them properly.

The Earth has such a form, because its axis is tilted by 23 degrees. This happened thousands of years ago, but I won't discuss now how that happened and how it is to be corrected. What matters now is how we are going to cope with this situation, with the axis tilted in this way. The question, here, is how to receive the solar energy, with the current position of the Earth.

Sun's rays fall perpendicularly at the Equator, and inclined at the poles. In the Northern and Southern Hemisphere they fall inclined and fail to provide as much light and heat as at the Equator. So I say: this law is one and the same. The rays of the Divine Sun do not fall perpendicularly on us, people. Many of you are far from the equator, far from the Divine Equator, some of you are at the North Pole, some at the South Pole. Now, if you take a look at the North and the South Pole, the distance along a straight line is 12 thousand kilometers. This is the distance on Earth. But in a cell, these poles are close to each other, they are not so far apart. On Earth they are wide apart. On each small particle there is a North and a South Pole. Why the South Pole is below and the North – above? If you look at the orbit, the path, along which the earth moves, the South Pole is below – it is heavier. One day, if the North Pole becomes heavier, the entire axis will flip. If the North Pole becomes South, and the South Pole becomes north, what would then happen to the Earth? Even in the current conditions, on its way up, the Earth is no longer inclined at 23 degrees, but at a little more than 22 – the axis is gradually straightening. The axis is straightening, because the South Pole is heavier. These are remote things, but any change, happening to the Earth, also happens inside us. And your mind has to have the same inclinations.

In the current conditions the Earth is not inclined at 23 degrees, but at a little more than 22 – the axis is gradually straightening. Any change, happening to the Earth, also happens inside us. And our minds are slightly tilted. One day, when the Earth straightens until its axis is perpendicular, we will have moderate climate, good living conditions, the mind will be enlightened, the heart – warm, the will – strong, and God’s laws will be observed.

When the first Adam appeared, made of soil, he failed to follow God’s will. He not only failed to follow God’s will, but even opposed to God and started criticizing Him. He wrote a lot of books, in which he criticized the way in which the Earth was created and provided new designs for its creation. An occult legend says that when Adam wrote the first book, criticizing God, Earth’s axis tilted to 23 degrees from its normal position. Then he was banished from heaven. Eve was banished for eating fruit of the forbidden tree, and Adam – for tilting Earth’s axis by 23 degrees.

The second Adam, of whom it is said that he was a life-giving spirit, was assigned with correcting Earth’s axis and remedying the error of the first Adam. Many want to know when Earth’s axis will be corrected. Earth’s axis will be corrected, when the axes of human minds are corrected. Great science, great culture is required for that.

If it is about culture, thousands of years before the fall of mankind, there was a culture, but it was one of joy and mirth. All the living creatures bathed in joy and mirth, all the angels sang and praised the Lord.

Why does not that culture exist anymore? In those times, an internal calamity happened, resulting in the change of the axes of all planets in the Solar system. And the Earth changed its axis, it tilted to 23 degrees. The number 23 is a symbol of turbulence. Therefore the Earth is a place of turbulence. On no other planet there’s such turbulence, as on Earth. When beings from other planets want to understand what turbulence is, they come to the Earth. Whoever wants to learn about these specific understandings, has to come on the Earth and spend a four-year course in legal science. Only on the Earth turbulence can be studied in all its details and variations.

The modern scientists have only established that Earth's axis is tilted at 23 degrees, but say no more. How that tilt has affected people's lives – they say nothing about that. However, between people's moral lives and the inclination of Earth's axis to its ecliptic, there is certain dependence. This inclination of Earth's axis has created decay in people's moral lives. What causes that decay? It is caused by the fact that due to the tilt of its axis, the Earth is in such a position, that through a special convex lens it attracts only negative cosmic energies from space, and repels all the positive ones. Because of the inclination of its axis, the Earth now cannot attract positive, ascending cosmic energies. Therefore people today are rather bad, than good. One day, when Earth's axis straightens, the Earth will have different convex lens, through which it will attract the cosmic positive energies.

If you take a look at the face of a wolf and then at that of sheep, you will notice that the angles of their faces are completely different – the wolf is rough, harsh, because the angles of his face collect the negative forces of nature. And the angles of sheep's face are such that they collect chiefly the positive forces in nature, and that's why it's gentle.

The lamb has one kind of forces, and the snake – other forces, directly opposite to those in the lamb. So, based on their structure, the external forms refract light in a specific way, thus producing favorable or unfavorable effect on man. Earth, for example, refracts light in itself in such a way, that it produces great earthquakes in human brain.

If you look at a snake's skull, you can find quite a disharmony in it. Its moral qualities are barely in their embryonic state. Snakes are deprived of any tenderness, compassion, while the destructive elements are immensely developed in them. The light, the flame, coming out of snake's eyes brings fear terror in people. Fear disrupts the links in human conscience and one can lose consciousness. Faith helps avoid the disruption of these links. Wherever there's faith, fear is not working

Our spines are tilted to 23 from earth's diameter. And all our misfortunes result from that. You may say: "How can Earth's axis have any effect on the human spine?" You may say: the spine has adjusted to earth's axis. And when Earth's axis straightens, the spine will straighten as well, and adjust to its condition. When the conditions are good, we become good, when the conditions are bad, we become bad. It's all relative.

Every person is tilted and moves, while tilted, along with Earth's tilt. All the contradiction results from this inclination, from the 23 degrees. 23 is a number of discord. Him, who has 23, in his mind, he has constant disturbance in his heart. How-come? 2 constantly messes things up, and 3 reconciles. There's constant reconciliation and disordering. You constantly get disturbed for nothing.

All of you don't walk straight up, you bend. Sometimes you bend to 23 degrees. 23 is a scandalous number: 2 is the mother, 3 is the son or the daughter. The scandal is that, when the daughter gets married, the son-in-law may not be to mother's liking, and thus a scandal may occur. If the child is male, a daughter-in-law will come, it may not be liked by the mother and once again a scandal will arise. The number 23, in order to be conciliated, the mother must be capable of great self-denial, she must take the initiative, to love the son-in-law, and not to expect the son- or daughter-in-law to love her. She must be so intelligent, that it never gets necessary for her to be near.

The axes of all people are not straight. Even the saints, those advanced, genius people, have bended axes.

This deviation affected people's thoughts, feelings and behavior.

Until one corrects his axis, he shall learn to live correctly. “How can I correct my axis?” This correction cannot happen at once. For if the axis is corrected suddenly, a cataclysm will happen in man. 100 years are required for the correction of one degree of Earth’s axis. So in order to correct the 23-degree tilt, 23 centuries will be necessary. When you multiply 23 centuries by 100 years, you get 2300 years. This is how many years are necessary to correct Earth’s axis.

There is a reality, which cannot fit in either the everyday life of man, or the outside life of nature. The outside life goes along, in spite of everything. You cannot correct that life. You cannot correct or change Earth’s climate. The Earth is now tilted to 23 degrees. We cannot change this position. We haven’t gotten there yet. If we change Earth’s inclination to 90 degrees, we would cause the greatest cataclysm that has ever happened. If we can tilt the Earth not 23 degrees, but only 3 degrees or anyway not more than 10 degrees, the North Pole would receive four to five times more heat, than it does now. There’s so much ice there, that Europe would be covered by 2-3 thousand meters of water. The ice will melt and turn into water. It’s not an easy thing to do.

Now everybody talks that the world needs gold. If the gold increases, there will be another world crisis. If there’s shortage of food, it is bad, but if there’s abundance, it’s also bad, because this will result in devaluation of people’s labor, as and the food will be devaluated and it would be impossible to sell. Then there will be overproduction and no one will know what to do. Life is founded purely on material basis, but it’s not only matter, as it is perceived now. There are three worlds, in which men can live. If it comes only to bringing order to our physical world – this is unthinkable. Even today, on Earth the population is more than there should be, so that people can live happily.

Our Earth is tilted to 23 degrees. Imagine that it straightens abruptly.

What will then happen in Europe? All the ice and snow of the North will melt and there will be nothing less than a flood. However if the axis is straightened gradually, the ice will melt slowly. Sometimes you seek happiness, but you don't understand Earth's laws: your happiness is accumulated on the North Pole. The tilt of Earth's axis is established by law. What's the relation between Earth's axis and the Sun, the same is your relation to God. If you change this position of the axis, you will cause a calamity in yourself.

Keep your head always upright, do not bend it to one side or the other. If possible, it should always be perpendicular to the axis, connecting the center of the Earth and the center of the Sun. Hold on to the golden perpendicular of mind, heart and deeds.

Your head should always be upright, never look down! The head and the spine must always be perpendicular to the Earth. Whenever you are standing, you connect to the solar energies and the positive in life.

The head must always be positioned perpendicularly to the Sun and the center of the Earth, so that the vibrations are taken correctly.

You must know how to hold your head, to the center of the Sun – your head must be vertical to the Sun and the center of the Earth. For you not to fall, sprain your ankle, break your head, you will have to learn how to walk, stand and sit. If trouble happens to you frequently, this means that you don't know how to walk: your legs are not properly positioned towards the center of the Earth, and your head is not properly positioned toward the center of the Sun.

Knowledge is a tool, you can use to elevate your life. In order for this life to be elevated, you must first realign your head. For example, while walking neither of you things how to walk; you don't walk, as God wants to see you walking. There's a posture, which man has to sustain – always upright. If you go to God with your head bent down, you go to God with your head bent back. These are four active postures, these are deviations. When God sees you this way, He sees that you are in a rough sea. If your head bends to the left, your feelings have gained dominance in you, if your head bends to the right, your active mind has gained dominance; if your head bends back, your personal feelings have gained dominance; if your head bends forward and down, your excessively mercenary love has gained dominance. So, if you are bending forward – you are mercenary, if your head bends back – you are overbearing, if it bends to the right – your mind has gained dominance, if it bends to the left – you only strive for pleasure. This can also be just inherited.

You cannot think right, if your head is bent to the left, or right or back. In order to think right, you must straighten your head, so that it is placed directly between the Sun and the Earth, to be perpendicular to the Earth. Having that direction, you will find in the spiritual world, a point, which will form the triangle of your thought. When you find that point, a thought will immediately spring to your mind. You will feel enlightenment in your mind right away. As soon as one gains this internal balance, he feels joyful and merry. When he loses that balance, he does not know in which direction to go.

When the Earth deviated by 23 degrees from its course, the heart also deviated by 23 degrees. That's the reason why the heart is now a bit to the left, and not precisely in the center. One day, when the Earth returns to its original position, the heart will also get back to the precise center. The physical heart is to the left, and the spiritual – right in the pit of the stomach. That place is also called a "solar plexus". It's the most delicate area, which people must protect carefully. The solar plexus is under the influence of the liver, and that it must be kept in perfect order.

What happened to the Earth, can also be observed in human mind. It deviated by 23 from the right angle. Therefore our thoughts, our philosophical reflections are 23 degrees away from the Truth. Our current philosophy and the current beliefs of people, are 23 degrees away from Love.

“When will the world be corrected?” When you straighten the axis of your brains to 90 degrees. This means that harmony will come to the world and the human souls will resurrect. In that case people will be ready to give away everything temporary and transient.

The objective of every single human, who has come to the Earth, is to live a pure and holy life, to help straighten Earth’s axis. One day, when Earth’s axis is straightened, it will bring light to all countries. Now the Earth is lighted by the Sun during daytime and by the Moon in the night. In the future it will be lighted by the Sun from all sides

Nature works slowly, but consistently. If you study the forms, through which humans have passed, you can see that for creating the humans of nowadays, nature had to work for approximately 18 million years. When you trace the human development in mother’s uterus, from the embryo to his current form, you can see that within a short period of 9 months, he passes through all forms of life. Therefore it is sufficient for a man to work systematically and consistently, so that he can shorten the work of the thousands of years, to a short period of time. Everything depends on the intensity of human thought. Nature, however, works slowly but steadily. A time will come, when Earth’s axis will be straightened. Earth’s climate will be pleasant and healthy. The form of the human head will be transformed, his legs and arms will become get a more beautiful form. As a result of all that, the idea of brotherhood will thrive in man. All people will live like brothers and sisters, in complete peace and harmony among them.

MAN AND EARTH

In the Solar system, the Earth is the lowest position, where the soul can descend.

If you look at Genesis, our Earth is one of the most underdeveloped culturally. In the other solar systems there are very advanced worlds. If, for example, you go to the solar system of Sirius, you'll see they live very well there. The old peoples, like the Assyrians, who understood that ancient science, adopted the word Assyria –meaning people, who want to live, according to the culture of Sirius.

The study of man is still to take place. We, the people of the physical world, are the stomach of being, of the Cosmos. The danger, the sin is with us. Because all such people, think only of eating and drinking. They understand life very superficially. All the scholars, whatever they are, think first of eating. Whenever a writer writes, he thinks first to write something nice, so that it sells well. A preacher wants to preach well, so that his preaching appeals to people and more people come to hear him. If you look at all those people, you will see that a subtle self-interest is hiding in all of them. They all keep talking about God, but something else lurks behind that idea. We do not want that, do not perceive that, but there is something like that. You want to speak well, you want to draw well, you want to play well – you want to be liked in all you do. All things are made so that nothing spiritual there in them. In all things on Earth, always the money or a certain interest comes first. And even behind every human deed, the humane can be found. Why? Because we enter the stomach of being.

We live on the Earth, but we have been sent here on an exile. We are abandoned by the entire Cosmos and receive no communications from the Sun, from the Moon, from Mars, Jupiter or any other stars.

All of you rejoice that you all have a great credit. You can believe that on Earth, there's no greater good for you than that. You can't live on the Sun, nor on the Moon, on Venus, Jupiter, Saturn or Uranus, you can only live on the Earth. Those, who love you, after searching for a long time, finally succeeded in finding this place for you. Only here there's place for you.

The Earth is a reformatory school. Our Earth is a reformatory institution. The finest reformatory school is the Earth. In the entire Solar system, there's no better reformatory school than the Earth. From the Sun, Venus, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Pluto, they are sent here, and a significant budget is also sent here. They like the Earth, because it serves as a reformatory institution. Whoever comes out of the Earth, reformed, he becomes a prominent person in his own homeland.

Sometimes they ask: "Are there in other systems, in other worlds, sins like those on the Earth?" No, in our Universe, only the Earth is a reformatory institution. From all other systems, all criminals are only sent here, on Earth. When it comes to straightening, God comes down here to correct this Earth. Great dignities of all systems, the cleverest, the greatest people, who commit sins, are sent here for reformation. And when they are reformed, everybody goes to their own homeland, from where he had come. It can take 10, or it can take 15 thousand years, it can even be 100 thousand years or a million years – it does not matter. But whoever came to Earth, has to be reformed. There's plenty of time.

Of all the Solar system, the most mutinous ones are here, on Earth. And these are mutinous people without a cause, without an idea. They fight for no sound reason! Whenever people want to see troublemakers, they come here for a show. Such mutinous people, as these we have on earth, are to be found nowhere else.

The Sun has a greater intelligence, and as a result of that intelligence, it's in motion. All the suffering on the Earth is nothing but a result of an inert condition. All the sufferings are caused by an inert condition. The inert conditions produce suffering. The suffering continues until we exit the area of immobility. When you stop at one place, then suffering comes. When the human thought grows, suffering is decreases.

People should not multiply like fish, or like birds, or like mammals. People should differ in quality, and not quantity. Why do we need such a great multiplication, to have millions of people, who would kill each other? Why do we need millions of people, who give birth to criminals? Why do we need people, whom we'll have to teach how to live? First of all, these people have no idea of life. And God does not need such people, but, because he is gentle, so rich, that he has something to give even to the worst people on Earth. We attracted the worst people on Earth.

The Earth, according to my calculations, may perfectly sustain 100 million people, and 2 billion, 4 billion are too much. If people become 6 billion, things will get six times worse.

Each of you must be aware of the system, to which he belongs and respect it. The he must know the area, where he is and the precise place he occupies. We, the modern people, cannot avoid that contradiction. The Earth is an extremely restricted area. It was once created, then it had to be re-created, and not only that, its recreation for the third time is currently being prepared. Under these circumstances on Earth, man cannot be a saint. Under these circumstances man cannot be really handsome, or really strong and rich. All this is loosened.

The value of man in the world, depends only on that, how useful can he be in the mental field, in the spiritual field and in the physical field. The value of man is only there, as long as he can be a medium in the world, where he lives. We, people on Earth, have come here to learn. We are a material doctrine. We are here to elevate the value of the Earth. In this world, we are a material doctrine, this Earth gains value, according to us. Those professors, who will come to teach us, they will come because of us. If we leave the Earth, they will also leave and the Earth will be like to Moon – a lifeless structure.

I imaging the Earth as a great Divine flower, and as discredited as some believe it to be, it reveals this flower only to elevated souls. It hides its Divine nectar only for the great soils. And everybody should come down and drink of that nectar and be told: “You are among the worthy children of God”. Then, with that acquired great matter in him, man ascends to the invisible world and starts again that extraordinary life.

The people of today believe in luck, in lottery, in unexpected happiness, from the outside. And that is why many say: “Time will fix things”. No, time cannot fix things, it only records them. If a person goes to the weather, he will receive the following reply from it: “You must go to the living nature, it will teach you its laws and show you how to live. Then you should go to God, so that He shows you that in the whole universe there’s only one great law, which includes in itself Love, Wisdom and Truth, and these connect all creatures in the entire universe.” You say: “If there’s only one law in the entire universe, this means that there’s uniformity everywhere in the world”. No, the diversity of the entire universe hides in the great God’s law. There are already systems, which are outside the bad living conditions and the creatures there live angel lives. Our system, however, has not passed its redemption yet. It will soon pass the borders of the thirteenth sphere as well and acquire its redemption. When it acquires that redemption, the Earth will enjoy a reception such that the world has never seen: angels will wave their flags, descend and ascend to heavens, songs will be sung, music will play – there will be joy everywhere.

One day, when all this happens, everybody will believe and say: “This was told”. Earth’s reception will be magnificent! She is a beautiful girl, carrying at her bosom billions of kids. When she presents herself to God, she will say: “My Lord, You gave me these children to raise. Here, I bring them back to you, grown-up and intelligent.” The Earth is a great suckling mother of all beautiful girls and boys. The modern people are orphans, whom the Earth has undertaken to raise. When she raises them, she will bring them to God. Many say: “The modern man is a great philosopher!” What philosopher is he? The modern man is an orphan, sent to the Earth to be raised and educated.

THE STEAMSHIP

There's a great secret in the creation of the world, of the entire Cosmos. You think that only people of today fight, that it is only today that there are such hostilities. What happens now is a reflection of the past. This malice, this hatred, this disaccord among people, all this is not a product of the present, but a product of the past.

Evil in the world is related to a very old culture, which once existed; before humans appeared on the Earth, other creatures existed here. After that the Earth was transformed, but the matter, with which they worked, remained. Therefore, we are wearing this matter, it gives properties and qualities to us as well, because those creatures used to create.

The reason for our miserable lives lies with the excessive ambition, which has entered our lives. This is also caused by not understanding life. I call that – betrayal of life. Here's what this betrayal comes from. There is an occult theory, according to which when the Universe was initially created, there was only one unit, one center, one enormous body, from which all creation started. That unit decomposed, it separated into numerous particles and, because these particles all originated from that unit, they were all positive. As a result a fight started in the Universe. This is a scientific theory, speaking of the positive forces, acting in nature. After being decomposed to its constituent parts, the center polarized into positive and negative forces, which, on their part, were also polarized. All the positive forces of the first creation, which came upon the negative forces of the second creation, coupled and formed life; the positive forces of the second creation, however, which came upon the positive forces of the first creation, started colliding and repelling. So we, the people on the Earth, got into the second polarization, we are in contradiction with the positive forces of life. We are positive and they are positive too. Now a second polarization is necessary, or, as the occultists or mystics say, we are required to restore the female element, Love. So, the female element or Love is lost, it must be restored. Love has to return to human soul once again, so that internal harmony is reached. The current sufferings in the world are due to the prevailing effect of the positive forces in life. Everybody wants to be rich – this is a positive force, everybody wants to be strong – this is a positive force, everybody wants to be learned – this is a positive force, everybody wants to be good – this is a positive force. Everybody, however, wants that positivity to come through the other people. Everybody wants to have at least once servant. This desire has to be neutralized. Thus one should abandon his desire to be served by others, but become a servant to them himself. One wants to become a scholar. Let him do it, but he should then go and serve the others – this is the female element.

On the Earth we enjoy very good conditions. If you are on the Moon, you won't survive the low temperatures. There's 150 degrees chill there, how can you survive that? On the Earth we have down to 60–70 degrees of chill, and the same amount of heat. On the Moon evil is much stronger than on the Earth. On the Moon, the outside world lives under the law of evil. On the Earth the good is in the outside world, the evil is in the inside. On the Moon good is inside, and evil outside. On the Earth precisely the opposite process takes place: good is outside and evil is inside. We should wait until this changes. We must wait until this change happens, until the order of the Moon comes – the good comes inside and the evil goes outside. Or there should be an entire organic radical change, an understanding in people's minds. To love your father, to love your mother, to love your brothers and sisters, as you love yourself to love your friend, to love your servants. A servant, when he serves you, he loves you. Only him who loves you can serve you. Without Love serving is not pleasant. Every work, performed with Love, is accepted by God.

Every work, performed without Love, is also accepted, but it will be corrected, it remains on the outside. Every work, performed with Love, has already been accepted both on the outside and the inside. Now, some of our deeds, some of our desires and thoughts are accepted on the outside in the Divine World, but not in the inside. A thought, a desire must be accepted both on the outside and the inside.

The evil in the world are the routes of life, while the good – these are the branches of life. Evil can also be found after the plant emerges from the soil. In animals, evil is born. There are graminivorous and carnivorous animals. The carnivorous have come from the roots of the plant kingdom, and the graminivorous come from the branches. When it comes to people, some have descended from Good, and other from Evil. Where does Evil originate from? It originates from the roots of mankind, while Good originates from the branches. Now, some people want to become perfectly good. If you gradually start to take out the branches of a tree, the root can also become a branch. If you take a root out in the sun, that root will become a branch. And if that root cannot produce new roots, it will start withering. For example, if a person becomes very rude, this means that the roots gain dominance. There are more roots than branches. Then that man is in abnormal condition. If he has more branches than roots, that is also abnormal. Now, some people do not know the service of good. No one can use Good and Evil, as forces, separately. Some people want to be very good, and some people say: “It’s no use for a man to be good, he should be bad”. Both one and the other type are incompatible with life. Don’t be too good, nor too bad.

An ant does not have a concept of man, it does not even know he exists. If you enter ant’s world, you’ll see these beings are great philosophers. They have great tactics and are masters of an art, which they knew before humans. If you look at the bees, you’ll see they had known that art, before humans. People just know start making honey. The bees knew how to make honey thousands of years before humans. How ingenious bees are! 50–60 thousand inhabitants live in a 40–50 centimeter hive! I wish you could get 50–60 thousand people in such space? And all that with such cleanliness, such order! Bees maintain a constant temperature of 22 degrees. They have no kitchens, slops, or any other such things. You say: “But these are bees”. In terms of cleanliness we are far from the level of the bees. In certain respects they are certainly more advanced. With this I want to show you some interrelations. We have greatly individualized our kind and believe that we are the only, most clever beings on Earth. This is what I say: the only most stupid creatures, existing on the Earth, are people. It is true – people are both the cleverest, and the most stupid. What people do on the Earth, has not been done even by animals. Even the stupid plants have never done that. Even water, which is even more stupid, has never caused so much outrage, as humans have. Wherever water passes, it will cause trouble, but it will also do good. While where man walks, where he puts his foot, grass never grows.

Modern people live in a world, to which they have never given anything, have brought nothing. You are tourists on Earth, you have brought nothing, everything has been given to you for free, and yet you complain. Why do you complain? The hotel is full, and you are the last to arrive. You say: “There’s no bed for you”. You will have to wait for awhile, so that a bed is vacated for you. Imagine that you enter a hotel, where you pay nothing. Why do you have to complain? You take everything out of the Earth for free: you have air for free, light for free and your lives are given to you as a present. You have taken a part of the Earth, usurped it and then you say you have bought it. You have bought nothing – everything that you have taken on Earth was a gift. We should be sorry that we do not acknowledge that.

What are they fighting for now? For land. The land belongs to God! It is given to People not to govern it, but to work it and to serve mainly as cashiers for the goods, which it distributes to everybody in need.

For themselves people should only keep as much as they need.

People say: “Let’s make factories, to urge the mankind in its way forward” OK, let’s do it, but how to urge mankind? The progress of mankind does not come from the production of materials. There is one objective law. Modern mankind created its misfortune out of its greed. Millions of years Earth’s body has been collecting energy from the Sun, which we now use. Those, who work with the earth say: Let’s plough the soil, so that it yields more wheat”. If we go on with that, and keep spending the positive energy, we’re going to exhaust it and then what will feed us? We must economize. Nature loves economy. Economy is the law.

In your life, you have a creditor, you owe him 10 000 Bulgarian levs. Your creditor is the Earth. It says: “You must pay now!” Your heart sinks, you don’t even have a dime. The very thought of that creditor bothers you, tortures you. What are you supposed to do? You have a friend. That friend is the Sun. You go to him, saying: “I have a debt of 10 thousand Bulgarian levs – that man is bothering me!” That friend of yours takes out 10 thousand leva and gives you the money. You go and pay your creditor and you are free. And this happens every day. The Earth is a creditor, but it is also a banker. It gives loans against interest. If you think it gives everything for free, you are deceiving yourself. There’s nothing to praise about the Earth, it is a great banker – it will do you a favor, but after 80 years it will take everything that you owe it. It says: “Now go away, and leave everything here. Farewell!” While you are here a tiny little thing, she talks to you, feeds you. But once you decide to travel somewhere, it says: “You must leave everything here, I’m not giving you anything”. It won’t even give you bread for your trip. While you live on the Earth, it gives you everything, but if you decide to leave the Earth, to go abroad, no credit is given for the expenses. We are now studying the one, giving us the credit. Once a desire emerges in us for leaving the Earth, for going for a walk somewhere – we can’t always live on the Earth, we sure are going to visit other places – it considers that a wrong idea. If you decide to go on an excursion to America, are you taking the cattle, sheep, houses etc.? This is not practicable. You will leave everything, take only what you need for the trip.

This is what I say: the idea of God is nothing more than the idea that we leave the Earth. The idea of God is not an idea for us to live on Earth. Someone wants to live on Earth. To live in God, this means not to live on Earth. When we decide to go for a walk, then we will think of God. Or sometimes you want to reach the good, beautiful, you want to become strong. While you are here on Earth, you cannot be strong. Or until the Earth remains in you, you only have concepts. If you only move with the concepts of the Earth, you will be focused in only one point in you, but energy cannot reveal itself. If you are planning to settle your life on Earth, to live well, you will lose your life. There are people, who save for 20 years so that can have enough when they get old. Do they collect money, but their stomach gets an illness and they cannot eat. What are they going to eat when they reach old age? Some save money for a rainy day. We don't need money for rainy days. Rainy days, this is Death. He does not need money. Death is a robber, who, when he arrives, takes everything.

The Earth is a school, where a person cannot remain for all the lives. If a person remains three consecutive ages on the Earth, he will be expelled from them. It has been determined how much time should a man remain on the Earth. If he remains more than three ages on the Earth, he will be sent to a lower world.

Whoever does well in his studies on this Earth shall be sent to a higher school, and whoever does not do well shall be sent to a lower school. One should be thankful that he has a lot to learn. A person has to pass through all these stars that we see to learn. How much work is there to be done! How much time it should take a person to visit all these solar system?

Everything, a person does, is good. Nothing in life is unnecessary. Everything that has happened, is not the most reasonable thing, but on the path you are now on, this has been admitted. And one day the intelligent, invisible world, will manifest itself. After the evolution of current people, the Earth will change completely.

What will happen to the Earth is that, which will happen to small children. The Earth is an adult, she will become a beautiful lass and then, according to the laws of the physical world, she will grow old and become a grandmother. When she becomes a grandmother, only the children will remain to live on her, and the adults will move to another planet, because only the small children are left with the grandmothers to be entertained.

It is all Earth's fault. She has to redeem a lot of sins, so when she is being punished, all of us suffer. Therefore, it is not us that are being punished, but the Earth, and we suffer. What do say about that? It's the same in life: the father committed some sins, and the son suffers for him, he has to live through the consequences. According to the inheritance law, the son also receives his father's sins and suffers. The Earth has committed a lot of sins, which I should not reveal. I know what its sins are, but I must keep quiet. In her younger years she made some mistakes, which she realized as such long ago, but now she has to bear the consequences, in order to redeem them. The Earth has made minor mistakes, but these result in great consequences. These consequences now affect us as well. Why? Because we have come to live on her, and that is why we have to bear a part of her conditions. Because she has realized her mistakes and sins, repented and corrected herself, then God gave her the promise that He would make her a new dress, new clothes, give her a bunch of flowers in her hand. And after that, as for a young wife, she would be celebrated by a feast, and she would be elevated to the appropriate honor and respect. IN the future she will be a princess. If the Earth is a princess, you will be princess's sons and daughters.

“What is the meaning of life?” – you ask. The meaning of life does not refer only to the Earth. For us the Earth is an egg, in which we are closed. At this point we can still live in this egg, but once the time comes, we will have to hatch. Will we be able to live then? One day the Earth will become too small for us, and we will find no reason to live here.

It will be most beautiful, when people get their ticket to travel across the Universe. Then Man will understand the Wisdom, which exists – the diversity of organisms, of cultures and life. He will enter a world, where people do not know how to argue, fight or rob, because there are no conditions for such things there.

The Earth has the form of a steamship, which once had many smokestacks. Now only 56 smokestacks have remained, i.e. 56 volcanoes, which emit smoke all the time. This shows that the Earth continues its travel in space. People are passengers on that steamship and discuss in it diverse matters: personal, family, social, national. One day the Earth will arrive at its port, it will sound its horn and say: all passengers out of the boat, and on the shore! From that port, the passengers will continue their lives on the ground, and the steamship will return to pick other passengers, to bring them to the same port.

You worry about things, you shouldn't worry about. For example, I hear you all say: “What will now happen to the world?” We have boarded a steamship, what is there to worry about? It has a captain up there and a fireman below. It also has sailors. The steamship bends to one side and then to the other. They ask: “What is going to happen?” All this has been provided for! The captain is up. I will remain calm – the steamship will take me to the port. One day it will arrive to a certain port and you will get out. What's the bad thing about that? And you, when you leave the steamship, will start crying.

You will say: “Is this where we were supposed to land? The Earth circles round and its orbit is millions of kilometers. There are stations on its way. I don’t know at what station are you going to get off. Now you are going to get off at the “Annunciation” station. The New Doctrine will be announced to you. Blessed are those who bath in heavenly light! Blessed are those, who get warm on the Divine warmth! And blessed are those, who guard themselves from the Divine Force!

In his life, man has to do significant things. If I come to the Earth again in the future, I’d like to have such power that would allow me to travel to the Moon. The Moon is rich in gold and precious stones – there are great treasures there. And when I get back, I will bring all the riches from there. What do you think – if I bring 500–600 million British pounds, such a trip would make sense, wouldn’t it? If I acquire knowledge and become the master of space, as a master, I will know that I measure with my devices, what is the chill, what is the heat, what are the electric and magnetic processes, what changes occur. And then, an ambition to visit the Sun will emerge in me. From there I will bring the sacred fire, which I will use to ignite the elements on the Earth, I will bring the elixir of life, for which the alchemists worked for ages. This elixir may only be taken from the Sun. Whatever the others say, I know that this elixir cannot be found on the Earth. During the year, there are some particular days and hours, in which Sun’s rays fall on the Earth at a certain angle. This is how the elixir is poured. If you could take it and put it in a bottle, you would be able to acquire an eternal life. You want me to tell you what are these days and hours. Even if you give me the entire Earth, I still won’t tell you. There are other things to learn.

The scholars say that there will be a new planet in the Solar system. All the people will move from here to that planet. Now they have started to carry them one by one, in twos and in threes, but in the future they will bring there more people to better living conditions.

The pioneers at that planet will have communications with the Earth. They will not be too far away. With time, that planet will replace the Moon, at approximately 300 thousand kilometers, like a nice walk. And when that happens, the sign will be that the Moon will be colored blue, and no longer have its current color. This is how one will be able to tell that it has changed. One day you will return on this fine Earth and then the true Kingdom of God will come. There will be just one kingdom on the Earth and it will be the true kingdom.

MAN AND EARTHQUAKES

Whenever people walk on the Earth with their feet, they continuously soil it. Whenever a criminal stops at a spring, it drains immediately. After some time, the same spring occurs at another place. So, whenever the criminal goes, he always causes some trouble: wither a forest burn, or a spring will dry out, or a plant will wither and die. People, with their negative thoughts, can stop the clouds, change their direction, stop the winds, as well as the eruption of volcanoes and thus create a catastrophe for themselves, greater than that determined by nature. The human thought has closed the volcanoes on the Earth so that they don't smoke, but when this activity is stopped, all the ashes accumulate and after 100 or 200 years everything accumulated will be thrown out at once. And then the catastrophe will be much more serious. It is better to keep volcanoes' smokestacks open, so that no unnatural accumulation occurs. If we stop the winds, then a cyclone will come, id we stop rain, then a flood will come. People once caused the Flood with their thought. This shows that people want to interfere with nature's business. They do not know what they want: they want there to be not much rainfall, not many volcanoes, the Earth to stand still and not to quake, there to be no humidity, they only want to eat and drink, as if they are guests here on Earth.

Thoughts of man penetrate the intermolecular space of brain's nervous system, and feelings – the inter-atom space of the sympathetic nervous system. If a person does not give a thought the chance to materialize, it will cause an outburst in brain's nervous system, if he suppresses a feeling – he shall cause an outburst in the sympathetic nervous system. Therefore the good thoughts and feelings must not be counteracted against. The earthquakes are also due to the tension of Earth's forces in its intermolecular spaces. The tension between the forces of nature is nothing, but cosmic energy, which comes from people, from all the living creatures on Earth. The living people are doors, conductors of energies. Through man, as the most supreme form of life, pass the most supreme energies. Matter lives and exists due to the Cosmic Man. We have come to Earth, so that it can live. When saying that man is the reason for earthquakes, we understand those human thoughts, which are capable of suppressing the intermolecular energy of Earth. Through earthquakes Nature scares people, thus transforming its energies.

There are a number of causes for earthquakes. Some of them are purely mechanic, tectonic, but behind them stand other, reasonable causes. Apart from those causes, human thought may also have a certain effect, especially if it is collective and is of a negative, destructive nature. In that case, such a thought with its radio waves, creates destructive electromagnetic energies in the atmosphere, which can affect earthquakes. Human thought can produce nothing less than a catastrophe, it can destroy balance, the breathing of the Earth. There are quite a lot of empty spaces on Earth and in such cases, these can collapse. The geologists now consider earthquakes chiefly from mechanical perspective, and the Scripture says on a number of places: "Live well so that you are not vomited out by the Earth"!

Whenever an earthquake is about to happen, you feel anxious, you can't sleep, because a lot of electricity is developed. As soon as roosters stop crowing, this is a sign. Three to four days before an earthquake, the dogs gather in packs outside Sofia, snakes come out of their holes and flee. And the people with a strong sense of smell feel the smell of sulfur in the air. Sometimes the invisible world postpones the earthquakes.

From the perspective of the occult science, as well as according to renowned scientists, the sunspots are related to earthquakes. Here's what I say: just like there's a tight connection between the moral and physical life of a person, so there is a tight connection between the Sun and the phenomena on Earth. You can even go further – a number of examples in the history of mankind show that the bad life of people causes perturbations in the invisible world, resulting in perturbations on Earth.

Simple people call that God's Punishment, and scholars say: behind every physical phenomena, there's a rational reason. The scripture says: "Be careful so that Earth does not vomit you out". That is why, in order not to disrupt harmony in the superior world, every person, as well as every single people must be connected to the First Cause.

The causes for the earthquakes, at any part of the world, are the living creatures. They cause earthquakes. I wonder at people, who seek for the reason for earthquakes outside of themselves. The negative thoughts, feelings and actions of people affect the earth just like the explosives, which, when put under a rock, demolish it. It is enough just to put a lighter to these explosives and everything above them is thrown in the air. This is how earthquakes happen.

With its dishonorable life, a people can so disperse the humidity in the air that a great draught comes, making everybody suffer for years. Good and bad life affects people. Therefore, if people are good, there would be excellent pressure, extension of humidity and internal pressure of warmth. And this is what is required for productivity: warmth, air pressure, humidity extension with the respective pressure. The wellbeing and productivity of a country depend on this combination. And then someone asks: "Why do we have to be good?" So that we don't starve. "Why do we have to not be bad?" So that we don't cause misfortunes for ourselves. Therefore good is a method, and not an ostensible one. Good is a method for the material world. You can't achieve anything, whatever reality, if you are not good.

A person, with his thoughts, his feelings, changes Earth's surface. If the thought is not bright and pure, the fruits are not sweet and cannot ripe well; if feelings are not good, the grass starts withering. If people are discontented, rocks break down.

Not only beings from other planets and civilizations affect the Earth, but also all the people, approximately 3 billion people, with their minds, influence the entire structure of the Earth. If people would focus their minds on a certain point, they would melt everything, which is to be found there. A cliff would melt from the energy, irradiated from human brains. If people knew that, by focusing their thoughts, they would be able to melt down all the distress and diseases.

You should know that the unnatural thoughts of people influenced the structure of Earth's layers and shifted them irregularly. Therefore one can expect that, if people do not correct themselves, there would be earthquakes, which would cause their heads to turn white. People must change their destructive thoughts, in order to save themselves, because you must know that the Earth is a living and rational thing, it will react to people's unnatural thoughts and wishes.

You say "Is it possible a tiny little thought to produce something really bad?" Yes, but, if a let in this room only a thousandth of the milligram of a very poisonous gas, despite its small amount, it can kill all of you. The power of matter is not in its weight, but in its intensive action. There's a certain type of matter, which does not weigh, but it has such an intensive life that it can erase us all from the face of the Earth.

The reason for the earthquakes is not God. People are the reason for all earthquakes. Let me prove that implicitly: you get an architect to build you a two-storey house. He puts decayed beams, builds a house that would be appealing to the eye, then he says: "The house has been done perfectly!" A slight gust of wind comes and the house is demolished. Then I ask you: "Did God do this to you or your architect with his greed? If he had put sound beams, the house would not be demolished. When people's thoughts become sound and straight, there would be no victims.

Earthquakes happen, when there is discord, when people become very bad. That energy, which develops in the process of friction between layers, can be captured and use for heating and lighting, it can be stored, so that there's always fuel, and now everything is exhausted to no purpose in space. In the future anger will also be used as energy.

In the current conditions, we are in an onerous condition, nothing is secure. This morning, if the earthquake was high-ranking, everybody would be buried under their houses. It was of the fifth or sixth rank, and that is why we survived. If it was of the first rank, we would all be buried. Now imagine how the soil moves a thousand kilometers below us – what immense energy is produced! This unpleasant weather outside is due to the energy, released from Earth's layers. There is electricity, the weather changes and than comes the cold and wind. Here, on the Balkan peninsula, every year there are about 250–260 earthquakes. Hear soil settles down. The entire Balkan Peninsula passes through a settling phase.

The Earthquakes, which happened in Chirpan and Plovdiv , show that there were not even ten righteous people in these towns. I say that in their face. Find ten righteous people, and the earthquake will be past and gone, without causing any significant damage. If there are no ten righteous people, the earthquake will cause great misfortunes when it happens. These ten righteous people are the ten supports, ensuring some sort of stability.

Wherever there are ten righteous people, the earthquake passes without causing too much trouble. People should know one thing: killing good people always causes earthquakes.

You must know that if there are ten righteous people among you, they will be able to save Sofia . If these ten people are to be found either in the Orthodox church, the Evangelical church, the Jewish church – no matter in which church they are, we should be thankful to them. For us it is important that Sofia is saved, that there are ten spiritually rich people, who will invest their capitals in the Divine Bank, to provide credit for Sofia. Don't you think that righteous people are poor! No, the poor cannot be righteous. The righteous people have come to the Earth to perform a special assignment and gain experience. They have come from another system and have the entire Earth at their disposal – they can live here as long as they want and do their jobs, then they will go back to where they came from. The righteous people are rich. They are the Sons of God! Every person, who is a Son of God, has capitals, he has the entire Solar system at his disposal.

The earthquake, which happened in Plovdiv on the 18th of April, at 9 p.m., was to take place at midnight, but what we managed to do, was to speed it up, so that it can happen 2-3 hours earlier, so that greater disasters are avoided. The good people in Bulgaria prevented the great disasters. If there were more good people, they would be able to completely prevent the earthquake.

For years I have had the strong desire to rescue the Bulgarians from the sufferings, which came today. And the earthquake missed Sofia. However, if Bulgarians do not change their behavior, regarding Heaven, if they do not start serving God, the sufferings and hardships will come. You must know that the clergy is responsible for these catastrophes in Bulgaria. After that the responsibility lies on the government, in the widest sense of the word, and then on all the other people: teachers, mothers, fathers, young and old. And if all these factors in the world fail to fulfill God's will, we cannot be held responsible for anything.

Now God holds Sofia on scales and weighs it. He asks all the scholars, professors, all the priests, governors, as well as all the other people: "Are you going to believe in Me?", "Lord, we will believe!". It is enough that God tilts the scales just a little and all residents of Sofia will be scared once again. As long as God holds Sofia in His hands, no earthquake will happen. If He leaves the scales on the ground, the earthquake will come and Sofia's destiny is set. In that situation I will no longer be responsible, but as yet I still see that God holds Sofia in His hands and this is what I say to Sofia's residents: turn your eyes towards God, who now speaks to you! Don't think that only righteous people and saints must pray the Lord in these times! No, everybody should pray the way they do.

Bulgarians still cannot be convinced of the Power of God. But they will be. They will be convinced that there are other laws, which direct things. Upon the cancellation of the convention here (Tarnovo, September 1923) happened the earthquake in Japan. There is one connection. Every time, when a Divine Idea is not admitted, at the opposite side of the physical world, there's a reaction. This shows that the entire mankind is like one living organism. One day the following can happen: they can refuse the convocation of a convention in America and an earthquake can happen in Bulgaria. The Bulgarians in the astral world now shake with the earthquake in Japan. In order to discover the reasons for the earthquake in Japan, one must look into the Divine World.

Good feelings organize matter. Because there are feelings and deeds of people, who play a decisive role in the sweetness of fruits. The better people become, the sweeter fruits get, the worse people are, the bitter the fruits. These bitter fruits are due to the human thoughts, feelings and deeds. The venomous snakes, learned that art when people were worst. The cobra was created in an age, when people lived very bad lives. The tigers remained from an age, when people lived very bad lives, they are remnants. Sheep have remained from an age, when people lived very good lives. It's the same with us – if we want to leave a future, if we live well, we will leave something: some good animals will remain, the fruit will get sweeter, the sheep will become better, wolves will become graminivorous,.

After the white race, the sixth race will come – the illuminated race. These people will be called Sons of God. For it the nature will come, as well as the weather conditions. The current bad thoughts and desires of people have formed a dark strip around the Earth.

SUFFERING IS A BLESSING

In its manifestations, love is eternal. Whenever Love passes from one world to another, it causes suffering to people. Whoever fails to understand that law may live through a catastrophe. Whoever understands it, he never loses his heart.

This is what I say: a new phase is now rising in the entire Cosmos. Our universe has half-passed its path of development. Therefore there will be a reverse development process. So far the entire mankind, not only here on Earth, but also in all worlds, which exists within and without the Universe, all of them are entering a new phase. Not only here on Earth, but in the entire Cosmos, a transformation is taking place, although not everywhere the development degree is the same. All the creatures have reached the middle point of their development. The new wave, which is now coming, will not leave you at your current place. And if you do not adopt the new doctrine, such a grief will come upon you that it will produce in you an entire hell. Hell is nothing more than the effect of that Divine Wave. In the future these sufferings will increase, and you will know that the greatest your sufferings, the greater your resistance, and whether it is conscious or not, is another matter. You will know that you are the counteraction of that wave, and therefore you will harmonize yourself and say: "I must be in harmony with the great conscious Love, with the Divine Spirit and I will act as prudently, as He does".

Modern people ask what the reasons for suffering are. I say: suffering is nothing more than focusing of the Divine Rays on us. If we are not ready to take them, they cause us pain, suffering. So if we reject the Divine Rays and their effect on us, they cause us pain.

Love cannot speak directly to modern people. Therefore Love speaks to people in only one manner – through life. In life, however there’s motion, and that is why life speaks to people in two manners: through the language of the Earth and through the language of the Sun. Earth’s language is called the “language of suffering“, and Sun’s language is called the “language of joy“. Some say: “Why there’s suffering?“ Suffering is the language of the Earth, life’s language. Life says this to people: “In order to understand me, you must study my first language of suffering, and then – the language of Joy”. These two things, these are two motions, two streams. Where these two streams meet, organic life is born.

Why do all these catastrophes around the world happen? In order to wake the human mind up.

I say: Is the devil or the Lord who rules this world? The Lord rules it. All the suffering that comes, it serves to purify this world. It is the Divine Fire in the world. This suffering that we undergo, it is the Divine Fire which purges all dirt from us. All the great people pass through great trials. Tolstoy says that after each disease his mind was enlightened. The world now suffers, something is born in modern mankind. When it passes through the great fire, something good will come. Now we will have suffering. Everyone of us will bear as much as necessary. We all must believe.

I say: there is no peace on Earth, because the Earth is not a place for peace. How can you ask peace from a potter, who constantly fights with mud! He first sifts it, then adds water, tramples it, steps on it, scolds it, then he puts it on the wheel, spins it there and then he puts it in the furnace – to fire it. What peace can you ask for? But all these processes produce the fine pots, cups, accessories, which we enjoy so much. Often, when we look at the processes of nature, we find that somewhere there is turmoil, riots, war. It’s according to the order of things.

It is unpleasant for the mud, but the potter feels good to sell the pots, the cups, and those who take them – they also enjoy them a lot.

And whatever mistakes the Earth makes, God excuses them. Whenever people make mistakes, God does not consider that sin. Yes, He punishes them, but that is to correct them. Whenever the blacksmith puts the iron in fire and heats it, then bends it, crushes it – he does not want to punish it. No, he wants to make something completely different from that iron. God wants to make something very fine of people, therefore he puts them in fire. If you are tin, you'll be heated to 233 degrees, until you melt. If you are iron, you'll have to be heated up to 1 200 degrees. If you're platinum, you'll be heated up to 2 500–3 000 degrees. The more stubborn and headstrong one gets, the greater trails he is put through.

Sufferings show the deviation we have made. Knowing the deviation, you will also know how to correct it. Based on the degree of suffering, you can also determine the degree of the deviation. The greater the suffering, the bigger the deviation. The more you feel that deviation, the greater the suffering, but then again – the sooner and the easier you get back on the right path. The smaller the suffering of a person, the harder it is for him to get back on the right path. Who suffers much, he will find it easy to get back on the right path and correct his deviation.

Only under bad conditions, a person can reveal his inherent abilities. Person's virtues are revealed in bad conditions. Whenever the great trails come, God makes us develop in ourselves the good, the hidden powers, to which we had paid no attention up to that moment.

So I say: all the bad conditions will extract from us all the good that is hidden there, so that we can see who and what we are. In times of trouble and suffering, we can see how well Love in us is developed.

Those who do not understand suffering, they complain. Suffering in the world is just a Divine Method, a Divine way of acquiring that Divine Energy. The Spirit loves discord in the world; the Spirit loves suffering in the world. Suffering is a great blessing for the Spirit. As long as we don't have the Spirit in us, we consider suffering to be misfortune. When the Spirit comes, we will discover that this great misfortune is actually a great blessing for us.

There's no greater blessing in the world than Suffering. It is the greatest blessing in the World. "Why does suffering come?" To bring you blessings. While you are on Earth, you will suffer. When you finish your life on Earth, your status will be changed. Since the time of Christ sufferings have reduced their intensity. Today's sufferings are not that intensive as those in the past. The people of today bear the sufferings, through which Christ passed, easier. He was in such a pressure that blood oozed out of His pores. The external pressure was unable to stop the blood outflow.

It's God's work to fix the world. The work of men is to fix their own small world. How can he do that? A person corrects himself through suffering.

Sufferings are the paths, along which nature discards the impurities from human body. Knowing that, you should be thankful for suffering, for without it you'd be poisoned.

Until the Divine Conscience awakes in a person, he shall pass through great suffering and trials. Modern people are afraid of suffering – you need not be afraid from suffering. Whoever loves, he fears nothing. Love excludes any fear. Whoever knows about suffering, he thinks about it as a blessing. For the righteous suffering is a blessing, for the sinner - it is misfortune. Whoever consciously accepts the cross of suffering, he shall always be blessed. Whoever avoids it, he shall always be pursued by it

We hold blessed those who cry, we hold blessed those who suffer!
This is the law.

When you suffer, Heaven takes joy in your suffering. Because when you suffer, your suffering is the soil, in which God's Seeds will be sown to grow

The divine grows in suffering. If that is so, do not hinder it. Let it grow and develop. Whoever does not understand this law, breaks the divine, as soon as it grows.

What's the language of your suffering? What is the first word, which you will use to talk to suffering? Suffering is very well learned, there's nobody better learned on Earth than suffering. Therefore a person suffers to become well learned. A person, who does not suffer, cannot be learned. Whoever does not suffer cannot even become good, he cannot apply good. Because good is the service to be relieved of suffering. Suffering is a great task, with which one can deal. There's a new concept of life. After each case of suffering, if you manage to solve it correctly, a new light will come, a new acquisition. The mind, heart and body of the one who suffers are ennobled.

We are in a process of organization. I am speaking about that woman, but we are in an age, when the entire white race is pregnant with an idea. From this, white race, a new race is being born. A child of good is being born. The child, whom mankind can give birth to, will be born. This child is being born now. All the suffering, the blood being shed, everything that is going on now, it is in the order of things. For when a woman gives birth, a lot of blood has to flow out. It is a matter of millions of cells, which become victims. During a childbirth 10–15–20–100 million cells sometimes become victims. The same law applies to nature. The ordeals that we are currently going through, according to that law, they must become victims, so that the good is born in life. Now, I don't want to tell stories, I am not an author, I want to ascertain things. I know one thing – it's that everything done by nature is intelligent and good, or, in your language: everything God has created is meaningful. Everything will ultimately turn into good. You can trust that.

When we get to the Divine, you should hold nobody a through authority. What you feel in yourself, although it is not typical of you, what we are going through, believe me, it is for your good. Because that woman is giving birth, you take part in her distress. Whenever a woman is giving birth, how many people take part in that childbirth? On Earth there are 2 billion people. You want to live as part of mankind and whenever something sublime is being born, not to take part in that. But then you'll want to participate in the allocation of goods – without suffering to receive all the goods. There is no such thing! As much as you participate in the suffering, as much you will participate in the joy. As much as you participate in the work, that much you will participate in the goods that work brings. Therefore in the future you will receive of these processes as much as you have participated. The bigger the suffering, the greater the blessings you'll get; the smaller the suffering, the less blessings you'll get. It's all proportional.

“A woman, when she gives birth, she's in distress. When the child is born, she forgets her distress.” You must rejoice that you serve, that in you there's a concept that you should serve the One, because what is going to be born, it will be born simultaneously in all souls, the Divine that is coming, the best thing, it will be born in every single soul. It will be the future good.

Every suffering is a sign that something new starts, which you must learn. Every suffering shows that you have come out of a potential condition and you're entering a dynamic or critical condition, in order to learn something new. If you perceive thing in this way, they make sense. Don't say that you are fed up with suffering. Suffering is just a moment. The continuing state is just an echo. When you pull the tight string of the violin, it sounds a long time. You just pull it for a moment and it sounds a long time. In the same way suffering is just a moment. You suffer a long time, but it is the echo of suffering. You can hear that echo 10–15–20–30 minutes, 1 hour. The same applies to joy: joy lasts just one moment, and the rest is just an echo of joy. This is growth. A joy, which does not grow, is not a joy. And distress, which does not decrease, is not distress. You must understand things. Because distress, when it increases, becomes joy, and joy, which decreases, becomes distress. Therefore in decreasing a person should see suffering, and in increasing – joy. The process of joy is extension, and the process of distress – shrinking. When distress decreases then joy comes and starts its work. Distress descends, joy ascends. When you are in distress, you must think. Distress is the master, joy is the servant who ascends. Evil is the master, good is the servant.

If you start praying, before they have started beating you, suffering—can be suspended. This is what I say: do not wait to be beaten and then start praying. Before being hit, try to avoid that. There are sufferings, which must be avoided, if they are necessary. What happens now in the world, is a need of a more elevated world, which solves an important task. Rocks are crushed in the mountains, then transported – you do not like that. The rocks are being crushed, but they are needed to make a road. You ask: “Can’t this be done, without crushing rocks?” Under the current circumstances, the rocks must be crushed. Here’s what I say: what happens in the world, has been provided for in the Divine world, and it should not bother you. You ask: “What is going to happen?” The Lord knows His business. Therefore the scripture says: “It is for good”. You know how hard it is for a man to say– “it is for good”.

The world of Love is a world of great suffering. You all want Love – on must be very well learned, very good. Love is for the strongest of people. It is not for everybody. They say children love their mothers and are content – children are not content to the slightest bit! The mother, being strong, never asks the child – she takes off his or her clothes and puts the child in the tub with warm water. The child is afraid of warm water and cries. The mother scrubs, and the child cries. Then the mother takes the child out of the tub, dresses him or her, and the child keeps crying. The mother says: “Be quite, I love you”. The child says: “Take me out of the tube quickly”. The mother does not ask her child. She says: “I must wash the child”. The child thinks that he or she has been through a trial and says: “Please, mother, put me back in the tube one more time!” The next morning the mother once again puts the child in the tube, and washes him or her once again. The child once again says: “Please, be so kind, and don’t put me in this water. It scares me.” And the mother says: “This child must be sick”.

The current disturbances and movements of Earth’s crust and the entire Earth, are again due to the coming of a new age. The coming of a new age is marked by the fact that all people are engaged in that, they all think about this new age and its forthcoming downing. Without knowing it, they all think about that new age. It does not affect one person only. Not only one person strive to it, but also all the people, because it is something new, which everybody can use. Sometimes, when people’s suffering is extremely intense, they are provided with some pleasures, in order to forget their suffering. This is called sleeping. It is another kind of a dream. Whenever a debtor owes a large amount to his creditor, he thinks, and thinks, and looks for a way to get out of the tight spot and, not finding any exit, he goes to a pub to get drunk, to forget his debt. Dinking, however, does not solve any problems. It is a temporary postponement of things, serving no other purpose, but to help a person relieve his mind of a certain burden. All the philosophies, which now exist in the world, are like a medicine to people; the religions, existing now, are also a medicine for people; the social issues, solving life’s problems, are also a medicine for people. The government, schools, music, science, these are all temporary phenomena in life. These are all medicines for people. We have still not reached what is real in life, what we do expect.

You have gathered here to listen to me. Your understandings depend on whether what I say will be of interest, of benefit to you. If it is of benefit to you, you will understand it, and if it is of no benefit to you, you won't understand a bit. This order of things exists for advanced personalities, so that they can be tried. It is a century of trials. These trials that you are facing are nothing. The committee that will come in the future will be much stricter, than now. If some of you think that they will be happy, they can really be. The only happy person will be that, who is happy in his misery. Now, I am not telling you to be miserable, this is not my desire, but I say that you will come to trials; everything here will go through fire, you will be tried. If no trials come, modern mankind cannot be elevated. The entire white race will be put to such an examination that has never been seen before. It is said there, in Chapter 13 of Mark that these sufferings have not been there since the creation of the world, and won't remain in the future. They are now close. You will pass through them, and then the Kingdom of God will come, He will physically present Himself on Earth. Those of you, who are easy to scare, you must not get on airplanes, or steamboats, or trains – you should go nowhere, but stay home. Such people should not travel to the mountains, or high places, they must not swim in rivers. Everywhere there's danger of losing their lives. And for advanced souls, all this is in the order of things, it has been created for them.

The Scripture says that the Earth will be filled with knowledge of God. So our modern lives have been affected by a different culture, superior than ours, with which we have come into contact. And that superior culture already acts on our minds. The first thing, which proves that we are under the influence of that superior culture is the increase in suffering. During the time of Christ people were not so sensitive, and now they suffer more. The true suffering is the moral suffering, when the soul suffers with a holy excitement, and not when you suffer, to embitter yourself.

When suffering increases by 100%, we will come to that area, which we are now looking for – happiness and joy. And God's peace will come on Earth.

You are people, born in an age with the greatest opportunities. You are the luckiest ones, but also the greatest misfortunes await you. There have been no luckier people than these of today, but also there have never been a more miserable age. Because he, who climbs the highest mountain peak, shall be up there and able to see, but should he slip and fall from there, there is no worse fall than that.

A stone-hewer grinds the fine stones, and leaves the simple ones. If you are simple stones, you'll be left without suffering. Suffering is such a grinding, performed by nature – it is a method of growth. Then struggle increases, but after that a perfectly harmonic life starts.

There is double understanding of the world. A simple man, asked a sculptor: "What are you doing?" "I grind stones and crush them with my hammer." So he has no other work, but to hammer small fragments of stone, playing games. But then a wise, educated man passed and said: "He's chiseling something". The one who does not understand nature, says that it is hammering. And with every knock, it breaks down something today, another thing tomorrow. Everybody is always battered. This is a simple understanding.

A sculptor likes a stone, but then not a trace will be left of all the gravel, all of it will be removed with his chisel. But something will remain eventually. It is not known what that will be. Only after the statue is finished, it remains as a memory, a monument. So when you look at the changes, happening in the world, you ask: "How long will that continue?" Until the sculptor finishes his work. This parallel may be applied to life. The discord, that has been existing in the world, the order of things and the entire organization of the world, which is no about to come – this is the sculpture, who makes grooves and lines with his hammer, and taking this unintelligent rock, he shall make something good and beautiful. Isn't it even more wondrous that from that dead matter, nature managed to make the human body?

You think that when you start believing and loving, all the hardships will disappear. You are wrong. Let me give you an example. Imagine a sculpture finding a fine rock. People used to kick that rock, birds used to perch on it; nobody paid any attention to it. However, here comes that sculpture, saying that from that precise rock, something good may be made. The rock thinks that as it is just left standing there, nothing can really come of it. One day the sculpture picks it up and loads it. The stone says: "So pleasant days are coming for me too!" So they arrive in the car at some place, and the rock is put there standing. The sculptor has taken a lot of hammers with him, so he picks up the hammers and starts hitting this side of the rock and that, fragments start falling, and the rock says: "Oh, bother!" The rock shouts, screams, yells, the time is coming to embody the idea in the rock. The sculptor once again takes the hammer and starts banging and knocking and, finally, a statute of the perfect man occurs. Just like the Greek Apollo. So he puts the statue on a pedestal somewhere. People come and admire it. Earlier that rock used to be kicked, and now whoever comes and looks at it say: "The statue is magnificent! People will learn from you."

And the Lord, who has made you, will put you like statutes somewhere. There will be once again rain, snow and wind on the statute, the birds will perch on it, but the situation will change, it will get better. So don't you expect that all the obstacles are removed from Earth. This could be your biggest misfortune.

You say: "If the conditions are favorable, we will solve all problems and develop correctly". Favorable conditions for the entire mankind are coming. These are the great sufferings through which all people, all nations will go. Those who have stacked millions will have their hair stick out with horror, when banks start crumbling one after the other. Those who built houses and hoarded properties, will be at their wits' end, when they loose everything and find themselves out in the street. Those who had farms with live-stock and poultry will deeply regret that when pestilence falls on the animals and birds and they are left with empty barns and hen-houses. This is what will happen to all those who walk along the path of the second son. "Tell us at least one word of comfort!" I will tell you words of comfort, but only after you fulfill God's will.

THE OLD IS GOING AWAY

The elixir of life comes from far away, it passes through the Sun and comes to the Earth every 2 thousand years, bringing new life, new culture, new age. In 3 years the Sun enters a new sign, a new age, which will last another 2 thousand years. This sign is Aquarius. When the Sun enters that sign, something new – a new urge, a new aspiration will enter people's souls. (1923)

The Age of Aquarius is a mystic age. Since 1914 we have already entered an age, when all the snow and ice have started melting, because the main thing about Aquarius is the purity and whoever comes into this area, will definitely be purified. After 2 100 years the Earth will enter a new sign, and now Aquarius will reconcile everything and the old will be gone.

One day the entire Solar system will pass through fire, in order to be purged. Nothing will remain of people's sins. Now sins result from the special contents of the matter, in which people live. This matter is unstable and a special type of decay takes place in it. In the future this matter will crystallize and the world will be transformed in a special way. Then sin will be impossible, because there will be no such matter that creates it. The matter will be stable. Then you will see what beauty means, then you will see the crystal springs of immortality, from which life issues. There you will see that water itself formed the material world.

A rational Divine wave is coming and reshaping the world. This, the rational thing, acts in people and changes the internal order of their thoughts. It is enough that people get out of their cellars and light will find them.

This wave can already be seen, in the entire world there are souls awakened, all of them have broad minds. The divine is everywhere, in all countries – as long as you are ready to work. The right now lies with good people. All these brotherhoods have influence. The new life is coming. Him, who understands, should rejoice that he is born in current times. The new order is overtaking the Earth. Soon people will comprehend that space is full of rational beings, which constantly pour light in people's minds, transform things. Everywhere interest in the spiritual can be perceived.

People ask: "How will the Earth be fixed?" This is how: the snow and ice must melt, Love has to fill the air Now you enter someplace and see that the entire air is loveless.

A radical transformation is coming to the world. Those, who created the Earth, who created the Solar system, have decided to transform the Universe. The entire Solar system passes into a new phase. The old life on Earth is incompatible with the new one. Those who organize the Earth, are not here. Don't think that these people, who are now on Earth, will be able to transform the Earth. Salvation comes from the above, from light, from warmth.

Today the particles on Earth do not move as they did once. So the atoms and molecules on Earth have changed their motion. The Earth has changed not only its direction, as a whole, but also the direction of its smallest particles.

What happens to Earth, it also happens to us. It's all very natural, Earth's particles also enter our bodies. So your bodies also accommodate the same motion, the same change. This is the reason why all people today are unsatisfied. People were once more content. What's the relation between contentment and discontentment? What's the difference between them? Contentment is a circular motion. A let you define discontentment.

There are matters, which will always remain unresolved, with respect to Being. We say that things are being resolved with respect to Being and God. All things are only resolved by God, but for us things will always be unresolved. When you live on Earth, no matter what you do, some things you must reconcile with facts, as they are. We look at this life from our point of view. If you look at man, as he is structured, from God's perspective, you will see that everything happening on earth, is in its right place. Even the worst situation, even the current social life also have their deep reason, and therefore things happen this way and not another.

Always, during the transition from one age to another, when a culture is dying, and another is being born, there are great sufferings, collisions, turmoil, because all the forms of the old culture have to reorganize, so that there are conditions for the new one.

Now it is a transitional period, a culture transforms into another. There will be new kingdoms, the old culture will give way to the new one. Trials, greater than our current trials are coming and only faith and prayer can help. A storm has come, and you can't just ask it to stop.

People should pray and be joyful, that this trial is coming. You live in a house, which was not built properly and it falls down. What is the reason for that? It was not built properly in the past, and that is why now it collapses. The same applies to today's culture.

Nature has put its finger on the entire Europe and draws. Nature's finger goes along, drawing an entire map. People feel that and all of them feel anxious. That finger draws and affects everything. What has entered the world? Something new has entered the world, a rational force has entered the world, saying to people: "The way you have been living – you should not live like that any more!"

All of you must shake down all the old habits. Lord's day that is coming, will be a day of such great light, that nothing will hide from it. You say: "Has the time come, yet?" You are already late.

I want the following thought to remain in your soul: the world is now entering a new culture. The current age is going away.

The way the world was built is just temporary. The order that we have now, was imposed in the past, it was buried in the past, but for a future order, nature considers the current situation unsatisfactory. And nature has almost closed its windows and is now making the recapitulation, closing its accounts. In this closing, people want to be happy. They cannot be happy, because there is a repayment. Whatever you have given and taken – everything is being paid. In the new future firm, there would be no giving or taking. If some of you want to be happy, this is currently impossible because you've come too late. I don't want to dishearten you – you'll need the thickest clothes – there will be snow, wind, lack of money, diseases, darkness, turbulences inside and outside, you'll need candles for the nights. I speak both literally and allegorically, you can't do without allegory. Every mathematical formula is an allegory.

Current people want to live calmly and richly, everybody to be satisfied, there is an intense struggle for enrichment. This is not the work of today's people, but these are ideas, which have developed now. They did not express them then, and want to express them now. Now it's time to express these ideas – now it's the autumn of this age. Therefore the obstacles will remain obstacles. All these plans, designs, which current people have, will remain unfinished. Their destiny will be same as that of the large animals – the mammoths. When Earth's axis shifts, the North Pole changed, it lost its tropical heat and all these animals died out. In the same way, all these grand ideas, plans and desires, everything will be swept away like those great beasts. Only the tiny little things will remain. Now, this is only a suggestion. Future will show if this is true or false.

The entire old culture will burn and a new culture, with new images will be created. When these new images come, not a trace of Christ's suffering will remain, nor of mankind's. It's been said: "not one stone here will be left on another". This is true not only literally, but also metaphorically. All people's concepts of life, of the relations between fathers and sons, between mothers and daughters, between servants and masters, between believers and non-believers – everything history has recorded since the beginning of time, will be swept away, blown by the wind, like dust is blown away from the streets.

Once there were enormous animals, up to 20 meters long. Nature sent them to the spiritual world. Now the large animals of the past are within us – these are our ravenous desires. But, whatever our desires, in a few years time nothing will remain of them – everything will be gone. The Sun will also change, as well as the Moon, and the stars and a new thing will emerge. The inhabitants of the new Earth will be different.

The world has never had as much knowledge and has never been as cruel, as it is now.

Our concepts of the world, our perceptions of the individual and public life, of religion, family, school, church etc., must undergo radical changes in their form, in their content and their meaning. If we are intelligent, these changes will come in the natural manner of evolution, i.e. without turmoil or catastrophes, but if we influence them by force, they will happen, according to the law of necessity, but violently.

The great unrest in the world, is due to the Spirit of Christ, who works in the depths of the entire mankind.

The current society is at its end. This cycle is now ending and all the people are put to trial.

You ask: “What will happen to the old?” The old will not be destroyed at once. Everything old, which can be used in building the new, will be used, and what is unsuitable for the new construction, will be discarded as useless.

The end of the century means an end to the old conceptions of mankind and a new age of light and love, the end of violence and the beginning of peace and freedom, the end of the old world, and a beginning of the new world, which will last thousands of years in the future.

God has a plan as to what will happen to the world. How is it going to be fixed, this has been determined by Him. Christ has indicated the signs, which will show when this would happen – every time people fail to adopt a Divine principle, a great reaction comes. Nothing, however, can ever change the existing Divine Plan.

Christ speaks now to the European peoples: “If you apply My Doctrine, great knowledge, great benediction awaits you, but if you reject Love, you will experience the greatest misery”. Something terrible preparing under the ground. If these people do not adopt the Divine Love, there will be a revolution in nature. And this revolution, which is taking place now, is nothing, compared to what nature is preparing. There will be such a revolution, that the world does not remember and has never seen.

Another culture will grow on this Earth. Only these reasonable relations of Love can save us from future catastrophe. When God, i.e. Love comes to the Earth, He will produce such terrible earthquakes, there will be such great distress, that whoever goes through it, will stand beneath the tree of life and right here on Earth, will solve the great problem. This problem is not solved in Heaven, but on Earth. The Lord is coming to purge the Earth by fire, to collect people’s old rags, give them new rules, import Love in their hearths, elevate their minds and remove from them any malice and hatred.

The peoples now walk along a wrong path, trying to waken one another. If they don't humble themselves, great revolutions will also happen, because there will be no proper government and hunger will be felt.

Christ came to Earth on a great mission. He wanted to show the European peoples of that day, what to do and how to behave. Everything the Christ preached during his time, referred to the current times. He said to all peoples: you will come to a great crisis. If you want to escape this crisis, the only solution is in what I am preaching. If you apply My doctrine, you will be redeemed from a great catastrophe, but if you fail to follow My doctrine, the catastrophe is unavoidable.

Now you're in trouble for the sole reason that you have left everything to God and you're just saying: "When Christ comes, He'll fix everything". Christ came, but what did he fix? The way people perceive fixing things, He fixed nothing. He came and the Roman Empire crucified him. Then Christ came again in 1914, but 6 million people died. He said to them: "Do not fight!", But they did not listen to Him. He will come again during the next war. People get ready and if there's a new war, about 50 million people will die. And if, even then does not force some sense into them, there will be another war, even more fierce, in which 550 million people will die. This is not what I want, but I'm just saying that human thoughts, feelings and behavior, give rise to that war, in which at least 50 million people will die. And if that does not make them cleverer, a more vicious war will then start. After that there will be no wars, because it will result in such a wonder that people has never expected. All the communications, railroads, telegraphs, telephones will be disrupted and it will take at least 100 years, for the relations between peoples to be restored. Until then they will be completely isolated. This is not my prophecy, but of the prophets around the world – those in England, America, Germany, China, Japan, everywhere they prophesy what will happen. (15 January 1933)

If peoples do not humble themselves, there will be famine, chill, great earthquakes, pestilence and only after that they will humble themselves, i.e. such fearsome things will happen, that will make them humble themselves. But because of the chosen ones, the suffering will be discontinued. Those, who are chosen, support life.

When speaking to his disciples, Christ told them: „Remember Lot's wife”. What's the life she led? The old one. Some of you say: “Let's return to the old, we are not ready for a new life”. What is that “old” - History has already described it, but I'd like you to describe it too. Visit the butchery, the battlefields, chemical laboratories, and you'll see what people are preparing themselves for. Everywhere you'll see destruction, extermination and violence. This is the old life. Religious people annihilate religious, scholars annihilate scholars, women annihilate women, men annihilate men. “Why does that happen?” Men fight for women, women fight for men. Rich fight with rich, poor fight with poor. The entire world is in a military state. After that they say: “It was destined to happen, that's what God said”. So, you think this is Christ's doctrine! So these are Christians! No, these are just residues of the old culture, which is about to end. What we are living through today, and feel that it weights above our heads, is the karma of the entire mankind. This is a debt, which must be paid. All of us will be affected by the common karma of mankind. Everybody will have a piece of that.

Today Lord imposes fines on all peoples, as well as the entire mankind, for their disobedience. They are paying a tax for their disobedience. The judicious person, the wise world, cannot ever be outsmarted. The Earth is very clever. What you have worked with, it will finally take back, and with interests. You must know that everything you have acquired through bootlegging, will be taken from you at the last customs.

This world and the other are one, when consciousness is not interrupted. These are the last days of the world. Everything old is going away, not much time will pass, before this century washes away everything. All the philosophizing, all the sciences must be modified. God has decided so. Already a plan has been prepared. Mankind cannot live in these rags. The karma of European peoples is still immature. The cataclysm that is about to come, will be both social and natural. As; the religious forms will lose their sense. The invisible world has decided. The matter has been decided. There is a program and, when the button is pushed, everything will end.

The situation, through which the world now passes, is a transformation from one state into another. And modern scholars start to notice that. The ice, on which you used to play, has started melting and losing its rigidity. You've noticed that you can no longer play with your ice-skates on it and you start sinking. All the ice has started melting gradually and what is left is water. And you still have not learned how to swim in that water. Now, when we say scientifically, that there are no living conditions for the sinners in this world, why do we say that? People sometime think that there must be an external plot. It is not so. There is another law in nature: in your lives you already carry the poison which will decompose you. Entire families, entire races have disappeared from the face of Earth, with their sinful lives.

The karma of all peoples is immature, now it is time for liquidation, for repayment.

The sixth race is coming, and peoples cannot enter it, before liquidation of their karma. And now all this suffering is a liquidation of the accumulated karma, a preparation for the new life, which comes on Earth.

In not more than 200 years any brotherhood, any relation between people, who are connected in flesh, will disappear. The connection between people, born of God, will remain for at least 25 thousand years. This permanence, this durability of connections, will enable the judicious forces, which act on human souls, to do their job.

How will peoples' karma be resolved? It's very simple – the invisible world has methods to resolve this issue. It has provided for a great migration of people from the East to the West, and then from the West to the East. This great migration will first occur in the invisible world. In this way the Germans, killed by Russians, after some time will be reborn in Russia. In the same way, the Russians, killed by Germans will be reborn in Germany, after several decades, after these generations grow up, in – say 45 years, they will find out that they no longer have among them the hatred of the former generations. This is how nature resolves this issue in the family first: parents give birth to their enemies and through raising and educating their children, they pay their karmic debts. There is not a single parent, who does not love his children. In the same way, the people in this war will repay each other their debts, after 45 years.

People must remit their sins and start a new life. From now on there will be 45 jubilee years, during which whatever one has taken, he will have to repay. Every 45 years, everything is repaid – this is the case with the Jews. According the Moses' law, after 45 years of possession, land is returned to its owner. The slave is a slave for 45 years and then he is free. (19 May 1944)

Now it's the Second Coming, "the end of the days", all these things were described in Mathew 21 and Daniel 12. These chapters refer to the current age. If this age is not cut short, no one would survive. But, for the sake of the elect, those days will be shortened. There will be great bloodshed. In many countries there will be civil wars, but in those, which are closer to God, the turmoil will pass more easily. Then the forces of heaven will be outraged, great earthquakes will come – where there's land it will be sea. Those who are saved after this distress, will enter the Kingdom of God.

There are things that are irreparable. The way people now think and live, the world will not be corrected, it will get ten times worse and sink in a greater disorder, but it won't be fixed. If people fail to acquire new understanding, if they do not bring Divine Love, Wisdom and Truth into the world, a catastrophe is to happen. Things may be fixed only in God's Order.

Let/s leave the world to work as it can. There's no way we can help today's world. We can't help it, can't correct it. This world goes along the path it has chosen. It has to end this way.

You may read as many authors, as you want – I have also read some scientists and philosophers, but never so far has any one of them provided a proper solution to the current crisis that has overtaken the world. The way this world was born, is the way it will die. This world cannot be corrected, this world's order cannot be corrected – nothing more! No matter what system is applied to it, what doctrine is taught, what religion there is – this order of things cannot be corrected, today's world cannot be corrected. This is how it is. This is a ship, which you have entered, and you will pray to God to get on shore successfully. If you can get on shore successfully, you will then be very careful not to put your foot there anymore.

The feet of the figure, made of mud and iron, are an image of the European culture. The large rock, which hit this figure and broke them down, is God's Destiny, the wisdom that comes to the world. This large rock will smash all modern old concepts and beliefs in science and social life, and it will create a new science, new relations, which will be based on a firm, positive foundation.

Now everybody wants to know what will happen to the world: the world is the golden headed image, seen by the king. But, you see, a tiny rock came, destroyed the entire image and threw it on the ground. So the old culture, with all of its traditions, remaining from grandparents and ancestors, will be destroyed, nothing will remain of it. The small rock, cut out from the mountain, will destroy the old culture and only what it brings here will remain on Earth. This is the new that you should accept. What the prophet described refers to the current time. The time has come and it is now that the golden head of the world, its silver chest, its copper knees and feet, made of iron and mud, will be destroyed. The current age is transitional. It is the age of destruction of the old culture, restoration of the Kingdom of God and imposing new order on the world.

The Scripture says: “Prey that the days of distress are cut short “. Should those days are not shortened, evil will fall upon us. When will those days be shortened? When good people apply Love.

Mankind will be put through a fierce, hard trial. Everything will melt, it will turn into dust and ash. When will this happen – this is not important – it might be a year, ten, one hundred or one thousand years. What is important is that the law will be enforced. You will witness that time and check the veracity of my words. One thought must find a constant place in your minds: amend your ways and doings. I have come to a point, where I can and I want no longer to carry your impure and evil thoughts and desires. I don't want to carry the filth of modern age. Everything that you see today, will vanish, it will melt. This is God's will. The invisible world has decided to do away with the old. This should not make your hearts sink, but make you amend your ways and doings.

With this new life, we want to safe the world from a catastrophe ...

A catastrophe is about to happen to the world, due to the folly of today's people, a social catastrophe is about to happen, a catastrophe that will cause concussion to people's minds.

Now a collision emerges, as mentioned in the Bible. Everyone can dispute what the Bible says. Nothing funny is written in the Bible! Very little is written there. There is another great Bible, for which it will take at least ten thousand years to read just a half. It will take 20 thousand years to read the entire Bible. There are also pictures inside. All these ages are detailed in with pictures, and in order to study and get to know it, it will take several million years. Now, somebody has read the Bible and come to the Revelation. So he came to the Revelation and then he keeps harping on the same string. He says: "The sun will be darkened, the Moon will not give its light". The Sun is the symbol of the state, the worldly power. When it is said that the Sun will be darkened, this means that the power of all countries will decline. When it is said that the Moon will not give its light, this means that all the religious beliefs will decline. When it is said that all the stars will fall from the sky, these are the great people, who will fall. Those stars that fall are great suns. Where will they fall, how will they fall? Simple people say – the stars fall. It's the small bits that fall, but anyway they burn out.

I now refer to a world beyond our current world. The current world cannot be changed. When it is said that the world will change, the Earth is not mentioned. The scripture says: "The Sun will be darkened and the Moon will not give its light ". You think that the Moon and the Sun will be darkened. You are wrong. The Sun will keep giving light for millions of years. If you are waiting for it to be darkened, be sure that this won't happen. But the Sun is an image of an order, which is to change. And the Moon is an image of a human order, which also must change. The Moon shows that even the religious beliefs of people will change. Once people had pagan beliefs and religions changed with other religions, superior ones.

And the Sun is the governmental rule. The Sun of the Roman Empire went down. The Roman Empire was darkened and the Roman religion was darkened as well. They were replaced by others. And the current order of things will change. When people are ready, the education law will change. Until then all people must adopt a new understanding.

“The Sun will be darkened, the Moon will not give its light.” The Sun is Love. The Sun will be darkened at the end in societies, in the church, Love will be darkened everywhere and everybody will only think of him or herself. This is the life-giving Sun, and the Moon shows the faith and the faith of people will be weakened, they will not believe in one another.

“The stars will fall”, means that these people won’t have that much knowledge. Scholars will lose direction and won’t know what to do. These are stars. The great people will have no more authority in mental lives.

What we are preaching, will happen in the future. There are laws, according to which the worst doings will be replaced by the best. War will definitely be replaced by another process, directly opposite, this is inevitable. People see that war is incompatible with life, but can’t find an outlet to put through their energies. For this matter is clear, but for the government – it is not. Things that are now impossible, will be possible for the future generations.

It is time for people to change. The concepts and principles, on which their lives are based, must change radically.

This storm will not wash out the entire world, but it will cause great evil to people. It is reasonable to take measures to avoid the bad consequences from that storm. Here’s what I say: my words will come true. The old will disappear, something new will come ahead in science, religion and social life. All people will start thinking in a new way. Then new connections will be established between the European countries, which will be based on a new, modern confederation. The communications between countries will be free, without passports, without limitations.

Everything old will go. All the philosophizing, all the sciences must change. And this has already started to happen.

All the religious forms will lose their meaning and the religious people will have a new concept of God.

The Old has to go, nothing more than that! God Himself says that, these are not my words. The old Earth and the old Heaven are going away like old rags. This doctrine is not my new doctrine, it is God's doctrine. Your old Heaven will be swept away by the Lord, His servants are coming, they are millions, they are coming with their brooms, to sweep away everything. Do you understand? And all issues will be resolved by the Lord like this, instantaneously.

Now, do you know why I am say this? You must know that God does his work through people. And, as I speak to you, you are saying: "Mr. Dunov says that". What I say is what has been said from above – this is what is said by the heavens. I repeat that the Lord will come to purge the Earth with fire, take the old clothes off the people and give them new bodies, put Love in their hearts, elevate their minds, remove any malice, any hatred. This is announced by the Divine Doctrine in the new age.

Fire comes! Nothing will remain of him, who does not have Love. Nothing will remain of the European countries. Not much time will pass and you will be able to check what I am saying. Only Love will save you. The words of the prophet will be heard. Nothing will remain of the plans of European politics. This is to be known by European diplomats. Nothing will remain of the current religions and churches. Not one stone will be left on another! Love will destroy everything old. After that we will start building.

2 thousand years ago Christ started living in people's hearts and now grows in them. And the time will come, when Christ will show Himself through people, and then the Kingdom of God will come on Earth. You've been growing up for 2 thousand years. The new age will be an age of renovation, the renovation has just started.

The new shall come as the dawn of day. And do not be misled, that the new will come from these laws that are being forged now. The true laws are written in human hearts. Man will show himself, as it is written by God in human hearts, and not through external laws. The new will come from those of pure hearts, in which God's laws have been written.

As I am talking, I don't want to injure your beliefs, because I know that in your former existences you had completely different beliefs, different faith, and in the future you will not believe in what you now believe. Not that the current beliefs are not truthful, but they are just a little bud. Every bud must bloom, produce fruit, so that you see the contents of your faith. We are talking about Love. Your Love has not bloomed yet, your lives have not blossomed, your light has not bloomed yet – they are still in embryo, they are a bud, which is waiting for its time, which we call the coming of the Kingdom of God on Earth. This Earth must pass through fire, in order to be purged and all unrighteous people to be reformed. Not a trace will remain of all these sinners – nor of their paintings or other works, everything will parish with time. The hospitals, the houses, churches and young bride's necklaces, everything will be gone. You're saying: "It is dreadful!" No, it is not, here's what I say: when a hospital has serviced sick people for about 30 years, various diseases have passed through it – leprosy and others, it must be burnt down, nothing should remain of it, and after 20 years a church should be built at that place. You say: "Where will the doctors go?" Doctors will again be needed, but doctors for healthy people. The doctor should tell a healthy person 20 years before a disease occurs, if the germ of the disease is in that person, to take all necessary measures to prevent it.

The current age has come to its end. We can't get any lower in the dense matter. And now we are already in a process of ascending. The next race, when it comes, it won't be able to go further down, there will be no body left to carry. Now everybody should carry up to the top as much as he can, and everything else shall remain down. There will be an upswing in the future. When we say that the rich must surrender their richness, this means: a person should carry as much as he can take to the top. This is all that is his. Everything else will be left. "But will there be no servants?" Servants are not allowed in nature. What the others carry, it is theirs. Now you are saying: "If this doctrine is applied with this understanding, it will have no results, because people are self-interested". When people become clever, when Love connects them to the world, when there is cooperation or agreement between people, and they help each other, like the cells in an organism, then the result may be different. The concept of God will then be different than the current one. We will have the notion that God lives among men and then they will know Him – everybody young and old. The rich won't keep their money locked in saves, as they do now. The preacher won't try to convince you in certain creed, but leave you with what you've been born to.

When I am telling you this, many of you get scared and imagine things formidably. Here's what I say: do not think that what I'm saying will happen right now. No, these are only projects. In a drama, things are presented dramatically, but they are not real. There are known prophecies, made back in the old times, but these have not yet come true; there are more recent prophecies which have not come true yet either. The question here is: how can we avoid these prophecies, i.e. what is about to happen? This is possible and it is in the agenda.

Now we are afraid of the consequences. Whether we are afraid or not, what is going to happen, will happen. The difference is only this: if a person dies in fear, he will suffer more; if he dies without fear, he will not suffer as much, but will die more peacefully. This is what we can achieve.

The world is being corrupted now, but the fall of the world is due to a general reason. The reason is not what it is thought to be. When people come to the same spot, where we have fallen, and from there an elevation starts, and gradually there will finally be a positive result. We've been walking along a curved path in an orbit for 8 thousand years. We are close to completing a semi-circle. We will reach that low point where we've fallen, according to the laws of involution, and, according to the law of evolution, we will then reach the opposite point and will have a different sunrise. The ascension and salvation of the entire mankind will then come.

You may dishearten and say to yourselves: "We've been living really bad". No, people have been living this way for thousands of years. You will meet the new that is coming to this world. You'll have to meet it in one way or the other. Spring is coming – and both the sick, and the healthy will come out to welcome it. The sick will groan and moan, and that's how he will meet it. But, if the sick is intelligent, he will get up from his bed and get well in the spring; but if he is not intelligent, he will not benefit from it. So, here's what I say: what is now coming to this world, will establish the necessary condition for everybody to improve his position. The healthy will get healthier, the sick will get well. The healthy will become perfect. Health is the medium for perfection.

I wish you acquire the Divine Warmth in your hearts – the warmth that you once lost. This is the meaning of the words: "The Kingdom of God is preached".

THE NEW MAN

Now, some thing that the world will come to an end. No the world will be transformed, but it will never end. People did not exist when the world was created. Why the world was created, no one knows. No one knows what's the mining of the world. The world exists, but why – people can only guess. In this guessing, however, there should be some truth. A person depends on the external living conditions – a person does not exist in Truth; while one depends on people's knowledge – he cannot be in the realm of Wisdom; while one depends on the lives of others – Life is not in himself. You are subjected to one of the greatest trials..

Can the Earth and the Sun fall, while the Law rules? They will exist, until He holds the reins in His hands. Can a soul fall or disappear, while God rules? Can it be removed and fall in the abyss, until He holds its destiny in His hands? No! As every world is created to fulfill its purpose – to be inhabited and to give room for life to develop, so every soul, created by God, is born to give room for His consciousness to dress in it. As worlds serve to provide life to souls, so the lives of souls serve God's consciousness. Just like souls incarnate in the worlds, the same way God incarnates in souls and manifests His Spirit. There is nothing to make you fear or dread.

A great artist, who has started doing his great work, already paints on their laws and the readers can no longer read properly; an internal change in human soul is happening, and therefore what man has seen earlier, he sees that no more, and what had sense earlier, now remains completely meaningless. Of course, it is only seeming, as seeming are the mentioned cracks and demolitions of shepherd's rock. In science, this is called transformation. For example, if we heat some water it turns into steam and “disappears“. The transformation is a process of converting one thing into another. According to this law, the contemporary mankind also passes, in the process of its development, from one state to another. People soon will find themselves in the position of the butterfly, which does not enjoy leaves as food, what it considered them to be, due to necessity, but peacefully perches on the leaf, without causing any damage. Now it does not damage it, because its attention is focused in another direction – the flower nectar. When the butterfly was still a caterpillar, the flowers used to have no content, but after that, when it left that state and entered its new state, they became a centerpiece of butterfly's life. Therefore, we just have to acknowledge the fact that a new force has entered our world, which acts in a very sensitive manner.

Just like the life of mammals were a foreword of human life, in the same way human life is now a foreword to something more elevated that is now coming into this world.

If the ox assumes human form, its living conditions will be improved. If the fish also assumes human form, its conditions will improve as well. Christ came on Earth to take the humans out of Earth's conditions, to transform them and give them a new form, so that when they open their eyes each would say: "I was blind, but now I see". It is now for us to start walking with seeing, and not with believing. When the Son of Man came to Earth, people will see. The Lord will write His law in their hearts. They won't ask is there a God or not, but will know Him. God's blessing will be upon everybody, upon the entire Earth. All the peoples will be on people. Every person will be on the fig tree. Man will live to a ripe old age. Everybody will depart to the other world, at his own wish.

We are now in a new age, when a new man is being born, now the new Adam is being created. Every time when a new Adam is created, there are cataclysms, transformations.

The form, in which man is incarnated, is just transitive. Adam, the first man God created, could not think. He felt. Adam was the first man, in whom consciousness was evoked – he started thinking. The objective mind appeared in him.

Now the world is nobler than it used to be. Today there are much bigger beneficiations, than there used to be back in the old days. Today people are more merciful than before.

At first forms were not what they are now. Forms always mean an idea. The matters, related to ideas, are considered primary matters.

All the old forms will be destroyed. People will not notice how they will grow bigger, they will become new people, with new understandings. Now the new organs are being developed.

The current form is one of the last forms, but not the last, reached by people.

Just like fish transformed their gills into lungs, so will our lungs be transformed into special organs so that we will breathe through ether. The ether, from which all people die, will be people's environment, they will live in it. If people were to return to the form of a fish, as before, they will definitely die.

Scholars say that one day the Earth will grow old, and all people, living on it, will die. If it is so, here's what I ask: all the discord between people – what is their meaning? Life is not there. The earth is a school. And people on Earth will not die, but will be transferred to other places, so that they continue their education. Therefore, while you are on Earth, you must learn all rules of good life, because where you are going, you'll be placed at an appropriate place. The knowledge, acquired during thousands of years, will define the next form you will be given. All the creatures, now inhabiting the Earth, are all rational. And according to their development, each of them will assume its next form: the ox will not be an ox, the horse will not be a horse, the mosquito will not be a mosquito, and the human will not be a human. Every creature will assume the form, up to which he has come. Therefore the form of each creature must be modified. It will be modified, based on the development stage of the mind.

You have to deal with solid matter first, with the solid, gaseous and ethereal matters. Now the humankind is making a step – from the gaseous it passes through to the ethereal matter. The next life will be improved, because we are entering a thin environment, where there will be almost no possibility for a crime. Crimes will be impossible.

A new order is coming now in the world. Air will be so delicate that you. With your current lungs, will suffocate. Now new organs have to form, so that you breathe ether.

In the future, the human organism will change and people will breathe ether. Whoever loves, forms the future breathing organs. Ether will be breathed through the sympathetic nervous system.

People should gradually start getting used to high temperatures, because the day will come, when thy will live in fire, at the temperature of light. Then we will breathe light, as we now breathe air.

Now certain changes are occurring in the matter in people, in the atomic and ion structure.

The way you are made, you will sin, as people now sin. The matter, you're made of, is mud. Now God will make Adam of another type of mud. He makes him of another type of mud. The first mud proved no good. It was an unsuccessful attempt. And Eve also proved no good.

Adam was made of mud, Eva was made from man. No once again he is making Adam, but He will take the materials from another place. The scripture says: “A man born of God, does not sin”. Everybody has to be born again. Christ says: the man born of Spirit and water. These are now the new ingredients. This body is the best, the most elevated body in which man can be vested. When someone is sinning, as people now do, we can't judge him. God also does not judge him.

The heart has moved a bit to the left during the involution. The flaws initially came from the right to the left, and that is why heart has move a bit to the left. According to the evolution law, heart will once again come to the center of the chest. Those, whose heart is to the left, are descending. When heart starts shifting to the right, then you can say that you are on your way up to heaven.

A person has to make space for the new heart in himself, which is made of soft matter and not stone, as his current heart. The soft heart has been woven of the matter of mercy. Therefore those, whose heart is merciful, are candidates for the new race. The softness of heart is one of the signs of the people of the sixth race. It is said in the Scripture: “I will take away the stony heart from them, and give them a new heart”. The hard stone hearts of people will be used for paving the streets, and the soft hearts will remain flickering, they will bring to the world what is great and beautiful in the Divine Life.

The scripture says: God will infuse His Spirit and write the Law in people's hearts. He is writing it now. All of you, who are ready to adopt the new age that is coming, this will happen for sure. They call it the Second Coming, the change of the ages, change. Call it as you wish. He says: “I will write My Law in their hearts and put My Spirit and everybody – young and old – will know Me”. You can't know somebody, if you don't love him. Everybody will love each other, and compete in doing good to one another. Both men and women, servants and masters, disciples and teachers, and everybody else will compete in doing one another good and render each other services. This will be the future.

When God says that man is to be born “of water and Spirit“, by “water“ in this case you should understand the primary Prana, the power, and by “Spirit” you should understand God’s Spirit, this is the reason in man, the supreme Mind. The new man will be born “of water and Spirit”.

The spiritual body is now being built, it has not been finished yet – the forehead, the nose, mouth, bones, skull, brain, hands has not been completed yet. The astral hand is now being made, the astral world is thickening and preparing for a superior, more purified life. Now it is a somewhat watery form.

Our physical body has been developing for millions of years, and now the astral body is being formed.

When the main physical construction of the physical evolution is almost completed, a time will come for referring to the spiritual development of man, called by the occultists “development of his astral life”, which is now being organized. I call this process “development of the human heart”. The words in the Scripture, that God will give a new life, mean new hears. The heart means a world, much vaster than the physical world. A new universe is being built. Therefore our joy and distress happen at the expense of that reconstruction, of the new construction. A new universe is being created. As it is said – now a new world is being built, the intelligent people can imagine that. Who cannot perceive the internal sense of this new world will be confused.

People today constantly feel thirst and hunger, because they are collecting material for building their body, which will be immortal. Fine elements can be extracted from rough matter, in order to build light thoughts and noble feelings.

In the future, the spiritual body will take the place of the physical one and it will be able to switch between visible and invisible.

The occultists maintain that when a man is relieved of his physical body, he'll be able to go to the other world, to the Moon, with his astral body This you can check.

The current man cannot be a new man, because he is a man of flesh. The new man must be born again, but not of flesh and not in these conditions. The future man will be a man of Love, a man of Spirit. Spirit works to elevate flesh.

Now evil is being tied. Matter's form will be changed. Matter will get more and more ethereal. The radiation of radioactive energies will increase during the next millennia. This is the beginning of the slow dematerialization of matter.

If modern people fail to go in a new direction, they will be forced to do that due to exhaustion of their nervous system. All of them will become neurotics and then they will be forced, willing or not, to leave old concepts and strivings and start along the new path.

One day mankind on Earth will be organized, as our brains are organized now. There are 3 billion 600 million cells in our brains, which have distributed all work among them.

In the front of the brain, there are white fibers, which are the tissues of human consciousness. These white fibers determine the way a person perceives light, light, and how he perceives sound. Everyone of you can perform a test. We perceive sounds, but sometimes we also perceive thoughts. A person thinks something, and another asks: "I'm listening, what do you want to say". Nothing was said, but the first man perceived the thought. The ear in that man is well developed and he perceives thoughts as sounds. There are concealed sounds, which form Love. They are reflected. You know that this sound can only be made by Love. When the Good comes, only it can make it. There's a sound that only Love can make. Only the intelligent man can produce that sound. There is nothing secret in the world. Things are hidden from those, who do not understand God's Laws. Therefore, if possible, always try to ennoble yourselves. This means to listen to your mind, the good in your mind. The mind, which does not cause turbulence in you. Whenever a good thought comes, it elevates you. Listen to your hearts - when a noble feeling occurs in you, again you feel elevated.

A period has period has started in contemporary evolution, where human minds and human bodies will start loosening. This neuroticism, existing throughout Europe, is a loosening of the white race. And they must take measures. In what? Their egoism has become so strong that it loosens the nervous system, everybody is so immersed in materialistic thoughts – our brains are full of thoughts of houses and money. There is nothing noble in us.

The current people have become very nervous. This shows that these people have not enough Love, and as a result of that their nervous system disintegrates.

If we feed on wheat and fruit, our lives will be purer. When Christ's doctrine comes to sprout in people's hearts a lot of people will go mad and burst, like old bellows.

In order to sustain the vibrations of the spiritual world, modern people must toughen their nervous systems. Today the white race is gradually adjusting to spiritual life. The distress, it is in, is a preparation coming from the invisible world, so that people get in contact with beings of the elevated worlds.

In this age, we are already stepping into a wave of fire. Do you understand that, we are entering, getting there, we are in the first rows. And soon all of us will enter a strong magnetic wave. These are several million — 10–15–20 million volts is that wave. Here's the danger: this wave causes accumulation of energy, and that is why some of you have already started feeling something like tachycardia, something is prodding your nervous systems. These waves come periodically, and once you get in them, sometimes they dilute your blood, sometimes they thicken it; sometimes thicken the nervous system, and sometimes dilute that energy and, as a result of that some people get nervous strokes and die. These are all waves of fire. These waves of fire, through which we are now passing, will make us very hot-tempered. A man is easy to bristle up, but does not know where this comes from — this is a wave of fire — he has bristled up — he is rich, there is no loss, but why is he so bristled up. He looks for the reason, and the reason is inside — he has gotten into that wave. Here's the natural thing: a man must turn up to God and improve the vibrations of his body. There's no other salvation! And now, when we preach in the Occult School, this is a method to lift our bodies, to bring them in harmony with that wave, otherwise people will die, epidemics will come and wash them away. Nature is very strict in this respect. It bears and puts up with a lot, but when these beings sin too much, it comes and washes away everything. It is like a potter, who says: "These pots are no good!" — nature washes them away, He removes His Spirit — people die. After that he sends back His Spirit once again. God did that many times — washes away an entire race, and then recreates it.

In order to sustain God's Energies, a person has to have a strong aspiration for God. Therefore we must get in contact with the Divine energies and temper ourselves. Everybody has to be aware that he is factor in the Universe.

The future order of life will be a completely new type. This life is real, not something fantastic, nor it is outside the Earth. Future life will be more real than this one.

One of the qualities of the new Adam is that he shall not die. He shall live as much as he wants. After living 200–300–1 000 years, he shall call his friends and tell them: “Dear friends, I’ve been summoned from the other world and I’ve decided to leave. From every station I will call you on the radio, so that you know where I am.” This means that the new man will not die. However, until that new man is created, the bodies of modern people will have to go through a radical transformation. The new man will be created, in God’s image and after His likeness.

We have started from the first Adam, made of soil, and must finish with the second, the immortal Adam, who carries God’s Love in himself.

We are interested in the new Adam, who will be made of a finer and purer matter, and not like that of which the old Adam was made. It is said in the Scripture: “If you are not born again, you can’t enter the Kingdom of God”. So, if you’re not born as new people, new types, you can’t enter the Kingdom of Love. You will say: “What were we like in the old times!” What were you like? Like your grandmothers and great-grandmothers, like your grandfathers and great-grandfathers. You will bid farewell to your grandmothers and grandfathers and aspire to the new type – the type of Christ. What Christ was, this it’s what you should be.

When man enters the cosmic consciousness, he enters the continuum, where everything is in harmony. When the new comes, it also contains a sad part – this is when it destroys the old. The sadness is in the wandering if it is going to be better. Then, when the new is finished – there’s joy.

I call the new man, who is now being created, the “man of light”.

You live in an age, when the new Adam is being created and all of you will see him. He is already on his way to this world. You say: “When will that be?” “When the moon won’t give its light, the Sun is darkened and the stars fall.” This is what the Scripture says. Translated in a modern language, this means: when the old order is replaced by a new, more appropriate, more intelligent, conforming to God’s Laws, then the new man, the new Adam, Son of Man will come. Then all people will pass through Him and become like Him. This means: the Kingdom of God, the new Kingdom on Earth has come.

Then people will live on Earth again, but they will also be able to visit the Sun and the Moon, and be able to walk wherever they want, they will have a free pass. Remember my words and you’ll be able to verify them. Then people’s bodies will not be as heavy as these of today’s people. The new people will be able to transform their bodies, according to their desires and needs. They will become visible and invisible, will shrink and expand them.

The scholars prove that after 500–600 million years the Earth will die out, life will almost perish. One day everybody will have to leave the Earth. One day the Earth will be like the Moon, the chill on the surface will reach 150 degrees. So I’m asking: how are these people going to live on Earth? At 150 degrees below zero, can you survive? Nothing can grow. There will be no fruits. Then you’ll have nothing to do. You say: “Let the people, who will live in those distant times, worry about that”. You will be these people. The beings, who inhabited the Moon – there are about 100 thousand people there, because it is 50 times smaller than the Earth. There are 100 thousand people, living under Moon’s crust. I don’t want you to believe that now. I know that there are 100–150 thousand people, living there. They are very well learned, they live under the crust, have gardens, orchards there. They use solar energy, convey it under the crust and get out, because there they have excellent conditions for studying the sky – it is always clear, there’s no steam. Then, they are free of any germs, there are no germs there. On the Moon they live as long as they want. This, about the Moon, is a good thing, but then who are we, here on Earth? If a man moves from the Earth to the Moon with his 60–70 kilograms, there he will weigh just 250 grams. If you move to the Sun, you will weigh 16 tons – being the same body. Now you can think this is funny. I will tell you a fact, announced by the scientists. The modern scientists have established that the matter on Sirius is so heavy that 3–4 cubic centimeters would be sufficient to break a truck. Just 4 cubic centimeters of that matter can break the most robust truck. If you weigh 16 tons on the Sun, then, in order to live there, you will weigh 16 tons and have internal tension, to balance the 10 thousand kilograms – then you'll carry them, you'll play with them. The external pressure and the internal tension must be equal. The more we are elevated in the human evolution, the bigger the tension within and the harder the conditions become.

THE UNDERSTANDING

How will the world improve? The man, who can provide an intelligent plan for improvement of the world, has not been born yet. All the people think, enact laws and form entire institutes, so that they can do something about that, but so far they have found no method to improve the world. In this concept of ours, regarding the improvement of the world, there is something true, and something that is not true. The sick person always thinks that everything is evil; the healthy person thinks that everything is good. This is an internal perception. Or, to say it scientifically: the healthy objectively perceives that he is healthy, the sick subjectively perceives that he is sick. Therefore the sick person is always focused on himself, and the healthy is always expansive – he thinks about the world. Sometimes we are in a pessimistic disposition. So Christians are in a pessimistic disposition, the believers are pessimistic, sometimes they say: “We are all going wrong! Moral has fallen.” This is what people say, and they are right to say so. And yet, in the world there is a constant progress, failure and decline are something of secondary importance. Now, some think that the world is about to end. No the world will be transformed, it will never end.

When you don't understand life, you ask: “Why does God not fix the world?” There's no need for Him to fix it, The world is set straight. Your world is not fixed, your conceptions are wrong.

The ordinary man is trampled by everybody. The ordinary people trample one another. The difficulties in life are precisely in the ordinary conceptions and understandings.

Before the great flood there were enormous animals, mammoths, there were many scholars, philosophers, adepts, but all of them died of starvation and cold. They couldn't manage to provide their sustenance; they all died of freezing and starvation. There were enormous plants back then, the current plants are nothing, compared to what once were. However they couldn't deal with the climatic conditions. Of all people, living today, only those, who can deal with the current conditions will remain, all the others will have to leave Earth, according to the same law, just like the enormous plants and mammoths. Then you're going to ask, where would they be? There is one law in nature: it has made the great people servants of small people. So now the enormous animals, who perished, are tutors to the animals. They teach them hygiene. To eat a little, to observe the conditions, so that there's no surplus. And then they say: "Adjust so that when there's a perturbation, you can easily adapt". When I speak about animals, I mean man in all possible forms of its consciousness. Man sometimes is with the consciousness of an animal, thinks like an animal. Not like a man or according to God. He must understand the causes and consequences in the world.

Many of Christ's disciples understood wrongly the words of Christ, regarding self-denial. According to them, self-denial meant disavowal of life, of one's own desires. By "self-denial" Christ meant disavowal by man of all his follies and lawlessness, of lie, unbelief, cravenness, discontent, sickness, all the bad inherited characteristics. In other words: man must deny everything that is animal in him, the bad features of the wolf, the bear, tiger, snake, mosquito, spider etc. And for a man to disavow life, given unto him by God, this is not what Christ meant. On the contrary – Christ speaks in a verse, about acquiring eternal life. He says: "Now this is eternal life: that they know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent". So one of the objectives of man is to know God in all his manifestations. Where will he know Him? In life. Study life in all living creatures – in humans, in horses, in sheep, in ox and copy the good features. Be patient as the ox, so that you are harnessed and remain silent, be selfless as the sheep, let them take your milk and wool, without fretting; be like the horse, always ready for work – to be ridden, to be harnessed etc.

Don't be fooled by external forms, always look for the internal content, and Christ is Him, who will give it to you. Therefore he said that the old forms should be removed. And he also said that “ And no one pours new wine into old wineskins”. (...) Who are the old wineskins? These are all sinful people. And therefore Christ says: “Do not reconcile Christ with the devil”. Because, if you admit both in you, they will fight. But if you admit Christ to your heart, He will adjust everything in you and you'll be blessed.

Christ worked ceaselessly. He directed His thought towards the entire humankind, towards everything living, in order to elevate it. Christ's thought is the basis of everything that is positive and stable in current culture. Christ's thought is also the foundation of the culture, which will come in the future. The Energy, which Christianity used to keep in itself, reaches its end. This energy is almost exhausted. Christianity has in itself a stock of energy, enough for approximately 1 200 more years, but it keeps it as an inviolable equity. If it touches that equity, it is destined to bankruptcy. That equity must remain untouched. In order to maintain its life, Christianity must be credited, if no new credit is granted to it, there will be an unmatched famine and poverty in the world.

The credit of modern Christianity comes with the sixth race. When the sixth race comes to Earth, Christians' position will be improved. They carry a great stock of energy for the creation of new forms, in which some of the current people are called upon to participate.

The new religion does not consist of external forms, but in a deep internal life, which lies on laws and rules, written by God. “Religion” in a wide sense, mans the entire life. Outside of life, everything is relative.

Current people can be relieved of their distress, only if they change their thoughts. The old thoughts must be replaced by new ones. By thinking straight, in a new way, a person understands that what yesterday caused him suffering, will now cause him Joy. He's not distressed by the fact that he has lost his fortune or social status. His treasure, his dignity depends on him. He carries in himself what is necessary to be reach and healthy.

Understanding makes a man satisfied, and not the high position and great possession.

Apostle Paul says: " We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed". When we were children, we thought in one way, as adults – in another, and when we get old – in a third way. Neither what we thought when we were young, nor what we thought when adults or as old men, is correct. In all these things we lack something. We, modern people, seem like these falling stars. We don't have a center, around which to revolve. We are getting closer here and there, fall where we are not supposed to do. Some stop and say: "Where I'll be in a thousand years?" If I am a part of a tree, in a thousand years I know where I'll be. If now I'm the roots, after one thousand years I'll be the branches, and after another thousand years I'll be the blossoms, and after yet another thousand years – I'll be the fruit. So there's an internal process – a approximation to God. This is an expansion of our consciousness.

Do not think that the priests will help the world get better. The world will get better with light that is coming, the world will get better with air that is coming, the world will get better with the water that is coming, the world will get better with bread that is coming. If we can't turn our thoughts into light, if we can't turn our thoughts into air, if we can't turn our thoughts into water, if we can't turn our thoughts into bread, there's nothing we can do. Work on thoughts! They are a powerful force. Only air, when projected through light, brings in the Divine Thought – and that thought, after being transferred, adds something to human education. This is the entire science and that thought, after being transferred, adds something to human education. This is the entire science – to adopt that bright thought. All the distress in the world aim at awakening man so that he can see that possibility. All great people, until they become great, had significant trials, great disappointments, great experiences. I can give you a number of examples: the man experiencing the greatest disappointment was Christ. He says: “The Kingdom of God has come near to you” – He decided to save the world. After that, not only His Kingdom did not come, he was unable to do anything, but also He was captured, profaned, He was crucified. But after His death, resurrection came, the true implementing force came.

When heart is fixed, half the world has been fixed. When the mind is set straight, the entire world will be set straight. The way we think the world will be set straight, it will never really happen – not through earthquakes, not through burning of cities, and not with storms will the world be set straight, these things destroy the old, but a true change in people’s minds has to happen. From the invisible world they work hard to make humanity adopt the new ideas. First they sent about one million angels to save humankind, but they failed to fulfill their task. Some say: “Lord will set the world straight”, but this is too mechanical a concept. The problems cannot be solved externally, because if this was the case, Christ would have assumed power, put forward a law etc. If the world could be set straight, now there would be laws as well, but what is lacking is this: people do not know the human soul or the human body, they do not think these sacred. When people know human soul, and when they come to the idea that they should consider human body sacred, that is why the world will be set straight.

We live in an age, when knowledge is required, so that we can fulfill happiness and create harmonic relations between people.

All of you, who are candidates for the new culture, the new religion in the world, the New Mankind, must enroll as students. In order to be students, the first examination that you'll have is that in patience. This is an entrance examination. The second examination will be in generosity. The third examination is gentleness and abstinence. You will sit for examination in personal power that you have. The Scripture says: "Until I bring Judgment onto you".

How can the clever person use white and black paint? The clever person will act like Venus – he will put everybody in two pots and whoever is not learning properly will be painted black, so that he can be distinguished from the others. The thing in you that learns well, you should paint white. In this way you'll know – what is that in you that perceives, learns and what is that, which does not. You'll put white to the right and black to the left. It's been said that in the Second Coming, some will be placed to the right, and others – to the left. To the left, in the black pot will be all those who are black. The good people, will be in white clothes. Here's what I say: black paint absorbs. As soon as black comes inside of you, as soon as you stop wanting to learn, you absorb your own powers. You become an incapacitated person. People say: "I can't". M – this is the material world, everything that God has created. He has put into it all the possibilities. He has given all the possibilities, all the tools, there's nothing that you lack, however you are required to learn. You say: "I can't". No, for everything, given to you, you'll say "I can". Because, when you say "I can't", you enter the black pot.

Everything preached today, is an old doctrine. People have known these things for thousands of years. The knowledge of modern people is limited. They deal with the physical, material world. This, however, is an old science, through which minerals, plants and animals have also gone. Plants know chemistry and mathematics better than a lot of scientists. Your stomach understands mathematics better than you. The only thing is what is said in the Revelation: "The Lord creates a new heaven and a new earth". A new heaven and a new earth – by these I understand new concepts of life, by which a new curtain will be lifted and a new world will be revealed.

There is knowledge, which makes man sleep. What kind of knowledge is that? The true knowledge means knowing laws and principles of the great life, and not knowledge of images and shapes. Should he know the principles of things, one can produce their images. The objective of man is to reach the positive science, which finds application in all areas of life. Engage in science, because it can help you reveal all areas and manifestations of life, and especially – the human life. Chiromancy, for example, reveals to man the willful side of his life; physiognomy reveals to man the positive and negative sides of his character; phrenology shows the quantity and quality of the positive and negative energies, functioning in human body; astrology shows the favorable and unfavorable combinations, which a person encounters in his life, giving him the opportunity to prevent certain dangers and misfortunes in his lie.

Where's the erudition of a person. Let's first define where the erudition of a bee-keeper is. He is considered a specialist, they say: "He knows much about bees". He knows much about bees, but does not know the main thing. How to breed bees, how to raise a queen, what are the workers, drones, he knows all that, but what bees know, he does not know that. Bees know what food is necessary for the queen, for the workers, they know what food to give to the drones. The bee keeper knows everything, but how to make a queen – this he does not know. If you leave him to raise a queen, he will kill her. And, at the same time, he is a renowned bee-keeping erudite.

The knowledge, acquired by modern people, is of not much use to them. It is a garment, which soon gets shabby. One day it will get old and shabby and you'll throw it away. After that you'll make yourself a new piece of garment. If today you are a renowned biologist and depart for the other world, and then with that knowledge you are reincarnated on the Earth, what biology are you going to teach people? Then children even will know more than you. If you're an astronomer, what will be left of your astronomy after 100 years? People will laugh at such astronomy. Everybody wants to be a scientist, to have knowledge. There is a single knowledge in nature, which never changes.

One day the saints gathered together to show their knowledge. Everybody tried to prove better educated than the others. One of them, who was considered ignorant, said: "I have no knowledge like yours. I can only do two things." He picked up a stone, squeezed it and fire came out of its top, and water – from its bottom. "When you need fire and water, I'll give you that – I know nothing else." Knowledge needs application. It's better to have knowledge, which can help you get water and fire, than philosophize. The stone is the hard, robust nature of man. When he takes hold of this nature of his, to get fire and water from it. True knowledge means that whatever you say – this happens.

True knowledge is put into human soul. You're going to ask: "Who will that knowledge come?" Through purity. If a man is pure, knowledge will come as well.

What's the use of knowledge? The use of knowledge is in that it is a process of purification of consciousness. Because if a man does not study, a lot of impurities accumulate in his consciousness – delusions. These delusions make human life miserable. The consciousness of a person supports his mental body. Knowledge is a process of purification of consciousness. Consciousness is a process, which builds the mental body of a person.

The true man feeds through his consciousness.

Where conviction is weak, application is lacking. If a person applies something, of which he is not convicted, he shall produce no results.

If a person fails in something, the sole reason for that is that his conviction is not complete. He is not convinced at 100 percent, there is at least a little hesitation or doubt in his conviction.

The new comes from within, and not from without. It's not people who can impose the new order, there is a divine plan, which is being implemented.

Why some people are unable to apply their ideas? Because they are trying to find a way to apply them outside of themselves? A person cannot apply anything outside of himself. Whatever a person applies, he will apply it in himself – nowhere else. Only what is applied, becomes light.

The first cause applied everything in itself. That is why it is said: "Everything lives and moves in God". He applies things inside of him, and we want to take them and apply them outside. What greater contradiction there may be? As a result of that contradiction, people come in conflict with the Divine order of things.

Now everybody is required to have internal understanding of things. If you don't understand Truth from within, all of you are going broke. Truth is an equity which must be used. Very few have thought on this matter. We continue to see that people expect everything from the outside. And when these things fail to come, people are disappointed. After Christ's resurrection, his followers expected Him to come to Earth for a second time, but they expected him from the outside. Today they still expect Christ to come from somewhere outside. Religious people ask one another about the way they are expecting him. You may say that as he was once born, so he should be born again. Since he was born on the Earth, people would have accepted Him. But, since they did not accept Him back then, in the Future,

Christ will only come when all people open their hearts and adopt them within and not from the. For people to open their hearts and adopt Christ means his coming on earth. Should they fail to adopt them in this way, there will be storms, earthquakes, cyclones, poverty, famine, sickness, crises etc. How long would these things continue? Until people abandon their old lives – the lives of outside believes.

This Europe still does not have the necessary knowledge to welcome the Divine, and the people, which has the knowledge, is responsible for that. The knowledge of that Great Love must come out of the closed societies, of the book depositories, the expensive courses of the East and West and become knowledge of the national cultures. However, there's no time for that to happen in the material field, and that is why, the experience to be acquired, will be gained mainly in the spiritual field. People must gain knowledge within through this internal contact

If the new ideas are not group around man – this tiny particle and fail to form the living drops of water, life is lacking any reason and content.

While have no trust in the Divine World and are not ready to sacrifice for the Divine Origin in you, you'll achieve nothing. Some thing that knowledge will come on its own, i.e. that without ever studying, they will acquire the necessary knowledge. No, man must probe, observe, study Heaven and Earth, the Sun and the Moon, the stars, plants, minerals and animals for a long time, until he reaches the truth, the positive knowledge. There are two types of knowledge: one has been acquired through strenuous work, and the other – by means of Love. For both types of knowledge, however, work, persistence and efforts are necessary. True knowledge is that, which has been acquired through Love. In that knowledge one can see the power, he has applied. There man can see the greatness of nature, the Glory of his Creator. Whoever managed to acquire that knowledge, he has released himself of all criticism.

Actually the invisible is real. The visible things serve as entertainment for people, and the invisible things are the reality, which is used to build. The visible things – “vedi” /“веди“/ – this is what you can learn. Invisible – “non-vedi” /”не vedi“/ – things you have never studied.

Remember: while the Spirit of God is not born in you, you cannot be elevated.

To give birth to yourself, this means to give meaning to your life, to acquire Love and enter the area of the great harmony. In this case suffering makes sense. They resurrected Christ, but he gave birth to the Divine Child. The Revelation speaks of this Child. The Beast chases the child of the woman in labor, but an Angel of God took it to the Kingdom of God.

THE RIGHTEOUS

So far the entire world has an astrologically very poor aspect, where the Earth is of a completely prison-like nature. And is it possible to live well in confinement? The situation is to be corrected in the future. We need not worry, because the Divine Life, which will come into us in this age, will transform energies. Today we have to accept the Divine Impulse. The Scripture says: "I will give them preachers and workers, according to my heart". Whatever did they think in the past – our respects – if they come today, the saints and prophets will have to start learning anew. The new man is coming to this world with a new mind.

All new currents are appearing everywhere – also in India, Japan. Those who adopt these ideas, have been prepared for ages, these are advance souls, they have insight and comprehend the ideas, coming from the other world. A certain idea comes and stops with someone, but before that it has passed through millions of conductors, and that is why 5-10 scientists manage to discover one and the same idea simultaneously, while working independently from one another.

The new doctrine is for all peoples, and not something national. The national ideas are just a fashion. All the spiritual, mystic, occult, currents, spiritistic, vegetarian, temperance, Esperantist, socialist currents will embrace the new doctrine. Otherwise, life in general, as a whole, would remain incomprehensible.

Some say that the White Brotherhood is in Bulgaria. It would be a great honor for Bulgaria, if you think it is here! The Ecumenical White Brotherhood cannot pick such a small people for its headquarters. It is not chosen England, nor France, Germany or Russia. It has its headquarters elsewhere. The only thing, which exists in the world, is the Ecumenical White Brotherhood. All other people – writers, priests, preachers, philosophers – all of them are servants of the White Brotherhood. And the culture and righteousness in the world are driven through their mighty power, by their mighty Spirit ...

The White Brotherhood is not something visible, it is not a sect or a church, it is something living, outside of these corrupt conditions, in which people live. The way people live, what we now have – this is no brotherhood.

It is time now for all modern people, to become carriers of the new ideas. They must adopt and apply everything new, which comes from the invisible world. Every person has to provide application, and not just theory. It is not important what a person knows, but what he applies.

In order for the world to be elevated, Christ's doctrine must be understood, in its practical application.

You often here talks about the Religion of Christ. Christ did not bring a religion, He brought here a great Divine Doctrine, which may be applied to the Earth. The new doctrine is for the Earth, and not for Heaven. Christ showed people how they can live, in a Divine way, according to the laws of the material world.

Christ put forward the two principles, i.e. the new and the old humankind, as follows: the intelligent man, who has understood the meaning of life, has built his house on a rock. Rivers and winds came, but could not destroy it. "Rock" here means the firm principles of living nature. And the unintelligent man, who had not understood the meaning of life, built his house on sand, but rivers, storms and winds came and destroyed it. The rivers and storms are those people, who live without principles. They cause the perturbations in social life, they destroy the house, built on sandy foundations. There two cultures

– the old and the new – lie on two principles. The modern old humanity still serves its egoism and therefore there can be no brotherhood. And the New Mankind serves altruism. Egoism is destined to become a servant of mankind.

We are in the latest stage of this culture. All the peoples, all men, in whom consciousness have been awoken, are put to an internal spiritual examination. And everybody, who has Love in his soul, will have peace in himself, he won't be disturbed by the conditions, but will find himself in the great Providence of God.

Now we are in the age, of which the Revelation speaks that people were given white clothes to wear, and they asked: "For how long, oh Lord?" And the reply was: "Just a little more". There is no other solution for mankind, but to accept the new. To remove all borders and the federation to come. And this will happen. There will be an European federation, and then all peoples will be free.

And now, because the liberation of the Earth has started, strong and healthy people are needed, full of ideals and moral principles. Life will not be as peaceful as some think. Why? Because a new culture is coming. And when a new culture is coming in this world, all the fertile fields must be ploughed, the entire Earth will be overturned.

A person must be remorseless in his understanding, to completely avoid any error or sin, to be completely, utterly purified. Reveal every error you make, then your life will be joyful and happy. Then, if already aged, a person will get younger.

Now you are required to do a series of tests, to be tempered, to make new people, new types of yourselves. How can you create new types of yourselves? The more meaning there is in a person's life, the easier it is for him to reform his entire organism, both physically and mentally. If the ordinary man is inspired by an ordinary idea, how much more the spiritual man, serving God, can be inspired by a great idea.! Thus inspired, he will every day add a stone over stone of the Divine Building, to the great structure of Being.

In these last days God is finally coming! Blessed are those who are found by Him, while following His will. The law of the dharma will start, of benediction, of eternal life. All the contemporary miseries, which surround you, will melt away.

So you'll find yourselves in a new life, with new friends, with new mothers and fathers – this means that the attitudes of people towards you will change.

The force in the world comes from the anointed. Believe that you are also anointed, but after believing, don't back out. There is a danger for the anointed - that after believing that they are anointed, these people may rise, get conceited, and thus dry out. Do you know what is the diagnosis, which can show you that a person is anointed? The anointed assumes the lowest status. If one assumes the lowest status, then he is the anointed. Why? Because whoever assumes the lowest position, he may ascend to the highest. Who can go down to the bottom, can also go up to the top. This is a strong person. Strong is he, who can go down and lift the load. He is not afraid of anything, he is a person who can fight. And Christ says: "I am anointed".

That is why it is necessary that spiritual people have clear minds, nothing in the world can take them out of the rails. Whatever happens, they should remain at ease. They should know that in the world there is a law of eternal harmony, which cannot be broken. What God has decided to do, no one can change. Thousands of years may pass, Lord's Ways cannot be changed, but what He has designed, will happen, however this will happen with a lot of elbowing. Now it's time to not worry what will happen. There have been no better days than these. Everything that has happened in the past, cannot be compared to the current situation. The entire world, I see, is full of angels, saints come from heaven. They say: "What will happen to us?" Slime will flow out, clear water is coming. I see evil already tied-up.

So, if people today are dissatisfied with themselves, the reason for that is due to the fact that a lot of the heavenly springs are closed for them and they cannot use them. Many of the energies, necessary for the recreation of their thoughts and feelings, do not reach their hearts and minds. Why is that? They have interrupted these communications themselves, and now they must work strenuously to restore them.

Is yoke I life necessary? In the current living conditions, yoke is necessary. To guide man to ordeal, labor and work. As long as the contemporary man has penetrated deep into matter and connected to it, he is suffering, until he breaks these connections. After that he starts working and finally his life makes sense. After man has perceived the meaning of his life, he starts working. The chicken also suffers, while in the egg. When the time comes for it to hatch, it starts banging on the shell, until it penetrates it and goes out and is free. In the free world there's also yoke, but chicken works hard now to provide its sustenance. All the people are locked in shells, from which they must escape. Until a person does not feel it, he stays in his shell quiet and at ease. As soon as it becomes a burden, he tries to break it and get out. It is important to comply with the moment of breaking the shell. Should one break it too early he will either die or manage to get out, but too feeble and incapable of independent life. Be sure to break your shells on time. This moment in life is called acquiring freedom, entering the new life. Alchemists refer to that as acquiring the philosopher's stone, and in the Gospel it is called the entry of man into the Kingdom of God.

The spiritual man is needed by people, so far as he gives them direction in life, push them towards the Great Source. Today, among all peoples and societies, new people appear, with new and bright ideas, which drive humankind forward. These people can be met everywhere: in America, England, Germany, France, China, Japan, Russia, Bulgaria etc. They carry a new moral, new understandings, which serve as a unit, condition, for attracting to Earth all the energies, which come from the spiritual world.

There already are new people, types of the new generation, who were born in America. There are already people of the new generation in France, Germany, England, but mostly in America. These people differ physiologically from the others.

People want to set the world straight. However this is the idea of the Great, who stands behind them. How will that be accomplished in practice? When will the world be set straight? A person must know, after coming into this world, what is his purpose. Does he live for himself or for humankind? He must live both for himself and for the others, but without becoming a slave of the strong of the day. The social conditions make you work for the general good. It is my understanding that there is one intelligent center in the world. A center of intelligent beings, who exist and who always think the best for people. No one knows where's the place of that center is, how near or how far. Near or far – it depends on what ideas does a man use. If you measure that with human ideas, the centre is far away. If you measure it with the ideas of advanced beings, then the centre is near. If you say to an ant that there is one world, that there are people, who wrote books, have churches schools, universities, priests, bishops, who preach a doctrine – the ants do not even have a notion of that. They say: we've been everywhere around the world and so no universities. They walked up and down these big people, but have found nothing. If we apply the ideas of ants, we are too far from that center. A person knows that he is close to the ants, but the ants do not know that they are close to a person.

Now you can ask me this question: "What's the use for us, if there is such a center in the world?" Imagine that I am capable of talking to the ants in their language and I tell them: “Listen, the Kingdom of God has come on Earth. If you stay, where you are, a great catastrophe will happen. If all of you listen to me and adopt this knowledge, you will be released and take this blessing. If you don’t listen, everything will be destroyed and you’ll be out of the anthill.” This cataclysm is coming to the world; well it’s not a cataclysm, but a radical transformation that is coming. Those, who created the Earth, those who created the solar system, have decided to transform the universe. The entire solar system passes into a new phase. The old life on Earth is incompatible with the new one. All the people will participate in this transformation. There will be not a single impassive person. All creatures are being organized and prepared for that. A radical change is coming.

When a person is in unison with the laws of nature, with all catastrophes, that are about to come, he will be warned. He will be whispered from within to go out, at least 10-20 meters away from his house. Why and for what reason does he have to go out, he will not know and should not ask. He must get out and stand calm, to see what is going to happen. It won’t be ten minutes and the Earth will be shaken. That is why a person always has to listen to his internal voice and obey its instructions.

Times of trial are coming, when a person has to stay awake. Is he not awake, he will fall under external influences, which will entangle him, will leave him suffering. If someone is told to stay aside, or not to board a steamship, or to get out of his house, he must listen to that. If he does not listen, nothing can excuse him. Whatever times are coming, don’t be afraid – you will become more intelligent, will get closer to one another. The common distress and trials bring people closer together. It is said in the Scripture: “Not a single hair will fall from the heads of those who love the Lord”. It is also said that, through the elected, the days of sorrow and trials will be shortened. In order to be among the elected, you must express your goodness and intelligence. Be good and intelligent, if you want to blossom, to set and ripen.

You can live in a high house of several floors, but should you live properly, should you act according to God's Will, the earthquake will pass you by, but your house will not be demolished. Many houses around you will crumble and fall, but if the angle has put his hand on upon your house, it will remain strong, intact, standing like a rock among the ruins. What would the scholars say to that? I say: a righteous person lives there! If he is among the ten righteous people, his house won't be affected a bit.

Space is full of God's Warriors. If you look up, you'll see warriors with unsheathed swords, with raised flags, battle chariots. Everybody there is sharpening their swords and looking at the Earth, looking for righteous and good people in the world. If they do not find what they are looking for, they will charge, engage in battle, shouting: "End to all injustices!" Order and rules are needed in the world. For if one had certain beliefs, another one – other beliefs – they would stop to nothing. A holy idea must fill the minds and hearts of all people: to impose order and control in the world, to apply God's Love, so that all people embrace like brothers, like sons of one Father. If this does not happen voluntarily, it will be forced upon them. It is time to put the world in God's order.

Righteous people are demanded today, and not just ten, but hundreds and thousands. The righteous, good and intelligent will save the world from the earthquakes and the strokes of fate. Be prepared to look at God, your Father with Love. Christ says "Blessed is that servant, whom the Lord finds doing what He has commanded". This means that you must be wide awake to greet the new day, the new life that is coming to the world

Here's what I say: important times are coming for mankind, when people must not dishearten. More important times than these now, have never come to the Earth. The times, we are now going through, are great also in their ideas. Many beings of the invisible world would give millions to go be present in these times on Earth, but they are not allowed to. All the tickets for the performance, which is going to take place on Earth, have already been sold. Many angels knock, they want to come to this performance, which will take place, but there are no more seats. Therefore, these people, who are dissatisfied of their lives, should sell their tickets to some of the mentioned angels, so that they can come to the Earth, and the dissatisfied people should go up.

What I am saying is a great truth. Now it's time for everybody to show that he is a man. Whether you are Bulgarian, English, American, German – this does not matter, the times are the same for everybody. What matters is that you should use the good living conditions.

The Scripture says: “Everybody will be taught by our Lord“. When will this happen? In the last days of the century. We are at the end of the century, in an important age. We are passing through such experiences, which the past generations never knew.

Modern people live in exceptional times. The Resurrection, of which it is spoken in the Scripture, happens now as well. Now the world is being judged, and the death will be resurrected, they will face judgment by the Lord. Fate comes in various ways: through earthquakes, through wars, through sickness, through distress. God says to Israel: “Seek me, while I'm close“. This means – seek God, while your hearth is not yet hardened, while your mind is not darkened. If this happens, cataclysms and catastrophes will come upon the world. This is the beginning of the trials, which will not pass soon. The Earth will shake, it will bend, until the new is created. A new world is being created now. Don't be afraid, but trust God, and say, like the psalm singer: “ A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you”.

Work on your minds and hearts, so that you are among those righteous, good and intelligent people, for who the advanced and elevated brothers are always ready to go into battle. You will work for the wellbeing of your soul, but also for the wellbeing of your fellow-men, and others will fight for you.

When the angels come to Sodom and Gomorrah to destroy these cities, Abraham asked them: “If there be ten righteous people in Sodom and Gomorrah, will you destroy the cities?” The angels answered: “No, we won’t destroy them”. However among the people of Sodom and Gomorrah there weren’t even ten that were righteous, and that is why the punishment was imposed on them.

I want there to be at least ten righteous people among you, so that the world is not punished. If it is impossible to completely avoid the punishment, than it would at least be mitigated.

Christ says: “Be wide awake!” For what? Now it’s the most dangerous time, you may fall asleep and be left outside. The divine train is so punctual that you can only be late by one second. Therefore your minds, tour souls and brains should remain awake.

I gathered you in this school, so that you are prepared for apostles of the future ages. All of you will preach the ideas of the sixth race. These ideas are embedded in the talks and lectures that I shared with you. Therefore you must study carefully the lectures. They will give you abilities, strengths and working conditions.

From the depths of the subconscious life, now a person gradually elevates to a higher conscious life, and this through the self-sacrifice, by which one shows that the a super-conscious life starts to emerge in him – i.e. the expression of the Divine. This is the new type of man, this is the new race that is coming.

Contemporary people fight for a great cause – for the coming of Love. Whether they fully realize that, this is another question. For if the war is fought for Love, there should be sacrifices. Many sacrifices have been made so far, just a little more are to be made. When the final sacrifice is made, the Kingdom of God will come on Earth. And now we, the modern people, who are already at the threshold of the Kingdom of God, are we going to refuse to make the last sacrifices? Now the smallest sacrifices are required. Are we going to refuse to make these smallest sacrifices?

And so, everybody must be ready for the smallest of sacrifices. That is why you must pray, be strong and withstand the final battle. The collective, heartfelt prayer requires that all the people eliminate any misunderstandings and conflicts between them.

Connect with Love, make a permanent connection with it, so that you are relieved of all internal and external discord in life. As soon as you connect with Love, you should know that Wisdom and Truth will come alone.

Now Love of God is needed, the salvation of man is in it. There's no other means, there's no other powerful force, which can drive people. The world cannot improve mechanically.

The weapon is human will, the weapon is human mind, these are powerful weapons, with which man can fight wars. A person becomes a soldier, only when he starts using the weapon of Love. It is the most powerful weapon. A long time will pass, until you are given the weapon of Love.

Here we will apply the Divine Doctrine individually. For us life has another meaning. We are preparing for a world, which has nothing to do with this modern world. We are preparing for a culture, the roots of which are not here on Earth. One day, the entire mankind will completely abandon this Earth. The scholars say that this Earth will be transferred to another planet, which is now being formed in space, and there this intelligent, new culture will start. And Christ hints to his disciples: "I will go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.” If that place was here on Earth, Christ would not tell you: I will go to prepare a place for you. Now all the religious people teach a doctrine that the Earth is to be set straight. Nobody can set it straight. It will go on like this.

When we say that “the Sun will not set”, we mean the elevated Divine World, where the Sun actually does not set. The Sun that does not set, belongs to the human soul. So the soul has its own sun. We review the soul as the true man. Should anybody want to know what man really is, he should consider the soul. The external appearance of man that we see, is not the self, it is a servant of the true man, of soul.

If you say “I am”, to something like the Earth or a solar system! You say “I am!” and can do nothing. Some say: “Do you know who I am, and what I can do!” You are a self that can do nothing. This should not make you loose your heart. A person should start with the negative side of life, in order to understand the great laws, which are contained in him. One day, when he is united with his soul and says “I”, he will be able to create entire systems. And then a person won’t create his own systems among the existing ones, to violate the law and order in them, but he will be put in an empty space, so that he creates there, according to his understandings. In the Universe there are still a lot of empty, uninhabited spaces, which one will have to be filled and inhabited. If a person comes to a point, where he unites with his soul, he will be given the opportunity to create.

You will ask: “Can God give man power and strength to create worlds and systems?” Yes, it is possible, because anyway the world, where we now live, was created by angels.

The Scripture says that man is a stranger on Earth. It is not known how much time he will remain here. It is thus perceived that all these material worlds, which exist, form a single whole. The entire universe, the entire material world forms a single whole. It is one earth. Where there's life, it is one earth, an inhabited earth. He, who understands, thus perceives it, and who does not understand, thinks that only our Earth is inhabited. A great mind is required, to understand the relation that exists.

THE WHITE BROTHERHOOD AND THE BLACK LODGE

In the world, when man appeared, two schools were started by the most educated people of the human race. They were divided, according to their conceptions of light and darkness. One of the groups claimed that life can be maintained better in by light. The others claimed the opposite: that in darkness human life can develop better. Those, the supporters of darkness, said that light may be used for a small and narrow circle. Light should never be given to everybody. They argued, proving that when a person sleeps, he should sleep in darkness. And as the Earth turned, there would have to be darkness. So they divided into two lodges: black and white brothers, with directly opposite views. The first argued that a person had to confine himself in a dungeon – this was their doctrine. The others said that a person must have complete freedom, which was to be used, according to his discretion. Therefore there are two types of people: one who walks along the righteous path of light, and the others who walk on the path of darkness. These are two views of life. You want to be an enemy – this is the path of darkness. You want to be a saint – this is the path of light. You want to have knowledge and use it for yourself – you are on the path of darkness. You want to work for the good of your fellow men – now you are on the path of light. You've been to the other world, you carry some goods from that world and want to keep only for yourself – you walk on the path of darkness.

By “angel” I mean a rational being, close to man, who takes care of him, carries him in his feelings and thoughts. Angels are the predecessors to the current race. They are the elder brothers of humanity, who lived a long time before humanity, in an old culture. A fight for domination started among the angels. Some of them got out of that fight successfully and created the solar system, the entire outside world, the outside nature. Other angels came to the Earth, mixed with people, married them and forgot their origin. They still live among people. A third category of angels, without ever forgetting their origin, sacrificed themselves for mankind, in order to save it. More than a million of angels entered here among people in human culture. If they had not sacrificed themselves, the problem with mankind would have been solved. They came voluntarily to save mankind. Christ came with them to help people.

If you go to the superior worlds as tourists, you will be amazed by the music, which exists there. In the worlds, outside the solar system, there is great musicality. Scholars and philosophers, referring to sin, say that it is a general phenomena, not only for people on Earth, but also for all the creatures and beings in the universe. No, sin is an exceptional phenomenon, a feature of people on Earth only. In other solar systems there's not a sign of sin.

You should know this one thing: people are the reason for the fall of angels, they gave way to the spirits inside them. The idea of fallen angels, was made up by people. The existence of a Devil in the world, fighting God, was also made up by people. On Earth there are only underdeveloped human souls. They have created hell. They are called devils. Other souls, who are developing well, are called angels. They have created heaven. The underdeveloped human souls are nothing but fallen angels and archangels, who do harm to one another. Whoever listens to me talking like this, may say that this is an heretic doctrine. Is it an orthodox doctrine to believe that there are fallen angels? I'd say there are advanced angels, servants of God. "Angel" is the Greek for "servant". Whoever does not look at angels as servants, says that it is a special, superior, advanced being. If it was so, how would it be possible for such a being to wish to go down to Earth and to fall? How it is possible that the angel falls and alienates from God? While he is with God, the angle does not know suffering. As soon as he deviates from Him, the angel starts suffering. You can say that suffering is the result of man's deviation from the right path. I believe the suffering is the necessary way for human development. A day will come, when sufferings and obstacles in human life will disappear. Currently they are necessary for the Earth, but not for the Solar system.

White Mages in the White Occult School use warmth against hatred, while black mages used chill to counteract love. The White Mages use warmth to increase love, and the Black ones use chill to increase hatred. If you ask me, why doe we have this cold winters, here's what I'll say: these two lodges – the black and the white, act in nature. And according to that law, those of you, who observed what the weather was like, during the war between the Central Powers and the Allies, probably noticed the following result: whenever the Central Powers were winning, the weather was always cold, and when the Allies were winning, the weather was warm. And then, from a purely occult point of view, we can make the conclusion that the white occult lodge was supporting the Allies, and the black – the Central Powers. Whether they know that or not, is another question. Upon the signing of the peace treaty, the black lodge changed its tactics and started acting on the Allies, and the white lodge started acting on the Central Powers – they changed their riles. I'm just mentioning this fact by the way. The situation in which you are in a given moment, when you support a certain idea, may be supported by either the white or the black lodge. Should you want to educate yourselves, the first thing to do is to determine where the ideas that you have and that excite you, come from. Someone will say: I believe in this and that. But this is not enough to save you. Stupid people also believe. When you give something to a stupid person, say 100 napoleons, he is ready to take them immediately, saying: "I will give you back 150", although he can then lose everything.

In Nature, outside of us, there are forces, which are malevolently predisposed, towards us, towards human development. A person can deal with these forces, if he knows the laws.

What your disposition towards the spiritual is, this is the disposition of all the forces, acting in Nature, towards you.

The current struggles on the Earth reflect the war, which is raging in the invisible world between the White and the Black Lodge. But the White Lodge will win. The Good will win. The dark spirits will be tied-down and sent into the abyss. The humankind is now living in the most important age. Rejoice that you live in such time and participate in building the new.

If God has promised that He will save his loved once, one day the Earth will be conquered and He will give it to His chosen ones. Now the Earth is in alien hands.

8 thousand years ago in heaven there were great battles between Adam and the evil, i.e. between the White Brotherhood and the Black Lodge. Then Adam was defeated and Eva became a concubine. Now the first man will win. The old woman is now concluding contracts with all the nations and people. That is why the first woman has to come, the woman made in God's likeness, and not the current one, made from Adam's rib.

Now a war between the black and the white is raging. In the past there was a great war, when the black lodge defeated the White Lodge – this is the fall of mankind. Now the White Lodge is going to tide the black loge down. The black spirits are very wily.

The current war is due to the Eastern Brotherhoods, who pushed the European peoples into war, so that they can release their peoples from European oppression. But these are methods of the Black Lodge of these Eastern brotherhoods. Now the fight is between these two lodges – the White and the Black Lodges. The adepts of the Eastern peoples are the reason for stirring-up the war between European peoples. They act through the methods of the Black Lodge – through suggestion. They caused the clash of interests of the Europeans and initiated the war, so that the Europeans are exhausted. Now blood is being shed. The invisible world will impose contributions for the Russian and German blood shed.

If Germany wins the war, then violence will have won it, if England wins – hypocrisy and lie would have won. However, God will choose the nation, which will transmit God's decisions, to be God's Whip. And you will soon find out, which this nation is. The faith of the Invisible World in Bulgaria, must be justified by a reasonable policy of the Bulgarians and by keeping strict neutrality. Because this war is spiritual. It takes place in the spiritual world. The spirits of darkness and the spirits of light have gone to battle. The Light Spirits want light to be for everybody, and everybody to receive just a part of darkness. And the Dark Forces want the opposite – darkness to be for everybody, and everybody to receive just a portion of light. But both lodges, both camps do not know that darkness cannot operate without light on Earth. Because principles release, laws limit, and facts compel. This is a war of spirits. Spirits fight, using men, societies and peoples, entering among them and possessing them and making them tools and machines for elimination of the world karma.

The Black must be removed from power, so that the White Brotherhood comes. Christ will come to rule and the world will be elevated. The Black Lodge will go down under Earth's crust. There is an entire world there, where they can live. Future is great! The beings of the black lodge have not suffered, but from now on they will suffer. Earth's laws do not apply to them, but there is another law, which fully applies to them.

The Black Lodge wants to destroy the current culture and to force people to start everything over again. Should this happen, the mankind will go to sleep for thousands of years, and then start all over. The White Lodge does not want to destroy current culture and put human consciousness to sleep – it wants it to be enlightened. Now is the time of the great battle between the black and the White Lodge. The horseman on the white horse is now coming to chain the dragon, so that God's Will is ascertained.

Darkness has evolved from the world of the dark beings, and light – from the world of light beings. The entire mankind is under the constant influence of both types of beings. The light beings have completed their evolution and now they maintain the world, come down to the Earth from the high worlds, in order to help us. They give great sacrifices, because they understand God's laws. The dark forces want to enslave man, to reverse his development, because if they do not do that, it will be impossible for them to incarnate, and they want, through incarnation in people, to ensure the necessary conditions to improve their positions.

Christ is one of the most elevated spirits. He came down to give instructions and turn the wheel of human evolution, to give light to people, so that they walk forward, to show them the way to human salvation.

Now, the astral world is free of dark forces and today the physical world is also being relieved of them. The knowledge dark forces have, have been stolen from the beings of light. The knowledge of the light beings, however, increases, and the knowledge of the dark forces – does not, and that is why they are limited. You know, the Revelation mentions the woman, who has given birth to a child, which was taken away and hidden, because it was chased by the serpent. The serpent symbolizes the dark forces, which will be tied-down in Earth's nucleus and expelled from the physical world. When the woman was tempted by the dark forces in heaven, they stole from her God's knowledge, because she was the daughter of God. However the woman saved that child, so that a liquidation now takes place, the dark forces are being tied down.

When Christ was here on Earth, the Satan was in the Astral world, and now it is the opposite: Satan is on Earth, and Christ is in the astral world, as the downfall of Satan will be greater than any other time.

The kingdom of dark forces is going away, the power is being transferred from their hands into those of others. The astral world has already been purged, the dark forces will back away and go underground and the Earth will be purged as well. The bad thing is that we have brought heaven and hell here on Earth and we're now experiencing both hell, with all of its fire and horror, and heaven, with all of its beauties, because it is pleasing for us.

Now is the time for the Black Lodge to retract and the White Lodge to achieve dominance. We've been sent to the Earth, to glorify the Name of God.

And those light brothers are descending here now. They will use these two exclusions – the exclusion of the Sun and of the Earth, and a new miracle will happen, which the Scripture refers to the Down of a new Heaven and New Earth – the New Mankind. Here's what I say: we put a cross to the old mankind, may Lord forgive it and in the future we will live according to the laws of the new Earth, the New Mankind. This is what the brotherhood wants.

Evil will now be tied down in the world. This age is referred to as "tying evil down", putting the world in order. We should start with the new capabilities. Those who do not want that will remain in another age.

The Christian world is Jerusalem. Today the entire world is under siege, the advanced beings of the invisible world have descended to the Earth and occupied it. Their plan will be fulfilled. A person has to believe in the plan, which believes and has already been developed up in Heaven. The Army of Heaven is now here and it has occupied the Earth. What will happen is not what one or another wants, but what has already been decided by the White Brothers. Neither this or that country will be victorious, the victory will be of the plan of the White Brotherhood. There is no force, which can oppose the Ecumenical White Brotherhood.

In the world, there is a victory, which nobody has managed to violate: the world is free. People on Earth think that they can do something. People on Earth are servants. Those who govern the Earth, who have come and besieged the entire Earth, they will set the Earth straight. If your eyes are open, you will see that the entire Earth is besieged by those, who have come. All the people on Earth will fulfill their will. They say: "There will be peace on Earth!" The loving ones will inherit the Earth, the lovers of truth will inherit the Earth, everybody who has virtues will inherit the Earth. This is the flag, which will be waving all around the world. Blessed are all those peoples, who serve God's Virtues – the Earth will be theirs.

Bulgarians still cannot be convinced of the power of God, but they will. They will be convinced that there are other laws, which guide things. Bulgarians will be summoned to trial. From now on Bulgarians will be in a tight place. Bulgarians are materialistic. Why Bulgarians refuse the council, there are other reasons, other beings are the reasons for Bulgarians not to accept the council. The reasons are in the nation of the Black Brotherhood. The entire Black Brotherhood is being brought to trial, because it also has other criminal deeds. They crucified Christ, killed the saints etc. And they will be put to trial. Any power will be taken from them, their heaven and their earth. The White Brothers will come with a new Heaven and a new Earth. Now the world is being put to trial. Everybody will go to his place.

Thank God that you are closer now to awakening and adoption of the new consciousness, than you were 2 thousand years ago.

From human perspective 2 thousand years are a long time, but in God's eyes these are only two Divine days. And on the third day Christ will return. What will be different in Christ coming to this world, or to put it in other words: what will be different in God's coming, manifestation in the current conditions? The current manifestation of God is specific. The current manifestation will be the glorification of the Sons of God on Earth, or to say that in modern language, this will be the fraternization of all people. (...) Everybody wants a fraternization in economic aspect, unification of all conditions.

We are people of the new life. In the old life our feet were tied, and now they are untied, our eyes, ears, nose, were all closed, and now they are opened. The Earth exists the thirteenth sphere, exits the dense matter. All the educated beings of the Ecumenical White Brotherhood are mobilized and are preparing the new culture. The White Brotherhood will turn everything into good.

Today the great Teachers of the past do the hardest work: Hermes, Orpheus, Buddha, Moses, Christ himself and the apostles. Now the times are so favorable for spiritual achievements that for one year you can gain what earlier it used to take a hundred or even a thousand years.

“A Holy Spirit will teach you everything.” A “Holy Spirit” means all the light, elevated spirits, who form a whole with Christ. In this sense Christ is a collective being.

Christ is a collective mind, Christ exists as a single separate being, but at the same time Christ is a collective mind. Christ was not only the Son of God, we should not seek him in unity only, the name of Christ is not only singular. Christ is all the Sons of God, from the hearts and souls of whom life and Love radiates.

Christ says: “Trust in God and trust in Me!” By “Me” Christ means those intelligent brothers, who live in us through their thoughts. Note the following fact: when we have to perform something great in the world, there will always be this internal struggle in us, various thoughts will come to us. Somebody inside of you will give you a certain advice, others will give you a different advice, third people will give you a completely different advice. They will come one after another to advise you what to do. This struggle will continue for several days, sometimes more, until you finally decide to do one thing or another. Finally God will say to you: “Choose the best and act according to your choice”.

The better you know Christ, the more meaning your lives will have. It is not a matter only of getting to know Christ, but also all the beings, connected with Him. 144 thousand more souls are connected with Christ, they have completed their development on Earth. In this sense, Christ is a collective being. You also should participate in this choir of elevated beings.

Some may say that these 144 thousand souls are up in Heaven. No these people are now here on Earth, they have already come to the Earth and have incarnated among the educated people. Some of them are writers, poets, others – scientists, and all of them push mankind towards the new idea, towards the Divine. They are enemies of that darkness, of those chains, confining mankind. And this unrest, this great coup, which is now coming, is caused by them, they will turn this world upside-down. Do not consider that a bad sign. Whenever somebody swallows too much water and chokes, the Bulgarians have this habit of turning him upside-down so that he can vomit the swallowed water. And the modern cultural people have swallowed a lot of unclean water, and therefore they have to be turned upside-down, so that the water can flow out. After everything unclean flows out, you will be once again turned upside-up and start the new life.

In Chapter 20 of the Revelation, verses 1–2 it is said: “And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key to the Abyss and holding in his hand a great chain. He seized the dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the devil, or Satan, and bound him for a thousand years.” Many religious and educated people believe what is written in that chapter, corresponds (in terms of time and events) to the 20th century.

Today the world is governed by Lucifer. The Angel, however, knows the laws of Heaven and Earth, and that is why he catches Lucifer and binds him with a chain for a thousand years. He, however, does not stand still: he kicks, breaks the plates, tears down the Earth. Thus the earthquake in Bulgaria shows that the devil is being bound.

The world is going to be set straight in one way or another. How? God comes to set the world straight, but He will set it straight, not according to our ways, but to His. Today all the higher supreme beings assist God in setting the world straight.

In the current life of the cosmos, more intelligent beings have entered, than those who used to be there before. And we, because we know the laws, we have our own perceptions of the Earth. Our Earth travels through space as a large steamship at a great speed, with a motion that we can't feel. During this trip in time, we come into contact with other solar systems, which, in their development, are in a much higher stage of intelligence, than all the solar systems, which we have passed so far. That is why we truly say that the Earth will change, as well as the entire Solar System and it will reach a higher development level. Why? Because it is connected to greater forces, which act in these suns, that are invisible for us. You would ask: where are these suns? You can't see them from this parlor, of course. This requires certain time and special tools. So as for Sun's light to come to our Earth, some time is needed, thus in order to come in touch with these superior beings, it will take some time and certain conditions have to be present. Sun's light reaches the Earth in 8 minutes. This is a nice little walk. If a being on the Sun, with great intelligence, decides to go for a walk to the Earth, it will take him just 8 minutes, and what time do you need to go to the Sun?

Outside of us there is a society, consisting of 101 million of the most enlightened beings, who have completed their evolution, the most perfect beings, who think day and night about the elevation of humankind. They have put in motion their thought and one they it will be fulfilled. Today the entire cultural world is under their influence. These perturbations, happening now, are the result of their thought, which will be fulfilled, and that thought affects everything. It is easier to stop Earth's motion, than to stop their thought. The world will be set straight and one day people will start living like brothers. This cruelty, which now exists, will disappear. The world is set straight for all the wise people.

In the age that is about to come, in the world, God's Love will be revealed. The manifestation of the Sons of Light is nothing but a manifestation of God's Love. They are coming now to manifest Love, to renovate mankind. Give way to the good in you, so that you connect to the rational beings, which want to help you. When the brothers of Love descend here, all people will understand each other and talk a common language. They are already on their way, the new life is coming.

CONNECTIONS WITH THE INVISIBLE WORLD

Man, on his own, is a drop in the entire cosmic world. If another intelligence does not come after him, to support his activity, he can do nothing. The entire world is an aggregate of a number of intelligent beings. Whether you know them or not, the result, that can now be observed in the world – the entire solar system, the entire universe – this is the work of intelligent beings, who had been building for billions of years even before our world event existed, and have created this world that we now see. All of us want to be independent from their activities and we say: “We will arrange the world, as we want!” Everything can be done, but to arrange the world, as we want – this is impossible.

There are other factors, but we are not the factors. We, humans, are the last of all factors. This is what we need to understand. The sooner we understand it, the better. You may say: “We must become the masters of nature and transform it “. And you think that the Lord will let you transform nature! Can a child climb up the back of its mother and start ordering her what to do? Have you seen what nature is? It is a mother. I have never seen more beautiful, more powerful, more serious woman than nature. If you gather all the philosophers, who lived on Earth in the past 8 thousand years, they can't even make up for one of nature's fingers. And they want to be its masters.

There are three conditions, three factors in the world: one is the physical factor. It is the physical world, the nature of man. The other is the so-called spiritual world – the world of feelings, or of human heart. I believe that there the soft conditions of life are. The third condition is in the mental world. A person can improve his condition only if his will is in conformity with the physical world, his heart is in conformity with the spiritual world, and his mind – with the Divine world. Whenever one speaks of these three great worlds, we understand that they are inhabited with the most intelligent beings. When I speak of the Earth, I do not mean the plants and animals, or even the regular mankind. The physical world itself is inhabited by beings, which we cannot see. Compared to these beings, we are like ants. They have such a power that, should they want, they can eliminate us, but since they are wealthy, they say: “Let’s leave this poor ones live among us!” So we wage wars to conquer the Earth, trying to transform it, and thinking that this does not affect these creatures. I don’t know of a nation, which has managed to conquer the Earth so far. The Earth is given to the whole mankind.

God placed Adam in heaven as a regular stock-keeper. Then he failed the examination and was expelled from heaven. The first man, of whom I am, now speaking – made in the likeness of God, he was given to inherit the Earth and rule it – and his eyes are wide open! Contemporary people should be interested in him. They want to know if there is a spiritual world. I am talking about a great human race, the true people, which you have to meet. Now you may ask me, where they are. They are exactly where you are. If you ask me where the feathers of a chicken are, I’ll tell you, they are in the egg. If you ask me, where the heart of a chicken is, I’ll tell you it’s in the egg. Or where its stomach is? Once again, I’ll tell you it’s in the egg. Everything is inside. What about the chicken? It is also inside. But when you put an egg under the hen, the chicken becomes the full master.

When Love fills us, our eyes will open. The curtain will lift in the moment, when you start loving God and all creatures.

The great law, ruling in the rational nature is, as follows: the higher lend a hand to the lower, so that these are elevated. Man cannot achieve anything without the support of the intelligent world.

With Love, man becomes receptive of the help coming from above.

To be sons of God – this means to feel the impulse of the entire universe, its entire beauty, all that is elevated and noble in the world.

The more intelligent beings enter the circle of your Love, the bigger intelligence and goodness you'll have. They are the flows of life.

When a person feels something, he must know if what he feels is in accordance with the feelings of the reasonable beings, adjusted in the same chord, as him. The intelligent man compares things.

There is one Earth, one society, consisting of 101 million of the most enlightened beings, who have completed their evolution, the most perfect beings, who think day and night about the elevation of humankind. They work, they have put in motion their thought and one they it will be fulfilled. Today the whole of Europe, the entire cultural world is under their influence. These perturbations, happening now, are the result of their thought, which will be fulfilled, and that though affects everything. It is easier to stop Earth's motion, than to stop their thought; it is easier to stop the Sun than to stop their thought, which they will fulfill. The world will be set straight and one day people will start living like brothers, connecting to gather together. This cruelty, which now exists, will disappear. 100, 200, 1 000 years, 2 000 years will pass – this is what I foretell. The world is set straight for all the wise people, the genius people. The one, sitting in water, with his head outside, has nothing to fear. The one, however, who has his head in water, wanting someone to come and save him, for if no one comes, he will remain inside, he's just waiting to drown.

When all people connect to the elevated intelligent world, i.e. when their minds are awakened, this means that the world will be alighted from all sides. All the false theories and doctrines will perish, all the doubts and delusions will disappear and people will be relieved of the black smoke and soot – the effect of the Black Lodge. They will start eating the clean food of the Word, they will breathe fresh, cool air, and drink crystal-clear water, they will enjoy God’s light and the new life, the new science, the new Love, the new Wisdom and Truth. One day, when the hearts of people expand, their minds will be enlightened and their spirits will be strengthened, they will be in a great fellowship with all the perfect beings, as well as with all beings, who have completed their development on Earth.

Do not be afraid of the light spirits! You may be afraid of the incarnated spirits, but not of the non-incarnated spirits, which are particularly pure and holy. The Holy Spirit brings joy to the mother, who is giving birth. Through her child, He introduces her to a new life. The Holy Spirit creates good connections and relations between people. The light spirits help people solve the difficulties and discord in their lives. They call each other brothers and sisters – helpers of mankind. They bring the new culture to the world. It is enough to summon them in the name of the Divine Love, so that they find us. They have rescued and continue to rescue people from troubles and plagues. They are constantly among us, in order to help us. They are our light brothers, who suffered and sacrificed themselves for Christ. Today they sacrifice themselves also for their younger brothers, in order to save them.

“A Holy Spirit will teach you everything.” A “Holy Spirit” means all the light, elevated spirits, who form a whole with Christ. In this sense Christ is a collective being. He says: “The light spirits and angels constantly descend and ascend”.

Only him can be elevated and develop his gifts and capabilities, who has connected to the elevated world, with the Ecumenical White Brotherhood. This connection can transform the simple-minded into a scholar, the plain one – into a genius. The restoration of that connection takes place voluntarily, through Love. When can that happen? When a man truly craves that.

To make this connection conscientiously, this is an awakening of your mind. This is resurrection.

What people call luck, is actually nothing more than a connection to certain intelligent beings, who are rich in their experience, rich in their powers, rich in a lot of things. They can help you and show you the right path. Some call them gods, some call them saints, some call them gifts. Any, they exist.

The providence results from the fact that nature is intelligent, that intelligent forces stand behind all its phenomena. It is not a dead machine, mechanism.

We always have backs – these are the intelligent beings above, who help us and whenever they help, everything happens. The invisible world is so attentive to all our thoughts and feelings, that when sometimes we are sad, they will send us something that would attract our attention and would please us.

You will believe that God lives in all living creatures, you may get help from everybody and from everywhere. Sometimes an angel may come and help you, but so far there are many angels incarnated on Earth, who can always come to help you. It is enough to direct your thoughts towards these angels and they will immediately come and help you. In Sofia there are also many incarnated angels. Not only in Bulgaria, but also in England, in America, in France, in Russia, everywhere there are such angels. Thanks to these angels – servants of God, people can withstand these trials, they are going through. Now the entire world is going through great trials and these angels are coming to help us. The Earth is undergoing a great transformation. Not only the Earth, but also the human heart is going through a great transformation. God is making a new heart in people, inscribing His law on it. He is also making a new mind for people, a new structure, so that the new people can come to this world.

The beauty in life is in that one should know that there is somebody, who thinks of him. There are so many diverse adversities a person goes through! If God wasn't protecting man, he would endure. Our Lord has envisaged everything. The force that has created the entire universe, has never left mankind alone. There is a law, which operates, but not in the way we think it does. There's providence on every step, but people just don't see. Things do not happen with human efforts. Have all the seas, oceans etc. appeared through human efforts? God created the world, so that we are satisfied. People walk in their old ways and do not let God's providence to be manifested.

In nature's kingdoms – mineral, vegetal, animal and human – beings from the various stages of angel's hierarchy manifest themselves. Cherubs, Seraphs etc. manifest themselves through minerals, precious stones. Throughout nature, all classes of the hierarchies have taken participation, so that things are created. They participate in the life and evolution of the entire nature.

Supreme beings work on the evolution of flowers. When you are enjoying a flower and love it, you are already connecting to these beings and they are coming to help you, paying attention to you. The plants in the elevated worlds are rational but in their reincarnation in the physical world, they remain quiet. Their time has come, they are just collecting materials.

The precious stones belong to another world, even superior beings work on them.

In Revelation, chapter 21, 12 gates are mentioned, and all these are made of precious stones: jasper, sapphire, agate, emerald, onyx, ruby, chrysolite, beryl, topaz, chrysoprase, jacinth, amethyst. They symbolize the 12 virtues.

Each precious stone is in constant connection to an advanced being. When this is understood by man, he will see the glory of God.

People always receive gifts: food, vision, teeth, tongue – these are all goods. All of us live through God's goods. There is nothing that can happen to man, of which he is not warned – he is warned of everything. Faith, faith is what is needed, just like in children.

You must let yourself under the influence of the whole nature, of angels, of air, of the entire mankind, and not to let a separate man to moralize you. Do not open up too much, in order not to evaporate and dry out, but also don't close too much, so that you don't get fat.

When someone takes a shower often, the light beings are provided with the necessary conditions to come to him, because one of the conditions for their coming is cleanliness. And that is not any single isolated cleaning, but regular constant cleaning. Be clean! Cleanliness means not to bring monotony to your life. For example, if you say of somebody that his is one thing and another, the next day you'll say the same thing. You must expand the circle of your Love.

I know the Sons of Light and I can describe them to you: they are beautiful, reasonable, they do music, poetry and science. When a Son of Light visits you, you'll be transformed, you'll acquire a new life and feel free citizens of the Kingdom of God. The Sons of Light bring everywhere they go joy and merriment, heal the sick, comfort the suffering, lift the fallen ones. They remove the chains from the hands and feet of prisoners, remove the chains from the minds and souls of those, who have fallen in darkness and delusion. They have an unfaltering faith in God. Where there are Sons of Light – this is God. Do you want to see God, go among the intelligent, good, loving people on Earth, and in Heaven.

We are already entering the position of the sixth race – to communicate conscientiously with angels and saints. The angels and saints are among people. It is enough for a person to become engrossed in himself, to start thinking, so that he connects with them.

Whenever you come upon certain suffering or trial, turn to the Sons of Light. It is enough that you are visited by just one of them, and you'll have real experience. Should you have not connection with the intelligent beings, no matter how much you pray, your prayer won't bring any results.

The advanced elevated beings, the saints and angels, adepts, the Teachers are interested in people to the extent they strive to reach God.

Nobody can appeal for help straight to God. You're going gradually along the hierarchy from one level to another, until you finally reach the Lord, where everything happens instantaneously. The current mankind has come to the border, where Christ is. He has bent over to help mankind do all the work.

The beings in the invisible world, with whom you are going to communicate, won't be just air and wind, but they will be clad in such beautiful clothes, that you have never seen anything similar in your lives. When you go to them, they will accept you in their homes with brotherly Love, such that you can't even imagine.

In the future man will get into a more intimate connection with the advanced perfect beings. Life is guided by intelligent beings, which also come from the human race, but have already completed their development. A man must always maintain his connection with them, then he is in the school of nature. That is the only way he can have access to its knowledge. The man of the sixth race will be in connection with these advanced creatures and they will deliver to him the eternal knowledge in the school of living nature.

Today when a person goes to the other world and returns, he does not remember that, but in the future he will. This common process cannot be accelerated, because many people are late, but everybody by himself can accelerate it. The belated will remain for another wave.

The future will provide opportunities for true communication with the invisible world.

For a man to connect to an intelligent being, this means that he is visited by a light, elevated thought. All the advanced humans talk to the Sons of Light.

The Sons of Light descend among people to bring enlightening and knowledge to their minds, and warmth and Love to their hearts. If they fail to deliver these things, people cannot be elevated and become humans of the new culture. Therefore the Sons of Light are here to renovate the entire mankind. Heaven is a highly organized world of advanced beings, who live in eternity and who constantly create. They have created the entire material world.

First of all an intelligent soul has to come to you, to love you, so that you can feel powerful and free.

For the decimal system – who taught men to use that system? It was left as inheritance from their ancestors. They were the first teachers of mankind. What people now study, was written by their first teachers. Everything, known by the modern science, was bestowed by the first teachers of mankind. The modern scientists make translations of the original works of their ancestors.

A contemporary scientist has been working on a problem for 20 years and finally he discovers something. It is more than natural that he makes the discovery! Thinking intensely on a certain problem, he adjusts his brain so that it is brought to a state, capable of receiving thoughts through suggestion by intelligent beings, who are in the elevated worlds. That scientist has to strain his brain for 20 years, until he makes a connection to the intelligent world. Therefore, through his thought, a person may connect to intelligent centers in the universe and thus receive their thoughts. If the entire mankind can establish a conscientious connection to the elevated world, this will be celebrated as a new age in culture. And in this way man can acquire his thoughts directly from the other world. Some of the consecrated Egyptians acquired their knowledge in precisely that manner. They were put to a magnetic sleep, left their bodies and went high up in space, from where they observed the Earth and its position around the other planets. In this way they checked things, which would be impossible to discover in any theoretical manner.

The contemporary people are facing an even greater future. For them something greater, more beautiful is coming. In order for the new culture to come, people must abandon their ordinary, petty lives. The petty life of a man is nothing but a life of a bug, which now comes out of its hole, now goes back inside. When a straw falls into the hall, it starts climbing up and down that straw, examine it and speculate on how that straw was created. The bug cannot answer the question who has created the straw and how had that happened, but a man may explain that all, because he sees these things. When a new idea gets into the mind of a man, he is in the same position, as the bug with the straw. Each new idea is for him what the straw is for the bug, when it enters bug's hiding place. If doubt finds its way into that man's mind, he will jump out of his hole right away. Why is that? Doubt is not inherent to his soul and confuses him. He wants to release himself of the doubt. As soon as he sees the desire of man for release, the intelligent part of him says: "It is now time for you to get out of your hole". "What should I do?" You should become a bird.

Those of you, who want to solve the great problem, must say to yourself: "Our kingdom is not of this world". The image of this world is going away. Another world comes to this one, with other people, other culture, other rules and order.

THE GRAFT

Now the entire mankind is at the threshold of a great age of changes, which will bring the new. Therefore all people must be careful not to become dejected, not to render their lives meaningless. There can be no better times than these now. All the awakened souls of all four ends of the world must unite, lend each other a hand for joint work – to build the foundations of the new culture, for the coming of the Kingdom of God on Earth. Several million people will come from above, they will make everybody work so that together they can impose rules and order on Earth. After finishing their work, they will leave, and the people on Earth will remain after them to live and work. In this way the communications between the visible and invisible worlds will be restored.

The advanced beings above are waiting to incarnate in those souls, which are ready on Earth.

Some want to convince us that the Lord has created the world as it is, but this is complete failure to understand the laws of evolution. It is not progressive. For a long time, for many years, people have been walking along the wrong path of understanding the laws of living nature. People suffer and they cannot account for their suffering. They attribute that to the material conditions, to the economic conditions; religious people say that faith has disappeared; scholars say that they are ignorant. But there are a number of reasons. So here's what I ask: those, who are coming now, who will built the future system, the future race, can they come out of you? You, as you are now, cannot set your own lives straight, let alone setting the entire world straight. Muddy water cannot clear itself. Pure water must come, to filter the muddy waters. So the people of the sixth race must come out of a more elevated world. They can incarnate on Earth. Some advanced beings, with vast souls, through selflessness, who will sacrifice their entire lives for the good of mankind, for the joy of people. Christ says: "I have not come to take life, but to give my life for you".

Now people are divided into such that will come to the Earth and such that won't. There are sinful people, who will not set their foot here anymore, for many years and very far will they be sent to another place, so that they don't get in the way here. So those, who make noise now, will not be heard of anymore in the future. Those, who are up in the Kingdom of God, are waiting for the proper conditions to occur, so that they come and incarnate here. Just like with a house, that has to be built first, before the new inhabitants come to live in it, in the same way those who were here on Earth a long time ago, and then they went to work in the invisible world, are now coming, incarnating in order to establish justice, rules and order, to stop killing etc. All that will vanish from the face of Earth.

There are a lot of people, who have not incarnated for thousands of years and now the Earth has to be purged, so that they come. The new race will come in very favorable conditions. These beings, which will incarnate, are very advanced and have been waiting for a long time. It is said: "The dragon will be bound for a thousand years". If we interpret that, these are 365 thousand years – for such a long period, people will live in harmony and rest, no one will tempt them.

How would you understand the words in the Scripture: "I will send my Spirit to live in you"? This is the notional, mystic part of the question. Now you want to be born externally – if the Spirit does not come in you and unite with your soul, you want be able to be born. First of all this uniting with the Spirit will take place, and then you will be born externally. If the Spirit does not come from the inside, there is no way you can project yourself externally.

The sixth race will come from Heaven. Heaven is inside of us, in our heads. What we see on the outside – the sky – it is no heaven, it is just a reflection. (...) The world is a reflection of ourselves. Reality is inside, and not outside.

Serve God every minute, every hour, in whatever living conditions you find yourself. If you wait to settle down and set your life in order, and then serve God, you will lose even those favorable conditions that you now have. I'm bringing your minds to this thought, so that you always remember that you are threads, thin as cobweb. If not joined in one single whole, these threads will not withstand the outside winds and storms, the outside forces. A thousand threads, joint together in one whole, form something strong and enduring. If you all live, everybody for himself, if you fail to unite, your strengths will be like that of the cobweb and you will do so much work, as the spider does. If all of you join in one, however, you will do the work assigned to God. God's work is done by many people, and not just by one. Many people are destined to do God's work and they will come! When workers for this world, descend from the invisible world, they look for proper soil, proper conditions. The proper conditions are the people, ready to work. The more ready people, and the more workers on the Earth to do God's Work, the more will come also from the invisible world.

The position, in which modern people find themselves, is similar to that of John the Baptist. He passed from the Old Testament to the New Testament, and we – from the New Testament to the Testament of the Son's of God. By "testament of the Sons of God" some understand the age, when the saints will come to rule the world. The world will be set straight, when God possesses and starts living in all people.

The white race will be the bearer of the sixth race, which will come through possession. Just like a person is seeking a lighted, beautiful, clean lodging, in the same way the light souls will look for proper objects which they will possess. We will be their lodging, we will fall asleep and wake up as other people, with other understandings and desires.

The new culture will rise from the old one. There will be no perishing of the old culture, and the new one will not start from the beginning, as it happened before. In the invisible world, there is a desire to reduce people's suffering, which has become unbearable for the human spirit.

Christ says: "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field...", i.e. the Spirit of Love to do the work. When the workers come, everybody will be strong to fulfill God's Will.

You want to resurrect – you will pass through the narrow door, the door of birth and death. These are two paths, a man has to walk on. This matter cannot be comprehended without that internal process, without that pure notion of things. First you sit and have not a single idea of things. That, which God has created as a woman – what is it? That, which God has created as a man – what is it? You must have an idea that He has made them in His likeness. About the woman, He does not say that she was made in His likeness. But about the first Adam, it is said: he was made in God's likeness – male and female. He made them in the first creation. In the second creation, the man was created, but nothing is said about the woman. The woman was a child at that time. I am not talking about Eve, she became a woman afterwards. She was not prepared for a woman. She is Eve just now. When she appears in the New Mankind, Eve will take her exam. Eva in the New Mankind, which is now coming, will give birth to something good. They will be called people of the Brotherhood. So far, we are from that Eve, who gave birth outside of Heaven – one brother killed the other. Today, among those born of the first Eve, everybody is trying to kill someone else. All the discontent in the world stems from that. There is something of the mother. The new Eve, who is coming to this world, must manifest what was born of God. (...) She is now descending on Earth. The first man that God created, he is also descending to the Earth now. Therefore it is said: the Second Coming, the Resurrection. This Resurrection will be the new birth, in which people will be born in a new manner. They won't be born, as they are now.

In order to reach the new, man has to learn the laws of penetration. There are two ways of penetration: either man has to penetrate God, or God to penetrate man. In the first case man is tempted, and in the second – man is relieved of all delusions.

In the world, there are ready souls and they will come to work. Do you think those, who are around you, will bring you anything? Only the one, who has in himself a large vessel and has filled it with precious unction from the sanctuary of the Temple of God, can bring you something.

Elevated beings are coming to the Earth from the invisible world. They are great masters, who know very well the art of grafting. All people will receive the new graft of Love, and that is why they will not fight with one another anymore in the future.

Advanced creatures are coming from the invisible world – the people of the new Love or the so called predecessors of mankind. These are the workers, coming from above. And as soon as they find souls, ready for work, they will possess them and work through them.

Today thousands of advanced creatures are descending from the invisible world, to help mankind. They are looking for ready souls, through which they can work. Get your minds and hearts ready for them, meet them, so that they visit you and put into you the new culture. Few people are ready to meet these souls. If one of these souls visits you and finds that you are not ready, it will leave you. There is no greater misfortune for you than to be visited by a light soul, and then to be left. This is a catastrophe. A person has to work on himself, to free himself from anything impure so that only bliss remains in him.

An elevated being works in every man to save and elevate him. It corrects and creates in every single moment. Which is that being? Your soul, you angel, the Divine in you – God. The achievement depends on the human spirit. The spirit, this is you. Him, who suffers, this is you, the one who works – this is the intelligent being. You will suffer and wait patiently, until the intelligent being does its work. The sculptor also faces some difficulties. While working on you, he studies you, monitors how well you yield to his work. If you are headstrong, it will be hard for him to deal with you. He works one thing, you work another, he builds, you demolish. Then you wonder why things don't go well. Do not mess with the work of the sculptor! Watch him work, look at the pieces falling one by one from you, but don't try to glue them, where the sculptor took them from.

You are required to ensure you don't break the graft, so that a wild plant does not develop again. Where the graft is preserved, good will manifest itself, where the graft breaks, the person will remain what he was before.

The people that will come, won't be from this world, but they will come from the spiritual world. After the Apostles prayed for a long time, a thousand spirits descended from the invisible world in the form of tongues of fire, possessed them and then these disciples of Christ went to preach. So today those with the tongues of fire will come once again and they will enter those people who are ready. And then in the world there will be such motion, that people have never seen or even imagined. Order will be imposed on the world and people will regain consciousness.

And when these people come from above with that elevated consciousness, they won't establish such laws, as the current ones, but different laws and they will say: "You should not live this way, but another way". And Apostle Paul, who foresaw this thing, says: "We all won't die, but will change". Today's people will change and then a reality will be established. You will wake up one morning and you won't be Ivan, or Peter, or John the Evangelist, or Apostle Peter, but you'll have a new name, which will be given from above – from Heaven.

The most advanced on Earth will connect to souls of the sixth race, who come from above, and thus both connected souls will work in one body. This is the coming of the sixth race.

In the sixth race the Son's of God will be incarnated and a new mankind will start its development. The Son's of God will come and possess the souls that are ready. This is the inflow of the Spirit and it requires simultaneous understanding and application of the Divine Science. After a group of supreme beings possess or incarnate on Earth, an intense building of the new life will start. The fifth race will hand the government to the sixth race, which has never descended so far, and has prepared new forms.

In the future souls will come, which stand in space – in Heaven. Why have I summoned you? You will participate, you'll have a share in the future culture. In the invisible world there are thousands and millions of souls, which are advanced. They will come on Earth and put everything in order. They will tell you: here, this is life. A man, who does not want to work, to serve, will be swept away. You'll see that the people having power, have changed, a change has happened in them – possession has taken place in them. Apostle Paul says: "I do not live, but Christ lives in me". You see that this man is completely different. This is what will happen soon. The great changes will take place in this century. Everybody has to work. This is a preparation. This is now close to us. The entire 20th century will be a century of transformations, of preparations. If you depart now, you'll come again about 1975, because important work is to be done. You'll not stand in space long. All the departed sisters and brothers of yours are all here among us. I see them in the meeting. Everybody comes to the lectures and then goes away. They understand the lectures much better than you do, ten times better. They are the good convention, and you have cuddled among them and, from your point of view, you think they are not here.

The elevated spirits must think much more than us. The possession by the advanced beings has started, but it happens gradually. When a man does not make obstacles, they possess him, like light, and if he makes obstacles, these beings are refracted. When a person feels bliss, this is their presence. It has been determined whom will these light beings possess, everything has been determined.

The predecessors, who are coming to the Earth, will possess the ready souls. Our predecessors did not participate in the fall of man and are such a category of beings, of which it is said: "God created man in His likeness". And the people on Earth are those, of which it is said: "God formed Adam from the dust of the ground". Our predecessors are the bearers of the new, they have never incarnated before, only here and there some incarnation took place, and they had the outer appearance of regular people, but now they will unite with man inside man, like once the human personality united with the animal nature, and this will bring a great Divine culture to the Earth. The advanced souls are now coming to destroy the old idols of people and arrange life.

The first group of advanced beings will possess people in 1945. A big group of light creatures will possess people in 1975, because it is then, that the White Brotherhood will perform an important action for the work of God.

From occult perspective the XXI century starts in 1945, on March 22.

In 1945 we are entering a new age. From that year starts the gradual improvement of human thoughts, feelings and deeds. An improvement of human body also begins. The relations between people will be improved.

I have already said that 8 thousand adepts are coming to this world. Some will be born, some will possess other souls. They are the bearers of the new, of the future, and that future will be imposed on mankind. The future culture will be imposed on people, while they are sleeping, and in the morning they will wake up changed.

8 thousand adepts will be incarnated on Earth by the end of this century. These adepts will give a new direction to the social, religious and family life, as well as to the entire culture. Everything, existing so far will change and a new, correct life will be created, such that they understand and know. They have taken all measures for that reform, with which they will surprise the world. And they will create the New Mankind, such that nobody has expected. The martyrs of the old times are now coming to Earth, some through the law of possession, others through incarnation.

8 thousand illuminates (“enlightened”) will incarnate in the Slavonic world. The Slavonic world provides the necessary conditions for the incarnations of those, who are coming from– the adepts. Whether they are coming through possession or reincarnation, that depends on their development level – it has already started.

The Slavonic world will be the forger of the New Culture. This will be for a start. After that the sixth race will come. Advanced souls will incarnate in all Slavonic peoples. And that has already started.

The change now taking place in Russia, is due to the actions of very advanced beings – brothers of Love, predecessors of humanity, which will possess the Slavonic peoples. They will bring a great spiritual progress. These beings, now descending to the Slavonic world, they bring their uniting and work for their mission.

In various places in Russia, there are scattered people, who work for the spiritual science. These are Adepts, Divine Messengers. New forms of life of the future are being developed now in Russia. It is the creative field for these new forms.

Many philosophers discuss the question, why man has come to Earth, but until now nobody has managed to answer it and nobody will. Thousands of years will pass, but this question will remain unanswered. This question will be answered, when people finish their development on Earth. Until it is still in the water, a fish cannot perceive its position, but once it is out of water, it knows that it was a fish. Therefore, while in its physical form, a man passes through the condition of an animal. One day, when he leaves his physical form, he realizes his situation of a man. He will change his current customs and manners and will pass to a higher life form.

“Will we live another time?” You will, but not in this form, you have now. A long time ago, when you still had horns and tails, again you used to ask: “Are we going to live?” Yes you will – but not in this form - without horns and tails. Now you don’t have horns and tails, and ask once again: “Will we live?” Yes you will. “How? As we do now?” No, you will live as angels. “How is this possible?” It is possible. You will throw away this form, as you once did with the horns and tails. The question is not about the external form, but about the consciousness. Don’t be bothered by the appearance: an Eskimo may wear a fur coat, but on the inside he is not dangerous. He is not a bear, and cannot scare you. You may wear the garment of a bear, but you’re not bears, you only have this appearance. You are an intelligent being, only dressed in bear's furs.

Beings, advanced in their development will be born, will use possession. And we will see that the people, ruling the world, will be different. These advanced beings will rule the world, and you will be their assistants.

Now people are half animals and half human, and in the future, the beings of the sixth race will come and unite with them. Then they both will work together, and the animal will be a mere servant.

When I speak about the sixth race, I mean Love, manifested in the new way, of which this world has only a vague notion. People will then love each other properly. I call the sixth race, the race of brotherhood. Everybody will express Love, everybody will want all to be free. When someone is in debt, when someone is sick, everybody will direct his thoughts towards him and he will be healed. And the world will be set straight, because everybody will express Love. You may say: "Let these times come sooner!" You want to be beholders of the Divine. What if in the one of you is, say – an ear, another – an eye, the third might be a nose, mouth. For everyone of you has to be in his proper place. You will be a mouth, nose, eyes, ears, forehead etc. You want to be given an honorable position. When the advanced souls of the sixth race come, they will ask: "Brother, what do you want to be?" You will become an ear and they will ask you: "Will you let me to listen with your ear; I am be very grateful ". Or they may ask: "Will you let me look through your eye?" As if you are masters, and they are servants. And then they will ask: "Will you have the kindness to let me speak through your mouth?"

You will enter the sixth race as mouths, noses, ears, eyes. This is said allegorically. Or to say it in other words, they will be the teachers, and you will be the students. They will give you certain problems, which you'll have to solve. As I speak that some of you will be ears, this means that you will study, perceive knowledge. To be eyes, means that you will be students, you will study light and its perception. The nose means that you will study the science of those aromas, contained in plants. The mouth means that you will study the nutritional substances.

Where do people go, when they die? When a water drop dies, where does it go? It merges with the others. All people will one day merge. The differences that now exist, will vanish, you will once again return to Heaven and all together will form a single person. Then everything will be in good order. Everybody, who is here now, as well as the entire mankind, will enter this large Man, the Spiritual Man. You will find your places – some in his bones, some in his fingers, some in his spine, in his hairs – and yet there will be enough room for thousands more candidates to live there. Now you may think this strange, but it is so.

I can foretell that many of you will be angels, servants. What will you understand of that? Many of you will be kings after thousands of years. Some say: “I don’t believe that“. I don’t want you to believe. After several thousand of years, should this happen – good, and if it does not – rubbish. By “king“ I mean that after 2 thousand years, you will be free, as a king is free. You’ll be able to do whatever you want, without anybody being able to limit you. Here’s what I say: after a thousand years, you’ll be so beautiful that you’ll attract the attention of the entire world. What’s the symbol of beauty? The most beautiful, the most handsome thing in the world is the Sun. There’s nothing more beautiful than that. Everybody turn their eyes towards it. The sun is the most beautiful.

THE GREAT GLOBAL QUAKE

Today's people are afraid of revolutions. The danger, however, is not in the revolution. They are afraid of the Bolsheviks – but the danger is not in the Bolsheviks, not in the rich or in wars, or in the unbelievers – these are merely toys. A shifting of the Earth is coming, which will make both rich and poor fly in the air. A situation is coming, where rich and poor will be covered by ashes. Not now, but maybe in 10, 20, 30, 40, 50 or even more years, this situation will arise. I'm not trying to scare you, but I'm just saying what will come, and you may check that for yourselves. For, if I am saying things that won't happen, this is a lie. We are afraid of what we should be scared at all. Understanding life is needed!

“And here, days are coming – speaks our Lord Jehovah – when I will bring hunger on Earth, and not hunger for bread or thirst for water.” When will that be? In the last days. Some interpret that the last days are the current days. You may ask: “How can these people interpret?” They have made observations, performed a number of scientific tests. Here's what I ask: how can the vine-grower now only by the sticks of the vine, know precisely the age of each separate vine? They have studied these matters, made a number of scientific calculations. If you give the vine-grower a vine stick, he will examine it and say that this stick is, for example, taken from a one-year vine. How does he know? By the structure of the stick. Each and every year passed, puts its special mark on the vine, which allows the vine-grower read its years.

When Christ preached His doctrine to the Jews, he said: “Now it's time for you to apply my doctrine. If you fail to do that, after 2 thousand years you will experience the consequences of your denial”. And now Christ is once again sitting at the door of the European peoples, saying: “If you apply My doctrine, a great blessing is waiting for you, but should you deny My Love, as you did 2 thousand years ago, you will go through the greatest of misfortunes and distress, for not only Heaven will be revolted, but the Earth as well”. Something terrible is getting ready under ground. If these people fail to accept God’s Love, the ground will open and they will be summoned below. There will be a revolution in Nature, but not like anything you know. That revolution, which is happening now, is nothing compared, to what the Nature is preparing. There will be such a revolution, that the world has never seen. Railways and telegraphs will be torn apart. Nothing of this world will remain on Earth’s surface. In the uterus of this Earth another culture will grow. When will this happen? If you don’t adopt Love. I won’t give you any more details, but read the Gospel, it is said there that the Sun will be darkened, the luminaries in the sky won’t give their light. Some say: “These are threats!” When it happens, we’ll see if these are threats or not.

The Scripture says that when this age starts on Earth, the sun will be darkened and the Moon will not give its light. Then a Son of Man will show his knowledge on Earth. By “the Sun will be darkened” we understand the time, when people will stop thinking, that one nation can dominate another through its power; „the Moon will not give its light”, means the time, when religions and religious systems will stop thinking that they can set the world straight. And so, when all the peoples, all religions, all nations stop thinking that they are capable of setting the world straight, then the Son of Man will appear on the Earth with His knowledge.

The Day of the Lord was delayed for people to be reconciled. But it will come. The coming of the Day of the Lord is accompanied by distress. It was delayed, and then delayed again until now, so that people correct their doings. But the Day of the Lord is now coming with its power. We are in the beginning of the Second Coming. It happens in periods.

The first period of the Second Coming starts in 1945 and it will last 45 years. Then it will be delayed for several years and start again, and the second 45-year period will then start. After that a third 45-year period will start, and so on. In waves, in waves will the Second Coming come upon us. This is the Day of the Lord, when people made judgment with the Lord. Each new wave is stronger than the previous one in its power and might.

As water is necessary to wash the clothes, to water the flowers, in the same way sometimes, when we do minor crimes, blood is needed for purification. And because the crimes are big, millions of people will have to die, to purge the crime-soaked Earth, so that we can live.

You'll have to give a lot of blood, until you're purified.

The black race shows the place of the fall of man. The human stain, the color has come on the human face at the place, where man fell. It is the equinox of the fall of man. Man does not fall in the spring of his life, he fell in the autumn of his life, in September, and that's the meaning of the equinox. Therefore the entire fall is on the Earth. We are now getting near this equinox, there are just 2 thousand years more left. I speak scientifically: there are 2 thousand more years, but spring is now so close, that everything is melting. Two thousand years more are left until that equinox. Then there will be flags, singing, celebration, such a joy that has never been seen before. Two thousand years, these are two days, 2 thousand human years are two days – not divine, but in the spiritual world. It all depends on the intensity of thought.

I tell you that in 2 thousand years, the Earth will be in another situation. So far the Earth has been only descending. It has two motions: one – down, and the other – up. Modern science makes its guesses in this respect, and many of the scholars, although they know how things are, do not reveal their deep understanding. So they claim that the Earth has two motions: one spiral, in which the Earth is constantly descending, and when it reaches a certain point, it starts on its way up – like a screw it starts climbing up. The Earth has already reached the bottom, and from now on it is on its way up. This screw has already started turning in the opposite direction.

Now many of you expect something good to happen. The Jewish prophets also wrote that a time will come, when people will live well. When is that? We are now closer to that time, than the prophets were back then. 2 500 years ago they foretold that. They lived a long time before us. Now we are closer to this time. I believe not more than 2 100 years separate us from that time. This is what I can foretell: until that age, of which I am speaking, there are exactly 2 100 years left. What people foretold, what the prophets foretold, will happen after exactly 2 100 years. Europe will be changed.

But then again, what is there to be done? This is a path, in which the current mankind will have to express itself. It is a path of 2 100 years, like two days and several hours. In the consciousness of those great beings, which now rule the events in the world, these 2 100 years are like two days and several hours. Two days and one hour is not a long time. The Scripture says: “A thousand years for God are like days“.

You want to know when the world will be set straight – after 2 100 years. Say that like this. Every time I mention 10 years, by “ten” I understand a Divine Number, which includes the unconsciousness and super-consciousness. If we want that the Kingdom of God can come right away. For some people, who want that – it may come. But after 2 100 years on Earth there will be order, the Earth will change in every conceivable respect – climatically, organically. The earth is already approaching in space, a collision with a new Solar system, which will have an immense effect on our entire Solar System.

Maybe after 2 100 the light of the Moon will change, it won't be as bright as now, but a little bit blue. After 2 100 years there will be vegetation on the Moon. This is a prophecy. If it happens, you will know that I had spoken in my sub-consciousness and super-consciousness; if it does not happen, you will know that I had spoken in my consciousness and self-consciousness.

After 2 100 years people will speak differently. After 2 100 years there will be a common global language, which all people will talk and understand. After 2 100 years people will travel all around the Globe, but not using the current vehicles. The Earth will be the Garden of Eden. Whoever of you comes back here 2 100 years from now, he will say: "My eye has never seen, and my ear has never heard, what I see and hear now!" This will be 2 100 years from now.

The world changes, following strict laws. One day, when you come back on Earth, you will find the world, as you have never expected it to be. When you come to Earth one day, you will be amazed, and will not be able to recognize it. You will wander at those immense changes that will have taken place. This will be after at least 2 100 years. Do you know what will be there on Earth then? Let me tell you that with the words of Apostle Paul: "What no eye has seen, what no ear has heard, and what no human mind has conceived, the things God has prepared for those who love him!" Now you may ask: "Is this possible?" Yes, after 2 100 years this is possible to happen. Then you can say: "Now, now!" For now – the Bulgarian tarhana and Bulgarian sops.

And after 2 100 years not all people will reach the new consciousness, but then there will be a great change in life: there will be no violence, prisons, people won't starve, there will be no thefts, everybody will go out without locking their doors. The cosmic consciousness of man is coming and then he will love all beings and creatures, and he will be full of joy, bliss and spirit of serving.

The current Christian people live with atavistic ideas. If we apply the new concepts of justice, we will have a true culture. Now a new type of women are coming to this world, they will all be born. According to my calculations, this will happen after 2 100 years. After 2 100 years, those, coming of you, will be able to verify this law. I don't want anybody to believe. After 2 100 years you may disprove me, but I don't provide for exceptions of even one per-cent. We have had exceptions so far. Men and women will come, who will impose a culture on the Earth, they will make the generation discontinue any wars. These are men and women, of which it is said in the 13th chapter of the Revelation, that the angel, who has descended, bound the devil with a big chain, not to tempt people any more – these men and women will bind the devil with such strong ropes, that he will no longer be able to tempt people. And then, in the future culture, only two children will be allowed, and not many, as now, one male and one female. After the two children are born, the mother and the father will be free. The mother will take the male child, the father – the female, one will go to one end of the world, and the other – to the other and they will write love letters to each other. This seems strange to you. The current living together of men and women seems to me even stranger.

The dawn of the new culture will come earlier, but the sixth race, with its full blossom and beauty will come to Earth in about 2 100 years. God left the best to come last. This is the Law.

This is what Christ says: “The bread coming from Heaven “. This means from the place where the life supplies come. True life comes from there. Some say that in the future, there will be times, when people will live on light. Everything is in the light. If you can thicken light, there's food. Some scholars believe that this is possible. Thousands of years may pass, but this will happen. If, after a thousand years, people start living on light, this will be a success.

But I think that just after 2 100 the necessary conditions, so that men can live on light, can be achieved. When you're told that the Son of Man will come, you don't believe that. When people start living on light, then the Son of Man will come to the Earth, because it is said that the Son of Man lives on the bread, which comes from Heaven.

The coming of our Lord is a great event, which will cause the entire Earth to transform.

Now a new age is beginning on Earth, of which the modern occultism says that a new wave is coming from the Sun. This wave, which came now, affects human minds.

They say that such a large spot will appear on the Sun that would be visible with unarm'd eye. That spot will cause a great magnetic wave, which will shake the Earth. That wave is coming to do well. It depends on the angle it hits the Earth. If the strike comes in a right angle, the Earth will bounce, without being affected. If the strike comes at a different angle, a sharp angle, the Earth will be slightly affected. This will be like a massage for it, without causing any calamities. The strike will be felt everywhere as a new impulse. This wave is alive, intelligent, it will change people's lives.

I say to all today's people not to build high buildings, because earth's crust will undergo great bending and nothing will remain of those residences. The houses, which will be built in the future should only be a of one and a half floors, and not very solid, because otherwise they will be broken.

The great global quake which will put an end to God's Wrath, will last 45 days.

An earthquake is coming to Europe, which will start from the north, it will shake all Europe in such a way, that it will be remembered for thousands of years. There's an explanation of the reason for that earthquake. The Old Testament says: "Beware that your deeds and thoughts don't become so bad, that the Earth can't stand you anymore".

Several quakes will come, each of them more terrible than the other, everybody should pray and half an hour before the earthquake – to escape outside of town. Some distress must fall upon Europe in order to make people think. These things have been foreseen, foretold a thousand years ago. The Earth is transforming and that is why distress will come, which are years of trials. The believers, when they see these things, they should know that the day of their salvation is already near. If people cannot adopt Christ in another way, then punishment will come upon them, such that the world has never seen. Let me quote the Scripture: "They will say to the mountains: "Fall upon us!" And to the dead they will say: "Come out, you dead, so that we, the living, may come in". The Sun directs the transformation of the Earth, which place should go up, and which – sink.

This Earth will be transformed, this entire world will sink into the ground, new continents will be created and there will be new air.

Through the earthquakes a part of the Mediterranean will sink, as well as its shores.

Today Macedonia and the Aegean Region are gradually sinking.

The Mediterranean Sea will merge with the Caspian Sea. In Asia a lot of large lakes will be formed. The Balkan Peninsula will gradually sink. The Mediterranean will get close to the Rhodopa mountains and therefore it is useless for Bulgaria to fight for egress on the Aegean Sea – it will come on its own. Some sea-side towns and cities will be submerged. An inner city will become a port.

One day such an earthquake will come, that the earth will jump up one meter. Hell is below us and we are above it. The Mediterranean used to be land, which then sank under the sea, and Bulgaria used to be a sea.

There, at the Mediterranean Sea, Greece, the lower places will be under the sea. The lower places in Western Europe, will be under the sea. And the Bulgarian then will not wear a fur cap, the Englishman won't be an Englishman anymore. There will be a new race of people, not like the current ones, but when you look at them, they will be illuminated.

All the mountains on the Balkan Peninsula are lowering, and after several thousand years they will become valleys, fields. Where the current fields are, new mountains will appear. Or, to say that in other words: the soil, which was under water, will get above the water and become fields for cultivation, and the soil, which was above water, will go under water.

Then the human lives will be improved. And the Scripture says: "The mountains will be made low", i.e. the unfavorable living conditions will become favorable.

The great French visionary Nostradamus says that England and Italy will be submerged.

An earthquake is coming, and if it comes, it is supposed that the Baltic Sea will connect to the Mediterranean Sea. This earthquake will cause a great sinking of the soil. These are transformations. A new continent is being built in the Great Ocean – a new continent is needed for each race. That continent will be covered with the best springs and it will have mountainous relief. For a mounting to be raise several thousand meters, what pressure is needed by some forces! Wouldn't that affect Europe and Asia? The Scripture says: "The Earth will shake like a drunk man".

Parts of France, Belgium, Greece will be submerged. Sahara will be flooded – it will become a sea, around which cultures will evolve. The climatic conditions will change. The magnetic wave that is coming, can burn the entire crust of the Earth. The spiritual people will immediately adjust to the new conditions, and the worldly people and the materialists will wander, will run around the Earth, and won't be able to find rest.

Now Sahara is one of the bad places for living, but one day it can be flooded by the Mediterranean and become a good place. The Europeans will be able to live at the outskirts of Africa.

Everything changes, for example the frozen Siberia has a future, because the climate there will get warmer.

The northern countries are going southwards, there it will get warmer from day to day, the climate will change. And when that happens to a sufficient degree, the fruits will also be very good. The borders of chill will move further to the north. If heat comes suddenly, a catastrophe will happen, due to the rapid melting of the ice, located at the North Pole and thus the warming of the climate in Europe will take place gradually. Earth's axis will also be changed. The world will pass through great screening, it will pass through fire. The world is now in destiny. This is a century, dedicated to the binding of evil and liberating good.

The whole Europe is shifting towards the equator and after several thousand years Bulgaria will be there. Everything will change, man will be purified, what is unnecessary will vanish and one day, when you come, if you are told that you are in a form or position as the current ones, you'll be offended.

Europe is moving towards the Equator and this results in sifts, earthquakes. All people are extremely afraid of earthquakes, because they have been scared thousands of times so far. Another reason for the earthquake is the constant ascending of the bottom of the Great Ocean, where a new continent is being formed for the sixth race.

Now a transformation of Earth's matter is taking place. Immense magnetic flows come from the Sun, which lift continents and tone them. This Earth is sinful, full of filth, it has to be purged. Only the great forests of America, where no human has ever set his foot, will remain. Africa is a part of a large continent, which was submerged. Black magic is a culture of that black race, which was submerged, because of its sins. These are the Lemurians. Atlantis is of the yellow race. Now is the time of the white race – the fifth race – and it will be submerged as well, to make room for the sixth race. The Atlanteans were a race of feelings, and the white race is a race of intellect. An entire continent will be submerged so the world is saved. An enormous continent will come out of the Great Ocean, and the current Europe will remain as an island – the island of the white.

The Great Ocean is preparing for a future culture. You will be transferred to the new continent, which will raise in the Great Ocean. Some lands will be submerged.

You must be interested in the oceans, because they provide opportunities, conditions for your development. They are the virgin soil, which is being prepared for the future culture. The water of the Great Ocean, for example, will flood some of the modern day continents, and a large part of the people, now living on Earth will move to its ground. "Is it possible that the Lord moves us from Europe to the ground of the Great Ocean, in a completely new environment?" There is nothing impossible in that. As you have left Heaven and came down on Earth, thus you will emigrate from Europe. This is nothing but migration. Once you were in Heaven, had joyful time with the Son's of God, but after that you left Heaven and started wandering. Once people lived in the Promised Land, but then they left it and have been wandering for a thousand years. So people have come out of an enormous earth into the cosmos and have come to the Earth to work and study.

Those, who will inhabit the new continent, will be of the sixth race. Then a part of the mammals will be incarnated as humans on the Earth, they have stopped in one place and will once again commence their development. In these conditions, the monkeys, which are vegetarian and have stayed to live in the forests, when the time comes to incarnate as people, will start over their development – then they will have the necessary conditions to be elevated. If they enter among the current race, they will learn to eat meat; today they lose physically but preserve themselves spiritually.

The great spiritual warm wave that is coming to this world, breaks ice and turns it into water. After a thousand of years not only people will change, but wolves will also stop eating sheep. They will be disgusted with meat and will only use vegetal food.

The new continent, which will arise from the bottom of the Pacific Ocean, will be the continent of the sixth race. Siberia will connect to the new continent and form an integral part thereof. The new continent may connect with both America and Siberia. And then America will expand to the Pacific Ocean, where there are some isles, which are actually the peaks of the future mountains. The water of the Pacific will flood some of the continents of nowadays, people will see things, which they have never seen, some places will be submerged, others will be elevated from the bottom of the sea. A long time will pass, until everything is settled. The external shapes and forms of nature must be transformed.

THE LAST HOUR

If you ask today's church, it will tell you that a long time will pass until the second Adam comes. If you ask the occult societies, they will tell you the same. But here's what I say: the second Adam has already come and the Garden of Eden has been prepared. If you would enter this garden only for a minute, you wouldn't want to get back. The door to this Eden is opened once a day, to let in the one who is ready.

Now we have to live well, so that we can enter the new age without any debt. During the few years, that we have until 1999 what are you going to do? Because the age has already ended. So whatever you do in this life – that is it.

Now we are living in an age, when things are condensed. What was liquidated for a thousand years, may now be liquidated within ten – that is why there are great pressures and conflicts. The only thing that I am preaching to you is to study well. The past can't be compared to the present. Now it is good, but in the future it will be better. From now on people would only be able to be servants. No one is allowed to be a lord and soon you'll only know one Lord – God.

Today the evolutionary process is shortened. Everything which in the past it took thousands of years to be realized, now can be realized within seconds, minutes or hours – it all depends on the intensity of thought.

The teachers of mankind warn people, and especially their disciples, to be quick. Time is precious. A day equals a century. Whoever is able to use time well, he shall acquire great wealth.

There is no time for delay. There's just half an hour left until the last train. If we miss it now, we'll have to wait thousands of years, for it to come again. 2 thousand years ago, it was said that the Day of the Lord was approaching. Now I say: we're in the Day of the Lord. There's just half an hour until the last train. Woe to those individuals, to that people, who fail to settle their counts by then! Everybody will be denounced. This is what is said from above. If Europe fails to correct its sins, this bludgeon will reach for it. Great distress waits for it. It is said: "Woe to you, Jerusalem!" Today's Europe is that Jerusalem.

Do you think that wave will come a second time? No, it won't come a second time. This wave will elevate not only us to the highest degree, but also all the animals, all plants and minerals, and those, which it does not elevate, will remain for future times. Remember: no second wave will come, because things are not repeated in nature. If you remain for future times, then the conditions will be harder.

It is said: "People will go through fire" – the world won't be set straight otherwise, something will come and wipe away everything. A person has to do his work today, so when the time comes, nothing unfinished is left, because new work will be added. The old world will end, the new one will begin, just like this day will die out, so that another comes.

We need not wait for tomorrow – today is the finest day. This is a new age in your lives. What is hidden inside of us is something great. For it, we don't have to wait the next day. The next day will take care of itself. This day is a day of happiness. It is the day of the Sun. Tomorrow will be the day of the Moon. The day of constant changes – now you're rich, now you're poor.

To think that God will fix things, is wrong. When God set's the world straight, there will always be distress. For whoever waits on God to set the world straight, he will see wars, earthquakes, storms, cyclones, death, disasters, sufferings, sickness – everything. And if people understand that, they must set the world straight, and not to wait on someone else to do that. When Our Lord comes to us, he must find our business settled, so that there's something He can tell us, so that there's something else He can give us.

Do not be afraid, the future is ours! By “ours” we understand all those people, the consciousness of which is awakened and they acknowledge the great laws of the new.

Everybody is talking about the new. How to find the new? It is in the conflicts. Whoever has no conflicts, there the new is absent. So where there are conflicts, there's the new. When one is born, another dies – this is the new. The old dies, the new is born.

The beings, who lived before men, have left their creative inheritance. They are ready to recreate the Earth even now, to change its orbit, to change the axis and its internal condition, to change also the human body, to change human thoughts, human feelings, to impose a new order. This new order that is now being prepared, is the order of Love. The forthcoming culture is the culture of Love. The next culture is the culture of Love. Today's people kill each other, blood is shed. Here's how the occultists interpret this situation: every woman, giving birth, gives birth in blood. That blood is necessary, as water is for plants. With this anomaly, existing now, in this chaos, all intelligent beings collect that blood. It is not spilled. When a man dies, they collect this blood in their pharmacies. It will serve the future culture. Some maintain the doctrine that Christ shed His blood for the salvation of mankind. The blood of Christ is necessary to redeem mankind. Others explain that a bit differently: that the blood of Christ is His intelligent Word. Blood is the external appearance of the Word. If there is no blood, your intelligent word cannot manifest itself. It may exist on Earth outside the body, but without a body, it cannot manifest itself.

The Scripture says: “Whom God loves, he puts in unfavorable conditions, so that favorable conditions are created”. If you now live under unfavorable conditions, this is because God loves you. God puts you in unfavorable conditions, because he plans to give you something better in the future. If He planned to deprive you of that good, He would have given you the good in the beginning. Therefore everybody, who descends from Heaven is asked” “What do you want: the good on Earth or the good in Heaven?” If he says that he wants the good on Earth, he is given that good here on Earth. But there’s one thing you should know, here on Earth there are no conditions for good, for happiness. Here there’s only motion.

When a new age comes, it is always preceded by very unfavorable conditions. If you get back 5–6 million years, before the establishment of this age, you will see that great catastrophes and cataclysms took place. While the current conditions on Earth were being prepared, it went through great changes, great cataclysms. What changes happened then? We haven’t the slightest idea. Educated people show us that. These cataclysms are noted in the breaking of earth’s layers. If the houses back then were like these of today, nothing would have remained of them. Such great catastrophes happened then. So in this distant age it wasn’t possible to build houses like ours. Now earth’s crust is more stable. The current disturbances and motions, happening with Earth’s crust are once again caused by the coming of a new age. The coming of a new age is recognized by the fact that everybody is engaged in that, everybody thinks only for it and wants it to come sooner. Without knowing it, they think about the new age. It does not affect one man only. There’s striving for it by not only one man, but by all people, because it is something new, which everybody can benefit from.

Some say: “Now life is very hard”. No – I’ve already said that now you are in the most adverse living conditions.. You are in the position of the Jews, after they escaped Egypt. You may lack meat and other things in the desert, but you'll have water and fresh air and no pharaoh will order you. It is better for a man to be free in the desert than a slave eating meat, enjoying all pleasures, but the pharaoh to prod him with his whip, ordering: "Now start making bricks and tiles!" So we answer: "There's no other way, we'll have to do that". No, we're not going to make any more bricks and tiles. We are heading a long walk in the dessert of Divine Life.

You, who are seeking God and are following the path of Christ, the new path of life, rejoice that you live in such an age, one of the greatest ages in the development of mankind.

There will be a great change in the world, I won't tell you when. When that change happens, you will see it yourselves. The change will happen suddenly. People will go to sleep and when they wake up, they will see that they are not what they used to be. Everybody will find out that they have become lighter. Then suffering will vanish and they will understand what I am telling you about now. You will become calm and quiet, the face of the entire Earth will change. This will be the presence of human mind. And then everybody will see in the face of his brother, will see his brother, will see the man. Everybody will see in each person God's nature, burning inside of him. This nature, as well as the strivings of all people, will be the same. And then all talented people – writers, poets, musicians, artists, everybody will be given the chance to express themselves.

The Day of the Lord will come! That day will set all people free of the slavery of death. That day is coming to relieve people of the eternal fear, of the eternal discontent. It is said: "heavens will be kindled". So the order existing in people's lives, as well as in their minds, will undergo a certain transformation. Their notions of morals will be incompatible with the new culture.

A new element will enter the world, which will immediately bring in harmony. Harmony will come suddenly. Those who are ready now – for them this will be a resurrection. Those, who will be resurrected, they are the Sons of God, they are the carriers of the new doctrine, they are the new. They will save the world. The sixth race is coming now to save the world. When Christ came, it was an age of preparation. Mankind has been preparing for two thousand years. Now we are at the threshold of the new period. There's something beautiful in life. We haven't tried life yet. We have a hint of what life is, but still do not really know that.

Although now there's great distress and crises, these are favorable in another respect – the spiritual searching is increased, souls are awakened to search God.

The brothers and sisters, in order to be ready for these events, in order to withstand, to endure the trials, they must have the following in mind: the most important thing is the connection with God! Eliminate all negative attitudes towards people, forgive everybody. Forgiveness for everybody! Everybody should forgive their brothers and seek complete repentance for his deeds. This is what God is waiting! And then him, who does that, will be protected and preserved.

Now we are in the age, when the Lord starts to manifest Himself in us and we will have to work for Him. Do not allow any fear! Try to acquire spiritual wealth, to be strong in spirit. Those who are strong in spirit will endure. Ensure gains in your soul, for this is the only thing you can take with you, when you go to heaven. Unfortunately people are like the son, who takes money from his father and goes straight to the pub, to drink all of it.

The new life is now at your door. It is coming from the outside, like the rays of the sun. If you manage only for one year, and not for your entire life, to put in your minds the thought that all people are good by nature, that you are good, that your mother is good, that your father is good etc., not that you are born good, but that you are good by nature, than your perception of life will also be changed.

The soul of a man is not yet in his body. It is outside the body and only sends an elevated, light thought to the ordinary human mind from time to time. And when a person is ready, the soul will manifest itself through the body, it will show itself in the physical world, and that is exactly what is approaching now.

Remember: the health of a man results from his will, his happiness – from his mind, and his bliss – from his soul. What the will is, this will be our health, what our mind is – this will be our happiness, what our soul is – this will be our bliss. These are not just shapes, empty words, but real things, which we can apply to our current lives as well.

Christ determined which elements participate in building the human body: mind, heart, soul and strength, i.e. will. You can't love the Lord only with your heart, or your soul, or your mind, or your will – you have to love Him with all four elements together. Through Love man gradually organizes his forces – he first organizes his heart, then his mind and his soul. When the soul is organized, we say that a man is revived. In the spiritual world man is represented as a living house, which speaks and moves.

Remember: the salvation of man is in the true creation, the true construction. This means to build his astral body, his mental body and the body of his soul. If there is no connection between mind, heart and soul, the body starts ailing. When the body is ailing, the spirit cannot manifest itself. How can we build? By loving the Lord with your minds, hearts, souls and wills, and by loving your fellow men like you love yourselves. Without Love you cannot build. Loves brings the materials, capabilities and conditions for building. Whoever has learned how to build for himself, will also build for his fellow men.

First of all a man has to transform his mind and heart, so that he can be visited by the Great One, who has created the entire world – Heaven and Earth, the entire science, all the arts. He will put into that man the eternal life – the life of resurrection. This visit will only last one second, but will be never forgotten. Its echo will last in eternity. You say: “Just one second! This is such a short time.” Do you know what it is to be visited by light for just one second? For one second light travels 300 thousand kilometers. How much time will it take you to travel that distance? It is enough for God to visit you for just one second, to leave you thousands of years of life. If you keep to yourselves the wealth, given to you by God in that one second, you will benefit from that wealth for thousands of years. How much work will that visit create for you! God will only look at you and you will feel that the burden has been taken down from your backs. You will be light as an angel and ready to spread your wings and fly in space, saying: “Now I know what life is!” And then, whatever work you start, whatever science you approach, you will do everything successfully. This is the only way to understand the words: “Everything is possible for God“.

People are being educated and educate themselves, but without any results. Why is that? Because they have started working first with their hearts, then with their minds, but they have neglected their souls. This is the very mistake of this century. Today’s people have not gone through the evolution of their souls, but only through the evolution of their minds and hearts. This is the reason why people are discontented. You can’t skip one or more steps, so that you reach the top more quickly.

Today’s people are now returning to the evolution of the soul, the step, they have skipped. In the future they will go through the evolution of the strength, of the will. It is said that the Kingdom of God is not built on the mind or on the heart, but on the strength.

Whoever has a strong will, he is meek and gentle. You may say that you don't want to be meek as a sheep. The sheep is not meek. It has softness, but not meekness. The sheep has extended enormous efforts until it became a sheep. It was once a wolf, and then became a sheep. Whoever wants to obtain softness, Love, he should eat mutton. Once he acquires these qualities, he no longer needs such meat.

When Christ comes, you'll have to have already solved these matters. Before He is even here, you have to reconcile with your wife. Lords and servants must reconcile, everybody has to reconcile. When He comes, as he is described, then there will be such smoke, such fire that all that will melt. This is what Apostle Peter says: everything will melt, the entire culture, all the houses and railways. Everything will turn into a mess. The lords will be gone, as well as the servants, all men and women. Something will definitely remain, but what it will be – I don't know. The Scripture says: "After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and those we will leave on Earth".

All of you must be ready for the new times, you must now be ready for work. Can we convince the rich of the modern world not to open their banks, and vaults, to sacrifice everything? Can all priests, of whatever creed, abandon their methods of old, their beliefs of old and adopt the new for the salvation of the world? Can all mothers and fathers adopt the new model of education, can all teachers adopt the new methods. This is the world of the future. We will have schools, we will have homes, people will still marry and be given in marriage until the end of the days. And after the end of the days, it is said that: „They will neither marry nor be given in marriage, but they will be equal to the apostles “. And this means: they will unite, will become one.

In the new faith mankind will have to unite. How peoples are grouped? How are the students grouped in a school? Where the healthy go, the sick cannot go. In this way only the best, the most elevated, who have completed their development on the Earth should go to the Divine World. We think that Christ will be forgiving to the ignorant and stupid. That's how it is, the stupid are forgiven, but we, who are entering the new earth, created by God, must be people, prepared for that Earth. If everybody was visionaries, you would all see your entire future, you would see all the workers, who now work for your health, you would see all the generations that work. The builders of the future are now coming to this world. You may ask: where are these builders? I can't tell you that. I can tell you that the Sun will come; when spring comes, the way the Earth is turning, a change will come. I will not explain to you the deep reasons.

The only salvation is for you to be the media of good life, of good forces, of good thoughts in the world. This is your purpose now. And how should this happen? You all have talents. If you continue along this path, help will come: the Sun will rise on time, wind will come on time, everything will be on time for him, who listens. And the Teacher will come and help for thousands of years. Who will help the mankind? In the future it is again God who will help. Whoever lead people out, He will save them. It is not us, who will save ourselves, He will save you. Moses was sent to lead people out. He was told: "You will tell the pharaoh, that I've sent you. I am the One who sends everything." And the pharaoh started to oppose, saying: "I do not know you". And finally he was forced to let Israel go. And now, in the same way, here's what I say: surely a Moses will come, who will lead mankind. This is what God says. He will raise his staff. Finally all people will agree. This will happen, but when? You are not to know the years, set by God. The time is near, but when – no one knows. When you sleep, when you think of nothing, when you imagine that everything is alright, then it will happen.

THE JUDGMENT DAY

Christ did not refuse to come on Earth a second time. He saw where the mistake was, so that it is not possible to live in this world, and that is why he told his disciples that he would go to prepare a home for them in Heaven, and then he would come here on Earth a second time, to take them with him. But when Christ comes on Earth for a second time, He will set it all on fire. Why? So that any memory of His crucifixion on the wooden cross are removed and disappear. The distress of all mankind is the witness of that deed, and any distress must disappear so that no memory of it remains. The entire old culture will burn and a new culture, with new images will be created. When these images come, not a single memory of Christ's suffering will remain, nor of the suffering of mankind. It was said: "Not one stone here will be left on another". This is true not only literally, but also figuratively. All the beliefs of people, regarding life, the relations between fathers and sons, between mothers and daughters, between servants and masters, between believers and non-believers – everything history has been recording for times immemorial, will be swept away, it will be blown away by the wind, like dust is blown on the streets.

I refer to this life as a life of loveless. People are born without Love and die without Love, suffer without Love and rejoice without Love, develop without Love, study without Love, live without Love. This is what is tragic and dramatic about life. You are distressed about that and ask: "Why the Lord did not make the world differently?" Here's what I say: there is such a world, that you are looking for. It was created a long time ago, and God lives and rules there. That world is the world of Love. And it is said about it: "Whoever comes to me I will never drive away. I will open the door, he will enter and find food."

I came to distinguish three types of people: some live in the physical field in an animal-like condition. As soon as I see them, I notice their shapes are animal-like, their consciousness is not developed – they have as much consciousness as an animal. The other, the spiritual people, the fair-minded, they have consciousness. The first type of people live only for themselves – this is the physical person. The second type live for the others, and the third – they live for God. So this is how I distinguish them: the first collect only for themselves, the second collect also for their fellow-men, and the third – whatever God gives them – they give it all away and leave nothing for themselves.

God will transform Earth. How? This I won't tell you. You will witness this transformation. Then you will speak about it yourselves. This won't happen suddenly, but gradually. When Love comes down on Earth, it will deface all sins and won't mention them anymore. It will convert itself as a life-giving Spirit.

When God descends, He will judge people like man and will resurrect them like a God. So there will first be judgment and then resurrection. Don't think the Judgment will take place in Heaven – no, people will be judged on Earth. When the judgment is finished, then the new life will come, then resurrection will come.

When the judgment passes, there will be peace and calmness. Then the judges will leave their courts, the soldiers – their watches, the priests – their churches. All people will go out free, joyful and merry, dressed in their new clothes – the clothes of Love and Wisdom. The Scripture says that the priests will be dressed in white clothes, belted with golden waists.

You say: “Let that time come sooner!” The time is us. When will that be? It depends on us, on our internal desire. Who will do that? We will. Wirth whom? With our Lord – when we are ready. The Lord is ready, He is waiting.

If your eyes would open, you would see that the entire Earth is in a different position. When a crime of any kind happens, there are millions of souls watching, as they watch everything happening on the Earth. The Earth is in the fire, they are sitting and waiting, and when the entire Earth is set on fire, the time will come for the fire in which within 24 hours the entire mankind will go from death to life. And this angel's trumpet will sound both from above and from within. It is the trumpet of Love and when people here it, they will all come and all this order, rules, beliefs, all the religions – everything will melt, all the people will hold each-other like brothers and kiss, their freedom will be complete, everybody will hold a sacred staff in his hand and then they will turn their eyes up to God and say: "Thank you Father for giving us this light, we are ready to fulfill Your will!"

The invisible world is sending against you a great army of 500 million spirits, well armed, with their modern artillery. Do you know what will happen to you, when that army comes against you? The fireplaces of all people around the world will go out, trees will stop giving fruit and such a strong current will be formed all around the Earth that no house will remain undestroyed – everything will be swept away. Not a trace will remain of the philosophy and religion of modern people, and they will not even have time to put on the garments, in which they perform their services. And of all people, who only think about having fun – of them all there will be no trace. What will happen then? Only the cocoons of men will remain. You may say: "This is frightful – only the cocoons of men to remain!" Yes, it will be so, people will hatch and only the ragged cocoons will remain. Some may say: "Let's hope this does not happen during our times!" It will definitely happen during our time. Here's what I say: the world will not end, but it will be transformed. We're not talking about the end of the world, but saying that the world will be transformed and reborn.

According to the same law, people won't die either, but will pass from life into death and from death into life. They will pass through two conditions: first they will take off their physical garment, will then get out of the dense matter and enter a thinner matter, where they will put on their spiritual garment, i.e. their spiritual body. And then all the discord in the human mind will vanish and new, harmonic actions will be born.

You think that after the war is over, the Kingdom of God will come on Earth. Not the Kingdom of God! Fire is coming on Earth! Distress is on its way! Great distress is coming on Earth, great fire is coming. Now the illuminated people are coming on Earth, their chief is Christ. The illuminated are coming with arms in their hands. Once they were weak, and now they are armed and strong. The Man of Love will now be strong, and when a man of evil sees him, he will run away. The Earth will be purged of all evil people, all bad people will leave the surface of Earth and go to the center of the Earth for correction.

By “Earth” you can understand the current system, which is being destroyed, the “see” means the astral world, from where everybody will be reincarnated on the Earth to be judged. “Hell” means the impure souls, returned to the Earth, who will come out to be judged.

“For everything, which has been written, will be fulfilled.” To say that in other words: God’s Judgment is coming to this world! When will God’s Judgment come? When the divine light enters people’s minds and they start seeing clearly everything they’ve done in their current and former lives. They are now facing a new task: to correct their lives, to correct all their mistakes. Thank about the light, which has been given to you and be ready, like the prodigal son, to turn to god in remorse and humbleness and say: “Oh, Lord, have mercy on us! We failed to fulfill your will, but now we are ready to become servants, to serve You with Love.” Pray to God to write your names in the Book of Life. Abandon lie, which you have served for so many years, and adopt truth.

Today's people need a positive philosophy, and not the philosophy of rocks, plants and trees. You can't go far with their philosophy. What have stones achieved? They are used to pave the streets. What have trees achieved? They are used to make houses, fences etc. When he sees that they aim high and fight among themselves to get on top of the others, man takes the axe and starts chopping. In this way trees learn their lesson and become meek. They start sacrificing themselves, give their fruit, without expecting anything. Meekness is what a man needs! If he is as haughty as the tree, he must sacrifice for the others and give selflessly his fruit. In this way he will be able to avoid the axe of his Lord. If he is as haughty as the stone, he must lessen himself, dig himself deep in the ground and transform into a precious stone. He must stay there for thousands of years, until he is extracted by somebody, faceted and put on by that person as a decoration. That's the only way the stone can avoid the hammer of his Lord. While you are looking from above at your inferiors, the axe and the hammer will beat on your back for a long time. While you only think of yourselves, of your personal needs, you will fall down and get up, win and loose and wonder why there's no success in your lives. It's more than natural – haughtiness and vanity bring a man down and don't elevate him.

The truth has to be known. How can we walk in the world with these deceptions! The time of deceptions has passed. All these carnivorous animals – these are cultures, these are people. All the carnivorous animals, all the bad animals – these are people, who had lived on the Earth and have been put to live in these animals. All the poisonous plants are human souls, placed in these plants. All the existing mud – this is human souls. They must escape from there. All the coal, which we burn, these are human souls, put in coal. Now you burn them, using them for heating and thus liberating them – they create wars. These people did not come here to be liberated. You can't live in the world with deceptions.

God has been forced many times to destroy the world, because of the disobedience of people. Now He does not want to destroy it. He will not cause a flood either. And that is why now fire comes to the world. All people will be melted. The gold will come out of the ash and the ash will be thrown out. Not a single person will remain unmelted.

You don't understand the language of nature. Whenever thunder and lightning start, does that show that God is angry at you? No – through the earthquake the Lord liberates some souls or some elements, which have remained buried deep in the ground for a long time. God breaks the layers to liberate some souls or elements. This is how precious stones are found.

All the evil spirits will pass through the door – Black Sea. This is where the world is cleaned, and that is why it is black. It will devour the evil spirits.

And when Christ says: “You will know them by their fruits”, some think – by their current fruits. No – it is about the end of an era, it's about the last fruit. If I do a good deed, they say: “He is an excellent fellow, good”. Or, if I do a bad deed, they will say: “He is a bad man”. No – you can't judge me by my current deeds, I can only be judged for my entire life, where all my deeds will be like one fruit in one sense or another. Now there's no judgment! Therefore everybody is to be left to finish the work he has started.

This is what man did, as soon as he was out of Heaven: Cain killed Abel. This is how it started. These are the two principles: some will be killed, and some will kill, until this order of things is changed. But now we are at the end of this change. And the change won't happen fast. Evil in us will be gradually limited. And you should study the law of limitation.

We will try things that have a price and be thankful for going through a great school. We are at the end of the school of evil. Now we are forced to do evil, and one day we will be free to do evil freely. You haven't done evil freely to anybody yet. How can you do evil to somebody freely? Here's the idea: the surgeon makes an incision so that pus can flow out of the wound.

In the moment, when the day of the Lord comes, for some it will create a day, and for others – night. The day of the Lord, which brings the Divine Life to the world, will separate the righteous from the sinners. The sinners are parasites, living off the righteous. And as long as these parasites do not know how to work, after they get off the righteous, they will surely die. And that is why I say all the sinners should come off the righteous and repent.

Every society, which accepts the new current, will be elevated, the future belongs to it, and it will have all the favorable conditions. Every nation, every society, which does not adopt the new understandings, the new beliefs in all spheres of social life, has no future.

People's disobedience is the cause of the gradual destruction of the world. And that is why fire I coming. All people will be melted. The gold will come out of the ash and the ash will be thrown out. Not a single person will remain unmelted. I am not speaking about the material things, the mind and heart must be purified.

We are not afraid that the Earth will crack open, or that there may be earthquakes – these things are insignificant for us. When there's an earthquake, our feet won't be shaken, we will not be on Earth. The Scripture says: "The righteous shall be taken and lifted in the air to see the Lord, and the Earth will shake below". And the sinners will tell the mountains: "Hide us from the face of Him, who is coming". As you see, Love has fearful consequences – all crimes will stick out. I am not speaking of political crimes, but of all those worst, shameful, disgraceful crimes of the spiritual people, who committed those crimes in the name of Love. The world won't be judged, the world will go away. Spiritual people will be judged. The sinners won't be summoned for judgment. And some say: "Well, that time is not coming soon". That is not right – this time is at the threshold. And all should pray for this hour to pass.

Man is responsible for each word he says, because he lives in a harmonic world, in a world full of order. When you find yourselves judged by God, you will answer why you've created the fire words, which disturbed the harmony in the God's World. On it's own God's World is harmonic, but with his misunderstanding and ignorance, man brings disharmony to this world, and things that the world is inherently disharmonic. The human world is disharmonic and not God's. Because these worlds are interwoven, it seems that disharmony is in the entire world. No disharmony is partial and it belongs to the human world. For this disharmony to be removed, man must pass through distress, through judgment, to see his mistakes and sins. The writer will be convicted of writing bad books, through which he has brought allurements and filth in life, the artist will be convicted of painting those paintings, which brought something wicked into the minds of people. Some painters paint Love in a human form, in the form of Cupid – the God of Love, holding an arrow. No painter has succeeded in painting Love so far. In whatever images they represent it, they are far from the concept of Love. What kind of love is that, which would use an arrow? This is the love of a man, who can stab you with his knife at any moment. If he does not like a thing, he immediately produces his knife.

The liberation of all peoples will come from the invisible world. IN what way? Through fire. (...) This fire, I am talking about, cannot be metered by any thermometer. It is the only thing which can purify people's minds and hearts. Whenever that fire comes, it will immediately purify your heart, relieve it of all worries and disturbances, and it will shine. When that fire affects your mind, all the discord will disappear, and you will be relieved of all heavy and dark thoughts. When that fire comes, the righteous will be resurrected, they will exit their graves and enter the new life.

You will go into fire and burn all your policies, i.e. all the misunderstandings, all the bitterness and insults – all this will vanish. And after you exit that, you'll have pure, crystal-clear Love. Whoever has that Love, he is ready of any sacrifice.

The coming of the Lord concerns only people, who will enter the Divine Furnace.

Here's what I say: the life, which is coming, is a life of Love. Whoever is not ready for that Love, he will burn, and whoever is ready, he will be melted. I wish you all to melt and not to burn.

When saying that the Day of the Lord will burn the Earth down, it means that He will deprive people of the last means of development. Which people? Those, who are late in their evolution. He will bring them to a point, where there will be no more development conditions. The day is now coming on the Earth, when people will no longer be able to lie.

Modern mankind is at the threshold of the new age, because the Solar system has already entered the orbit of the Divine Dawn. When this time comes, there will be no living conditions for bad people. They will die one by one and the Earth will be relieved of them. The new conditions, which are coming, cannot stand evil. They will destroy it. Darkness will lift its curtains and go to another place. Evil will take its capitals and go to another place, where it will form its banks and offices.

For not more than 100 years any lie will be disclosed. Whatever injustice is done by a man, for not more than 10 years or 100 years as a maximum, it will be revealed.

A better world will come, but then you won't be like what you are now. "We will change" – says apostle Paul, because the conditions will come in accordance with the changes, which will happen within us. The heritage, the wealth of the Earth will remain for the righteous, one day the meek will inherit it and everything made by the sinners will remain for the good. Whoever does not understand these things says that sinners are lucky. Yes, but this is the luck of the fish, swimming in the river in one direction, but ultimately get into the net, and there's no way out of that.

The end of the world everywhere in the Scripture means the disappearance in all three worlds, of all the conditions, in which crime can exist or increase. This is the end of the world. In the other two worlds, the conditions have almost disappeared by this year – they are present only on Earth. According to my calculations the conditions of the physical field will disappear after 300 years. Now is the time of the last conditions for crimes. After 300 years, if you are still alive, you will verify these things. Now it's too early, but this will happen 101% within 300 years. For things have already happened in the two other worlds, finally there will be an influence. There's an awakening of a great consciousness in people, this influence will come everywhere. People don't consciously want to commit any more crimes. The rich and the educated – everybody has realized that an end has to be put to this abnormality, that exists now.

Now we say: "Isn't man made by God, how have evil appeared and where did it come from?" Christ says: "A hostile man have planted this". What are we supposed to do – to root it out? No, there's a period, during which you will hold it and then deal with it intelligently. When? When the time has come for harvest, then you will put all weeds to one side, and all the grain to the other, and that is how you will be liberated. In the second generation of weeds, there can be no graft. Man can put a graft, but nature has put a barrier to that process: you can combine a mare and a donkey and produce a hinny, but further from the hinny, there's nothing you can do. The hinny remains a hinny, it is a completed phenomena. So there's only one crime you can commit in your life, you can't commit a second crime. Nature has put an end to all crimes, but hasn't put an end to good – this is how it is different. Good multiplies, and evil cannot do that. The evil exists, that's true, but what exists is a combination of good and evil. The Scripture says that sinners will vanish – this means that they will not be born and will vanish on their own. If two sinners unite, they cannot give birth to a child. A child can only be born if a sinner unites with a righteous person – a hinny will be born, but the hinny will remain futile. So all deeds, which are unnatural, have been condemned by nature to futility, as a result of which they terminate themselves on their own. They can exist for a period of not more than 10, 20, 30, 40, 50, 100 years, and after that they are erased. Therefore, when we ask how the world will be corrected, I say this: the world will correct itself! Then we will also be fine

Once they used to say: “Pray for each other to be healed”, and the new Doctrine says: “Love each other, so that you live”. It will be so! And not for the entire world, for in this third phase, in the third Adam, only the most advanced souls will wake up first. It is called the first resurrection – these are the elected souls, which will form an impulse. Because there will be people, who will be elevated after a thousand years, and others will remain and centuries will be necessary to transform their consciousness. We are talking about the advanced souls, who will establish the Kingdom of God on the Earth.

God has already started the transformation of the world. IN this age of growth, we are in the most favorable conditions, under the influence of the Divine Fire. In this fire all the solids will melt, matter will be refined and God will form another world, with a different order out of it. Those who fail to complete their development will be sent by God to another place. There's no perishing in the world, only depriving of the position, of the work, which we're not working.

When He descends on Earth, God will illuminate the world in such a way that all sins will be melted and disappear. Everybody will melt and immediately there will be a new social system, which has never existed before. Then there will be such Love among people, such harmony, that have never before existed. When the divine works in the world, everything happens in a moment, and not as with the law of evolution. But, everything happening now in the world, is a preparation for the coming of God on Earth.

What God wants from us is to live in Love. The invisible world is surfeited with all the indiscriminate thoughts, indiscriminate feelings and indiscriminate deeds. Our thoughts are reflected in the other world and cause perturbations and they have almost reached the decision there, the law is ready, that they will punish the world. Not by a flood, but by fire they will punish it now. Where will you hide? People hide 25 under the ground from noxious gases and bombs. But if the earth melts 25 meters down where will you hide? Fire will come. What will happen then? There's no hiding. When that heat comes, what should you be, what will remain of you, tell me that! You will see that. When you experience that, you will say: "It is true". Everybody should be ready, just like those three young men from the Jewish story: when they were thrown in the furnace, they did not burn. You too, when you enter the fire, should not be burnt. We are in the furnace, there is fire, which burns us. Some of you are already heavily burnt, the furnace is very hot. Everybody, when he exits the furnace, he smells. It is better for us to be in the furnace, without burning. Fire has started. This disorder of the nervous system is due to this internal fire. The disorder of our thoughts and feelings is due to that fire, which comes and upsets everything. For those who follow God's Path, this fire will be a blessing. For those, who don't walk in God's Path, this fire will bring distress.

Billions of creatures have died on Earth and left their filth everywhere. The Earth is not clean and that is why it will pass through fire and everything organic will have to burn. The Earth will be cleaned with fire. A purification is being prepared, which will affect the entire planet. And then all good people won't burn, but will be cleansed and the bad will depart. The Earth in the future will pass along to a higher evolution level. Now it's a judgment day is coming. All people will be judged.

Christ, when He came on Earth, did not put on his own clothes, in all his glory, but took a servant's appearance, so that He was accessible to all people. If he had appeared in his nature, everybody would have melted. The second coming that people are expecting, will be marked by the fact that when Christ descends on Earth, people will either melt or turn to God. Where Christ sets his foot, men will either melt and die or turn to God.

If God comes on Earth, it will not endure facing Him either – it will melt. What will happen to you, the ordinary man, if you see God? You would not resist even the presence of an angel. Angels are light, mighty spirits. It is enough to see the face of a single angel, for you to spread on the ground. Even the prophet Daniel, one of the consecrated ones fell on the ground. I'm not saying that nobody has seen an angel, many have seen angels, but very few resisted their look.

When Christ comes, there will be permutations. All this will be burned, houses will be flung about. How will you welcome Christ? When He comes, everything, the entire world will be tuned upside down. Now I'm scaring the disciples. But this is not for you – the ordinary people, it is only for the disciples – I'm scaring them.

Ordinary people will say: “Let that not happen in our time, when we depart – let whatever happen, but we don’t want such dangerous things happening during our time, for all our efforts will be in vain”. It won’t happen during your time, but during the time of the disciples all this will happen, as I described it and then, in these hard times, when the entire world turns upside down and is set in motion, when all people abandon their self-interested desires when every plead is stopped and everybody is looking for a place for salvation, when all laws are gone, all lawlessness disappears, all the connections are broken and all this is set in motion, the great law will appear, then God will start putting his Laws in the hearts of scholars and write it on their minds. In such a turbulent moment, as this now, you will only live in the law of Love.

A transformation of the matter of the entire world is taking place – new elements are being put into man and the something new is coming on the planet from the Sun. Every people, which does not work for the coming of the Kingdom of God, will suffer. The world has been created for the future people, who are coming. When the light beings show themselves, the world will settled and during their years there will be abundance, moderate climate and the earthquakes and hails will be forgotten. And all bad people will melt like snow, while the good ones grow like seeds.

There will be a new layer on Earth. We will be raised a little higher, and old people will live in the lower layer. There will be places on Earth, which people cannot see and the scholars don’t even know about, but this is where the new people will live.

An Englishman wrote a book “The Poisoning of the Earth”, which caused a great storm, great noise and mocking about. While doing his scientific research, the Englishman came to the conclusion that the Earth was going to pass through an ether layer, in the atmosphere of which people would suffocate, and would be unable to live. The newspapers wrote about that book mockingly. They said that people would sleep, and after passing through the ether layer, they would wake up again. This they call resurrection of human soul. Here's what I say: people will actually pass through such a layer, but they won't suffocate. They will pass through fire. Some of them will burn, and others will be illuminated. This thought was written in the Holy Book. Ether is God's Fire, which will purge people.

The end of the days includes cleansing of the old mankind, so that it is replaced by a new mankind. This cleansing and the end of the days will take place within a period of 45 years. That period started in 1900 and it will end in 1945. All of you are witnesses of what has happened in this period.

After 1945 a new period starts, which will also last 45 years, until 1990. Such powers, and such power are coming that whoever opposes to it, will be burying himself. An immense dictatorship is coming, which has been allowed to purge the stale slime. When the water gets muddy, a long time has to pass for the running water to clear. During that period, muddy water will flow. Some of you won't await the end of this period and they will depart. Others, however, will witness that so that they testify for the words of God.

After that period there will be a short break until 1999, which will be the most favorable in spiritual terms, for the White Brotherhood. And after that the new period will come with a dictatorship, even worse than this that is coming now. It will also last 45 years. It is mentioned also in John's Revelation 21: 8: But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who practice magic arts, the idolaters and all liars—they will be consigned to the fiery lake of burning sulfur..

And the Lord shall take care of the righteous. What about them? You can find information in John's Revelation 21:6: "He said to me: "It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the thirsty I will give water without cost from the spring of the water of life. Those who are victorious will inherit all this, and I will be their God and they will be my children “.

The Kali Yuga period started in 4481 before Christ and will end in 1999.

Those, who are ready, will always have good conditions to do away with their karma, and those, who are not ready, will be able to do that in 1999. Until 1999 the world will see what it has never seen.

After these events, bad people will be removed from the Earth. It has already started ascending and people with old beliefs will not be able to be elevated together with eat. The Earth will shake them down of itself, just like the tree shakes down its rotten fruits. They will go to another place and be left behind in nature. Now the Groom is inviting people to the wedding, but only those, who have wedding cloths, will enter. Every person, every people, not following God's Will, will be swept away. Everything that does not produce fruit, does not create, does not produce, will be swept away, i.e. it will be left for another age. Now we are already at the end of the old days, and in he beginning of the new ones. There's no going back. The old is going away for good and there's no more life for it, life is for the new. The goods are now given to good people, who will use them for the good of all, for the fulfillment of God's Will.

There is a doctrine, according to which, bad people must be removed. This was written, Nature wrote that as well, it has already hired steamships from Bulgaria and all European countries, for about 10 million people to be moved to a new place of exile, so that they are corrected. They will be removed to another planet, and there is another planet, to where all good people will migrate. Some of your relatives, who die, will never return on Earth. Your relatives will return on Earth, when they are corrected and become wealthy in the other world.

Now all angel hierarchies, all intelligent and elevated beings, are doing great work – they are building a new universe, a new world, where only new people can live, with perfectly organized bodies, minds and hearts. In order for today’s people not to get in their way, they have given them a small world, to deal with, according to their understandings.

Now the Earth is believed to accommodate 5–6 billion people. It, the Earth, must one day get rid of these people. Five-six billion are too much. About one billion people will remain on Earth in the future. The Earth can support the excellent lives of one billion people. Those, who have come now, are here only as a distraction. They are here to prepare the Earth – they are like workers. When it is ready only one billion people will remain, all the others will go to other worlds to work. One day, for all of you who work hard, there will be one Earth, where you’ll be happy. You want to be happy here on Earth, but this is impossible. If I preach to the frogs that they will be happy – this can never be; to preach to the mosquitoes that they will be happy – this can never happen; to preach to the trees that they will be happy amidst their cutting – this can never happen.

The main thing, people have overlooked, is the thread connecting human souls to the essence of God, who has sent them to this world. For a thousand years He supported these people and they forgot about him and became very independent. They say: “There’s no God”. When you die, you’ll know where God is. Some people ask: “Where is God?” When you die, God will say: “Take everything I have given him and bring him to Me”. He will then say: “Now do you know Me?” How will you go there? You will go with all your rags, you’ve produced from times immemorial, without any substance. Or you’ll go there as a creature, overtaken by leprosy from head to toes.

One day, when the end of the world is here, people will scatter in space, like rocks are scattered in the mountain. The only people, who will be preserved, will be the ones, dressed in the garments of hope, faith and Love. According to their garments, they will be separated from one another, so that everybody can take his assigned place. However, in this allocation of places, there will still be higher and lower places. And in hope, faith, Love there are also degrees. The other people, who are not dressed in the garments of excellences, will wait for centuries and thousands of years for someone to come and help them.

Think well, so you're not in a discrepancy with cosmic space, otherwise its short waves will destroy you. When the short waves of electricity start coming, bad people won't be able to endure them. If we're in harmony with nature, the short waves of the cosmic electricity will act destructively, we must be in status of Love, so that we are in accord with them. We must be extremely cautious – cosmic electricity moves the heart and when we come to a discord, a stroke comes, a rupture of the heart occurs.

When the age of the Son of Man comes, then all ages of the past will act simultaneously. Then Cain will act, he will kill his brother, and the wife of Lot will break the order and turn to a pillar of salt, and his two daughters will commit crimes, and the sons of Noah will mock their father. Now is the time of the age of Noah, when sons do not respect their fathers. Here's what I say: this will be also in the age of the Son of Man. And those, who do not understand that age, will say that the world will end. The world will not end – it is just beginning. There are two conditions in the world: the conditions of day and night. The world of the day is a world of work, and the world of night is a world of rest. In the vegetal kingdom, rest is a necessity, so that those materials, those energies can gather together and organize in the plants, so that on the other day they can once again start collecting materials or energies, required for life.

“The Day of God is coming!” Many speak of the end of the world. Some have even asked me: “How will the world end? What will happen to us?“ Nothing special will happen. You will only be transformed, you'll weigh less – only one gram, and that gram will contain such a powerful force, that according to your will, you'll be able to create for yourselves bodies of your liking, heavy or light, according to the time. It will be like an embryo. Then God will give you all the conditions for development. The righteous will be blessed, they will shrink and grow, according to their wish. This is the law of meekness, through which we must pass, to humble ourselves. When we speak of meekness, this means that a man must abandon megalomania, gluttony, because the meaning of life is neither in the abundance, nor in the shortage. A man should only have what is needed in a certain situation. For you have to learn the law of shrinking and growing. After you shrink, you will pass through the smallest hole, the smallest interstice, the smallest orifice.

THE FIVE RACES

In tropical places, peoples are remnants of the old culture, which failed to follow the rules and now, because they have experience, they try to follow them. Black race is the remnant of a race, which failed to follow the rules of nature. The yellow race is the remnant of a race, which was once in a flourishing state. The white race too, which is in a flourishing state, it also – if it does not follow the order of nature, it will also occupy the same position as the yellow, the black and red races. Another race will come after it – the sixth race, the same way white race replaced yellow. Similarly, white race will be replaced by another. In nature there is a law which changes form, frees people's consciousness, or people's minds of their internal slavery.

If there were people who only looked for pleasure, these were the Lemurians – they were the most libertine people, to ever exist on Earth, who still exist. All the bad things, done by contemporary people, have been caused by them. Slaughtering animals, eating chickens, skinning cows – all these trades come from them. You've been carrying them for ever. The Atlantean race and the yellow race brought violence to this world. That is the time when the greatest violence existed in the world. The white race was created afterwards. They can be distinguished by studying skulls anthropologically – there are methods to study the skulls of the black, yellow and white. The white race came to this world to give an impulse, to become the carrier of human thought.

In the Negroes, the black pigment is on the outside, and in white – on the inside.

During the age of the black race it was horrible. Then there were such murders, such crimes, that have never taken place in any other race ever since. Now the black race is servant to the white race. Now it is the time, when the sons of light, the race of light will come.

When 18 million years ago, the fall of man took place, that was the time of the black race. The Lemurians are the third race – when they fell they became black. Lemurians were tall, very strong and very pitiless. The history of the first people should be written. After the Lemuria continent was submerged, a large part of the black race perished. A portion of today's black race is formed of descendants of the Lemurians, and the others are the descendants of the mixing of the third and fourth races. In the fourth or Atlantean race, there was a slight improvement – they looked for their freedom outside. The current yellow race is a part of the Atlantean race. In the white race there is already a well established self-consciousness, in them there's a progress – they seek to correct things from the inside, they have conscience. Many Hindus, Egyptians, Assyrians, Babylonians have now been born in Europe, many of the cultures past, are now incarnated in Europe and you should talk to them in a modern language, so that they understand. Then they will remember about the deep questions of life, on which they used to meditate. Whatever one may say, the white race has progressed greatly – it wants to correct things, but there is no way it can bring in something new, while the sixth race, which is coming now, carries the method of super-consciousness, and this is the main that is expected.

Five races – five senses. Each sense shows an age of culture.

There was a time, when people only dealt with impressions. These impressions, which they acquired, remained in the face and the hands. What a man did with his body, it was a general knowledge of the outside world.

The second culture was already connected to taste and eating. The entire animal kingdom used to perceive the world through taste. Man perceived and still perceives life through breathing. And the sense of small came together with breathing. People started eating through their minds and through the air.

The culture that is now coming, will give food through the ears. To listen, to perceive even the most delicate vibrations and that what is carried by the God's Love. Every person, who can perceive Love through listening is of the new culture. It is written: "Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God." On every word, which comes from the mouth of God, man can live. There have been power in eating, drinking, smelling, but listening is just starting.

In America, because many peoples have gathered there and their blood mixed, something new has formed. Once mankind suffered a lot from the black, who used to be very cruel masters; with the fall of man that race became black.

Races are basically conditions of matter. The beings of the fourth race were guided more by their desires and therefore they were immersed in a matter, thicker than that for the beings of the fifth race. The more advanced beings of the fourth race, who worked hard on their intellect, entered the fifth race. Today this environment becomes thick, and that is why the beings of the fifth race are striving to enter a thinner environment. Current people must carry out a great job and that job cannot be given to the next generation. It will have a job of its own.

In every race there are more and more good conditions, compared to the previous race. Therefore the next condition will be more favorable than that, in which you are now. However sometimes a restoration to a former state can be observed. Everybody can be restored to his previous state. Although you have passed through all the races – the Lemurian, Black, Yellow and White races, you can return to any previous state. The Lemurian is a man who wants to live only for himself and have no morals at all. The one who only seeks pleasure in eating and drinking, belongs to the black race. A man, who is extremely conservative and cannot elevate himself, belongs to the yellow race, and the one who starts thinking and striving, belongs to the white race. This is just a sketch, certain features, which define races. Whenever a yearning arises in you to be rulers, this is the yellow race in a potential condition. To want to become a ruler, without having the intellect and strength to rule, this means that you belong to the yellow race, for in order to be a ruler, one has to be intelligent, even more than a genius, even more than a saint, even more than a Teacher. Well, Teachers do not rule. You have to be a Deity.

A man of the white race may get yellow, if he is sick, but in the sixth race there is no yellowness.

The advanced beings, who control the evolution of all kingdoms of nature, are of the angels' hierarchy. Such beings also guide all human races. Every nation, every people has its own tasks, acquisitions, which must be deposited to the common treasury of mankind. The black race has somewhat developed consciousness, the red and yellow races continued that development. White race, on its parts, developed mainly the nervous system, the mind. The next race, which is coming, will be the race of heart. In the evening the people of that race will emit a pleasant, soft light – a halo and the face will stand out in that light. The way saints are now pictured is just a shadow. The new will be much more magnificent.

Now we are transiting to a new way of living. We are now in a transitional age. Once, after the Fall, the black race appeared on Earth, the black color. Consciousness started to recover in it. And then the yellow and the white race came. The sixth race will bring the restoration of light, it will be a sacred light, and its members will emit light. Now when you do good, it's like a reflection. And man has come yet come to the condition, where he gives away light when he does good.

The faces of the members of the white race, compared to the faces of the other races, are very well organized, but still not as symmetrical and harmonic, as those of the future people, that are now coming. These new people, we call people of Love, people of high consciousness, who want to set the world straight through Love. They say that the good of all people must also be the good of each man. A way has to be found for that.

White race is distinguished for a self-awareness that it stands higher than the other races, which came before it: the yellow race, the black race, the red race. And it really stands above them, there are certain signs. The structure of the human body, the structure of the skull in the white race is different. The so-called Camper's Angle in the white race is wider. The skull of the white race is built differently. Then moral feelings are more strongly developed in consciousness.

Now we are living in that part of the Earth, where constant changes happen. For, whatever we may say, everything is going through changes. Where's the Egyptian culture? Many cultures and civilizations have died or perished. Many religions, many concepts of God, of the Universe, have perished or have been replaced by new ones. Today's science found out that the Atlantean race already had airplanes, people flew in the air and after that race perished, it left notions of flying dragons, and these were nothing but the airplanes that existed then. Enormous bombs flew over our heads, and we think that now it's the first time airplanes are even mentioned. And now we are passing through that same culture, which once existed. So I'm asking: if man commands all that knowledge, with which he can destroy, what does he acquire?

Atlantis was transformed several times. The Earth also transformed, according to people's consciousness. People's forms sunk with Atlantis, as the reliable ones escaped.

The yellow and white races deviated from the right way. The black over developed the liver, they increased the lower feelings. And therefore, when they ruled, their lips became thick, they used to be higher than as well. The fourth race came to balance the feelings of the black, but got to the black magic. And white race uses the power for destruction, uses explosive substances. The sixth race will come to adjust, to soften human nature through Love. In the white race there are certain signs of degeneration. For example, we see that the front of the jaw sticks out, which is getting near the animal features. The white race showed some ingenuity, but it is not superior ability.

A race, until it reaches its peak, comes to a decline. Decline is nothing by transformation of its energy into a superior form. The decline of the white race is in fact its descend from the stage, it has reached the bottom and cannot go any further, it will start elevating, but it will be not really that race but its child – the sixth race.

If we compare all races, the best structure of the body and skull is that of the white race. Not a single race has such talents, as the white race, but despite that the white race is lacking a lot of things. Geniuses cannot come out of the white race and neither can saints. There are saints, but these saints cannot set the world straight. Geniuses could not improve life. A genius is the man, who can change an improve life, and a saint is him, who can improve the entire outside and inside layer of life.

Current mankind cannot be improved. The current white race has reached the end of its capabilities. What is required of it cannot be born – nothing more. The white race has come to its ultimate capabilities. You, members of the white race, cannot produce geniuses, saints, scholars, talented people. No geniuses can be found in the white race. If a genius is born in the white race, he is not actually of that white race. Therefore, when we speak of the future mankind, we should understand that a new type of humanity is to appear, so that nature can put in it more capabilities, new abilities. This is what I see in the process of its development. It started with the smallest forms, started with the smallest capabilities and gradually that process developed.

The Bulgarian type forms just one form, one phase but it is not something cardinal. And not only the Anglo-Saxon type, but the entire white race, has not been fully expressed. If you review the five races, they differ greatly. There's a significant difference in the structure of the head of the white, yellow and black races, there's a great difference in the structure of the hands. A Chinese, no matter what he does, cannot have the same talents, as a man of the white, the Aryan race, because in each subsequent race there's something new, which is not present in the preceding races. And in the next race, which will come, there will be one quality, which is not there in the white race. That quality cannot be put into the white race. The white race, in order to obtain that, must pass into the sixth race. You can't have the qualities of the sixth race, unless you become one of its kind.

The Latin race created the inquisition – and it failed to reach its goal. Only the cultural people of the Anglo-Saxon and Teutonic races are relatively more freedom-loving and that is why they have a stronger internal connection. There it is perceived that the peoples, which want to have a future, must be inspired by the most elevated ideals, which must not be abstract, but such that express the internal connection between the material and the spiritual, subduing the material to the spiritual. Here we speak only of the more advanced representatives of the English and Teutonic races.

Each race has given something from itself. The white race has done much more than the black and yellow. The next race – the race of Love – will give the most. Its members are noble, light souls. It will bring the new culture on Earth. The ideas of the sixth race are like air – they penetrate everything.

The Slavs will give an impulse to the sixth race. After the events, which are now happening, the sixth race will become an active part of life, it will start taking control. On the Earth there will be much more of its representatives, than there are now. They will give a new direction to culture. The Slavdom is the substrate, on which the sixth race will be rooted.

There is a brotherhood, which travels around the world, bringing culture. It was in India, Egypt, Babel, Persia, Palestine, Greece, Rome, France, England, Germany and now it is moving to the Slavs. Wherever it goes, there's culture, everything is moving and developing.

One of the great features of Slavdom is self-sacrifice. The spirit of sacrifice works among the Slavs. Therefore the future is in Slavdom. The new culture will come out of it. So far there has been no such compact mass, as Slavdom, ready for the New Culture.

Old Greeks are reborn in the current French, the Germans are the old Romans, and the two lines of Jews are the current Slavs. There's a spirit of sacrifice among Slavs, there's manifestation of God among Slavdom. God summons the Slavs to assist for the Kingdom of God on Earth. The Slavs have been appointed by God to be the carriers of a new idea. The mind creates certain shapes – if we look at the nose of the Slav, it is still short, this means that he must learn. The Slavic soul has not yet found the door, through which God's Doctrine may enter more fully.

The Germans, the Englishmen, the French have been appointed teachers of the Slavs. A sign that the Slavs are of great significance is the fact that God has given them a vast areas of land – 21 million square kilometers, protected from the north by a natural border – the Arctic Ocean. This is not a Nazism, nor chauvinism, for the mission of Slavdom is not racial, but universal – for all mankind.

Love of God develops among the Slavs. They will adopt the best of the English, Germans, French and Americans. The Slavdom will fulfill its purpose. To oppose to that this means to lose great advantages. The Slavs will be the conductors of the Love of God. The new is the culture of Love. The word “Slav” is connected to the Glory of the Lord. The Russians, and generally the Slavs, have a lot of Mongolic blood, which they have to get rid of. But there is no other people, having so well developed a religious feeling, like Russians, and that is why they are so soft. Russians remain religious in their souls. The religious feeling, no matter how forms and shapes change, cannot be rooted out, nothing can root it out of man. Compared to all other peoples and races, the Russians, and generally the Slavs, has the most developed feeling of Love of God and that is why their purpose is to give an impulse to the new culture in the world. These sufferings and trials are not accidental, it is not by accident that Russian emigrants went everywhere in Europe, that was necessary. The Russian spirit, Russian music, literature, art, philosophy, the Russian soul penetrated and fertilized western culture, while at the same time Russians took something from the West – a spiritual exchange took place.

Slavdom is the virgin soil of the white race. What the Jews could not solve, will be solved by the Slavs. Caspian Sea is the analogue of Death Sea. Just like the Jordan river flows into Death Sea, Volga flows into Caspian Sea. The Soviet Russia is the female element in the hardest form. Each culture starts with the female element. Truth is a female element. The German people may give something in terms of mind – ideas in technology, while the Slavs are designed to be the carriers of the idea of brotherhood. In the Germans there something good, which will develop in the future. England, Germany and America go along the male line, and France, Italy and Spain – along the female line.

Jews denied Christ and the consequences came. And in Russia there will be a spiritual change, the new ideas will be adopted there, Russia will fulfill its spiritual mission. Now Christ will triumph in Russia. This is only for the consecrated, and it is not something which is to be spoken of in front of ignorant people, the ignorant are everywhere and they are dangerous. The spiritual will come to Russia, now purging takes place there, all the old concepts must be cleansed – this is tillage. The spiritual always provides upsurge. For example, the current American culture is due to the best and most intelligent people, who were persecuted in Europe and went to America: Quakers and Puritans from England, Huguenots from France etc. The turmoil, experienced by the Russian people, was the emanation of the karma, that had been collecting there for a thousand years. The nobility, the clergy, as well as the entire Russian people must be cleansed and God's Consciousness must be awoken in it.

Russia, as the representative of Slavdom, will pass through great trials, through a specific development path. From now on trials are coming for it – reasonable trials.

Between the perfect ones there is a plan for elevation of mankind. What's the future of mankind, has already been determined there. For each people there is an elevation plan, there's such a plan for Bulgarians as well, and if they had adhered to the spiritual laws before, they wouldn't be in these difficulties, they experience now – they have caused a lot of the difficulties themselves.

Future belongs to the Slavs. The Slavs must not follow the steps of the western peoples, because the former culture of the white race was the culture of violence. The fifth race will hand over its ruling to the sixth race. The sixth race has not descended yet, it has just started descending. It prepares the forms, with which it will descend on Earth.

The Sixth Race will be born in Slavdom. It will emerge throughout the Earth, but Slavdom will be its cradle. The Earth will be transformed with view of the sixth race. The White Race will leave everything as an inheritance to the sixth race and those, ready to become its members. Today is the day of the last examination, today the last credit is given to the white race. In the next age, the races below the fifth one will be the roots of the tree, the white race will be the trunk and branches, and the sixth race – the fruits. The fruits of the sixth race will produce freedom and understanding among people. They will be one heard with one herdsman and that won't be by law, but Love will unite people.

Now a special period is commencing in the world, a period of changes, which will organize it. And now a new type of man is coming, an entire race is being created. Just like back in the old days God created Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden, now a Garden of Eden is being formed and the new man will be put there. All of you will go through that gate of Adam and Eve, to enter the new race.

Today's people have superficial concepts of a father and mother, brother and sister, master and servant, state and law. The understandings of most people are like those of the prehistoric man, or like those of the fallen people. The current race has been formed mostly of fallen people. When you read the sacred books you'll understand how this race was created. In the beginning, when the world was created, a race existed, referred to as the „race of the Son's of God". The animal race existed along with it. Then both races mixed and the current race was created – of the fallen mankind. When God's Essence connects to the animal essence, a number of obstacles arise, which cause a certain downfall. The striving of the Divine is different from that of the human, the striving of the human is different from that of the animal. No matter how much you speak to man about God, he will understand nothing. He says: “Why shouldn't

I live the way I want to?" To know how to live, this is art. "But I have to eat!" To know how to eat, this is art. "I want to drink." To know how to drink, this is art. "I want to think, feel and love, to act." To think, feel and act rightfully, this is art. "To have faith." What should your faith be like? You believe in the spiritual, without knowing its origin. You believe that man was created by God, without having seen or known Him. What would you say if you're asked have you seen God? You'll say that you haven't seen Him, but have heard about him from your mothers and fathers, from your grandmother and grandfather. Have you met God on Earth? Have you met Christ? You'd say that Christ was on Earth 2 thousand years ago. Where's Christ now? "In Heaven." Where's Heaven?

Some want to improve the world mechanically, this is a third of the truth. Others want to introduce equality and improvement through internal methods, that's the spiritual way, which is two-thirds of the truth. And God's way is through Love. The physical, spiritual and Divine must come to accord. The strong in man must subdue to the spiritual, and the spiritual – to the Divine. God's Wisdom is unachievable! God aims at producing something much more beautiful, than we can understand. From the material that he now prepares, God will produce a new model.

Currently there are Englishmen, there are Bulgarians, there are all types of people, but when that fire comes and melts everything, you won't be able to recognize who was what.

And so, the new age will come with a new race, and after that a particular division of people will start – everybody will take their place. There will still be nations, there will still be people, but with new names.

Nations cannot enter the sixth race before finishing with their karma. Today's distress is also termination of the accumulated karma, a preparation for the new life, coming on Earth. In this distress, the spiritual man, with an open soul, open heart and radiating something, will stand out. The Scripture says: “The vine will be taken from those who worked on it or it will be given to others”. This means that the vine will be taken from the white race and given to the sixth. And the white race will learn to serve the sixth race, which will be connected to the other races and organize them. The man of the sixth race, when he enters the white, shall not form part of it, for he is of the people of light, but his main objective will be to work for the spiritual uniting.

Today’s people will reach the stage in their development, when they will be capable of being the precursors of the new race. During the black race the lower feelings of man developed; during the yellow race – his organic powers, and during the white race the development affected his mental powers. The main objective of the new race, which is now coming, however, is to develop the strength of his spirit in the fulfillment of the sacred ideals, so that he can become a ruler and use all the acquired strengths for good, and not for bad. Therefore the white race will become the mother of the sixth race, which will carry all the elevated ideas, of which all the poets, philosophers, scientists and preachers used to speak, and continue to speak now. The cultural people may prepare for the coming of the sixth race.

Today’s people are just starting to develop conscientiously, to work upon themselves. The current race of mankind – the fifth race, is one of the five foolish virgins, mentioned by Christ. The five races are the lives of the five foolish virgins. The next five races shall signify the lives of the five prudent virgins. Therefore all people strive aspire to the new, the elevated, which will serve as the foundation of the sixth race, which is now coming to this world. From now on, scholars will achieve true knowledge. When they attain that knowledge, the Kingdom of God will come on Earth and there will be joy and merriment in every home

THE SIXTH RACE

The type of the sixth race has already started to form on Earth, almost everywhere there are such types. Now Archangel Michael is on stage, he has been in control of the age for a number of years; when you loose heart, think of Archangel Michael.

The white race is now giving birth to the sixth race, and it is in pain, like a bother, but it will be wide awake, when the birth takes place, while in the past each race used to give birth to the next one unknowingly. The future, which the sixth race will bring, is unlike anything man has ever dreamed of – life will be lived in Love and people will be dematerialized

If you're born on Earth, all the conditions have been created for you. One consciousness watches over you. The wave of the sixth race is coming, and everybody must be ready for it. Its members will be a transition between angels and humans. Everybody in the sixth race will be visionaries. It's the race of Love, which will impose the Kingdom of God on Earth. A continent is now being built in the Great Ocean.

One day you will rule everything, I am telling you about. The invisible world will send workers, ready to transform the world and you'd be their assistants. You must prepare for that time. The current civilization, which is almost at its end, started from Egypt, went through Syria, Persia, Rome, England, Germany, America, and now it is once again going to Russia. You are destined to take active participation in that wave, which is now coming and setting mankind in motion.

Great future awaits you. Now you will start living. A new type of man will be formed. This is the culture of the immortals. The immortals, the people of the ideal will live in the sixth race. The current manifestation of Christ will be a manifestation of the Sons of God on Earth, or to say that in a contemporary language: fraternization of people. A common brotherhood will be created around the world.

Mankind has already passed rough the subconscious and conscious lives, and now it is gradually entering the super-conscious life. The super-conscious life is the border, we are approaching. Super-consciousness will give new direction the human evolution. From the depths of subconscious life, man has been gradually elevating to a higher conscious life, i.e. the self-sacrifice, which shows that a super-conscious life starts to emerge in himself, i.e. the manifestation of the Divine. This is the new type of man. This is the new race, which is coming.

After 3 500 years on the Earth we'll have a new race, which will have new feelings. And the Earth will be 10 times bigger than we now see it. What would you say to that? On the Earth there are mountains, which scholars know nothing about, on the Earth there are oceans, which scholars know nothing about. You'd say that this philosophy of ours resembles the philosophy of the ants, which, studying the Dawn, say that there's nothing more to this world. They say that there's nothing more than the Dawn. There are so many things ants do not know, they have never even dreamed of. So these are things, which will be studied in the future.

The main core of the sixth race will consist of these White Brothers, who will come from above. Of course, there will be members also from today's people, but only the prepared ones. The elected people of all nations will get through to the sixth race and than we'll be able to speak of brotherhood and Love. The White Race signifies force; it created steamships, airplanes and all kinds of technology, but the world has never before had any destructive forces, as we have now in this race. And the sixth race is a race of the heart and it gradually prepares the conditions for fraternization, lays the foundations and builds upwards. Peoples will remain, and the sixth race will be their head, and they will be the feet, hands, stomach etc. There will be a lot of peoples in the new age as well, but the sixth race will be the favorite son, just like Joseph was Jacob's favorite son, and Joseph saved Egypt, so the sixth race will save people from perishing. Whoever has a merciful heart, he is a candidate for the new race, the softness of heart is one of the signs.

The sixth race will prepare Love. It prepares three things: the perfect Love of God, of the fellow man and of self. Love has to enter first. People should have one measure: the Love of God should be the measure for everybody.

The New Culture is a culture of the heart, which leads people to fraternization, to brotherly lives. Love will manifest itself through the Heart. In the old Life Love started with joy, and ended with sorrow. In the new Life, however, Love starts with sorrow and ends with joy.

The sixth race will be sacred, its members will emit light. Now people do good by reflection. In the future good will be naturally emitted from man, like the light from the source.

In the future, when the sixth race comes, people will give more and take less. They will be people of the light, and they will take less. They will be people of the light – the race of light. Then people will think more. Thinking gives more and feelings take more. Man must think more, i.e. give more. And God started first with thought, with harmony. This is what prudent life requires.

Reason, memory, insight, prudence will be well developed in the people of the future. As soon as you see that man, you'll know him by his body – light will radiate from it. Every feeling an every ability of man radiate a certain amount of light and heat. The one in love, for example, emits more light and heat, than the one who is not in love. When you get near a person, who is in love with you, you get a pleasant feeling.

In the sixth race there will be resurrection. People will be resurrected. If a person of the sixth race was to come now in a city, and enter someone's home, he would bring all the blessings: if people are sick, they will get well, if they are poor, they will get rich, if they are ignorant – they will become educated. He will not pay attention to their handicaps. He will bring in, what he has in himself. He enters like the light.

If a perfect person is told that he must have a father and a mother to give birth to him, he will be puzzled. He knows that a person may give birth to himself. In the current living conditions it is so – a man has to have a father and a mother, to be born. But the perfect person gives birth to himself.

When Christ says that “of water and spirit” will a man be born, this means the primary prana, the force, and “spirit” means the Spirit of God, it is the prudent in man, the highest consciousness. “Of water and spirit” will the new man be born.

A specific feature of the sixth race will be that there will be no nationalism. There will be kindness, there will be one single language. There will also be other languages, but one language will be common for all.

Writing in the white race is from left to right. The writing of the sixth race will be geometrical: circles, triangles, quadrangles, points, lines, squares etc.

In the future the hairs on the human body will be very few. The entire body will be naked. Man is an excellent receiver. He receives through his body, a lot of things from the invisible intelligent world.

The head of the future man will be bald, but beautifully shaped, with a given width and length of the skull, with a given height of the head, with beautiful lines, with well shaped forehead. It won't be low and narrow, but wide and high.

The faces of the future people will be elongated, and not moon-like.

The people of Love, who are now starting to come, will have differently formed bodies. They will be able to see both in front of and behind themselves, as well as to the sides, without ever needing to turn or move their neck and eyes. They will know what will happen every single day and will gladly accept everything. They will not worry that sickness and poverty might come to them. They know how to get distress, sickness and death to work. They are their masters.

The white race steps back to make room for the sixth race, which will have differently structured people. The nose will be structured differently, the eyes will be structured differently. These people will see in front of them and behind, above and below, they'll see everywhere. Now we only see about 180 degrees. We can't see what happens behind us. We can't foresee what will happen in the future. Some have started foreseeing their future and call that intuition. IN the future people will know what their future is. In the future people will see what is hiding in their brains, in their hearts, they will start processing their feelings. If someone of you wants proof, you'll see that it is enough for somebody who is nervous, who often quarrels, to stay in this school for only three months, and he will be calm. There you will not be spoken to, you'll only be prodded at a spot – they won't tell you where, and they will prod you three times a day; in the morning they will prod you with the index fingers, at noon – with the third fingers, and in the evening they will use the third fingers, and while you sleep they will use the pinkies at these points. Within three months you'll be in an excellent disposition. You may ask: "What is there in that for us?" These touches will provide food for those centers. For patience is an ability of man. If a person is patient, this is not just a random attribute. It is ability. When it develops, you'll be patient. Give a man hope that what he wants, he will achieve, and he will become patient. Give a man the opportunity to develop properly, and patience will come. Stop the process and he becomes impatient. Impatience signifies an absence in man.

The physical vision is limited, and the spiritual one – unlimited. Spiritually a person can see at enormous distances. The discovery of the radio and television has proven the existence of second-sight. How does that second seeing happen, no one can explain. But in the future the majority of mankind will be visionaries. Y means of their internal radio, people will perceive things, happening thousands of kilometers away and in this way they will be able to help each other.

There will be no prisons. A person will come and say to you: "There is a risk that you may commit a crime after one year. Be careful!"

Everybody in the sixth race will be visionaries and its continent will be the Great Ocean.

Only the sinner sleeps. The people of the sixth race will always be with open eyes, and with their consciousness wide awake.

Another light is coming from the Sun, which cannot be seen by human eyes. In the sixth race a grid will be formed in people's eyes and they will make it possible to see new colors and new light.

So far man can only use 5 senses and the sixth race will have a sixth sense, and there are 6 more latent senses. When man fully completes his evolution, all his 12 senses will be developed to perfection.

When people become righteous and stop sinning, the climate will be moderate. There will be no carnivorous animals, all the conflicts will be gone and parasites will no longer exist. In the new life people will be above any diseases. During the sixth race there will be no hospitals, courts of law, prisons. In the future you'll just push a button and see a film of how people lived, what was life like on Earth millions of years ago. The Acashic records will be played. You'll see how the entire Solar System was formed.

In the future culture food will be completely digested, there will be no residues, there will be no toilets, nor sewerage. If you do not transform your mind, your heart and your body, if you fail to make them to be of a pure fine matter, you'll remain with the old living conditions, with distress.

The people of the sixth race will live on cleaner and more healthy food than this we have now. They will not use any knives or forks, the copper pots will be replaced by pots of more precious metals. The human organism must receive such elements, which would elevate the vibrations of its energies.

The people of the new sixth race will live mainly on fruit food. Meat is a strong food, but harmful and will no longer be even mentioned. Meat-eating is one of the reasons for the cruelties and barbarity among people, as well as for the neurasthenia. Man will recreate his organism through food. If he fails to do that, he will live with the animal stimuli.

A day will come, when people will only feed themselves through their lungs and brains. The newborns won't be slaves of the environment – to constantly worry about the next day.

In the future people will eat through their pores, which will again require some time for the absorption of food. Chewing will persist.

Everything on the surface of the Earth will burn and all people will melt. The new man will be created and then this Earth will be new, people will live, and when you come then, rivers will be crystal-clear. There will be no muddy rivers anywhere. The entire Earth will be covered by gardens, orchards. There will be very few fishes and animals. There will be a garden in front of every house, there will be fine music people will not use airplanes, but they will float in the air. If you want to fly – you fly, if you want to get down – you get back down. You just push the button and go out immediately. Everything you want, you'll have. You'll have that after 365 thousand years.

The people of the sixth race will master the art of transforming matter – to obtain bread, when they want – this is the art mastered by Christ and many Teachers and adepts.

In the future bread, fruits, all food, will be within people. It would be enough to think about a pear, and it will come right away. It would be enough for a man to think about a spring in the mountains and it will be there in front of him immediately.

One day you'll know how to become young or old, a man or a woman, you'll transform nature, according to your desires.

In the culture of the sixth race people won't die like they do now. When the time comes for someone to depart, he will summon his friends to say goodbye, and say to them: "Goodbye, I will become invisible, I will ascend to the residence, which has been prepared for me" – and he will dematerialize. This will happen in the more distant future. Then there will be no cemeteries, monuments, funeral services mourning, weeping.

Future people will turn from visible to invisible and vice versa.

When you offend a man, he will become invisible for you, and you'll not be able to offend him. As soon as you decide to offend him, he will disappear, you won't be able to see him, you won't be able to lock him up. If you lock him up ten times in a prison, it will be in vain, he will disappear.

Future people will turn from visible to invisible and vice versa, they will not have remains, and there will be no need to be buried. After they live 150 years, they will depart, they will become invisible. The process of people being born will be changed, there will only be incarnation.

People won't marry any more or be born and incarnate, as they do now, but they will come through possession.

There is no need for us to create a new culture. This culture has already been created. And when we come to that point, we will send our children from the Earth to study in Heaven, and not like it is done now – they are sent to England, or Germany, or France, or Egypt, or India, or China, or Japan to study some secrets. No – we will send our children to Heaven, so that they learn there the great secrets of life. After 3-4 thousand years they will once again come on Earth in illuminated airplanes to show us how angels live in Heaven. They will tell us how the intelligent beings live there, how they build their houses, what are their relations etc. But now, if you say these things to somebody, he will answer: “This is all nonsense! We are dealing with real things.”

The future man, the Man of Love, will have such a great power, that nothing will be able to stand up to it. He will be able to increase his heat and light with his will, so that they get thousands of times stronger than that of the light and heat of the Sun, coming to the Earth. A person, having heat and light, thousands of times stronger than those of the Sun, will be able to blind the most numerous and the strongest of all armies, to melt their weapons. He will be able to melt the vaults of all bankers, warm-up all frozen hearts, remove any barriers, put on the road by human egoism.

In nature there's condensed energy and one day, when you become righteous, saints, you'll use that condensed heat. There is condensed bread, hoes, clothes. One day you'll be dressed up like angels. The fruit-trees know that art. They convey the energy, coming from the Sin and use it to form the fine fruit.

Up there in the air, in space, 500 km above the Earth, there's an entire ocean of electric power. It will be brought down, it will be used and provide light on the Earth.

Educated people say that for the inhabitants of the Earth, there is a new planet prepared in the Solar System. All the people will be transferred from here to that planet. That transfer has already started – people are being transferred in twos, in threes; in the future most people will be transferred there. It's a place with better living conditions. Those who'll be the pioneers on that planet, will communicate with the Earth. They say that this planet will not be very far from here. After some time that planet would fit itself in the Moon. So that it wouldn't be very far – at about 300 thousand kilometers. It would be a fine walk. And when that happens, the sign would be that the Moon will turn bluish, unlike its current color. This is how you will know it has changed. And one day you will return to this fine Earth and then it will be a true Kingdom of God. There will be one kingdom on the Earth and it will be the True Kingdom.

Strong is the one, who is not tempted in his mind, if you see money, you'll be glad that someone else has that money. If you are a truthful son of God, all the riches on the Earth will be yours. Everything there is on the Earth, it is yours, you can count on that. If we love God, everything will be at our disposal. If we do not love Him, the law is different. For we do not love Him, living in a world of lovelessness, God's goods are not equally allocated. When Love comes, when God lives in people, or when people adopt God inside of them, as it is said in "Our Father" – "Hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done"; if God's name is hallowed in our minds, if His kingdom comes to our hearts and if His will is done in our bodies, then all the goods, we need, will be there for us. This is the future Kingdom of God. When one day human consciousness is elevated, not only self-consciousness, but super-consciousness to be present within all people, so that big and small, ignorant and educated - everybody lives in Love, everybody will rejoice. Then we will have a culture, much different from the present one.
